GOOD WORK AT MANILA.

It is clear now that the period covered by the censorship of the cable was devoted to a general work of preparation to repel the attack from Aguinaldo felt to be inevitable. Admiral Dewey and Gen. Otis knew perfectly well from the pressure exerted on all sides by the Filipinos, from their insolent manner and their defiance at Iloilo that a collision was certain to come. The Filipinos were told by their leaders that we were half-disposed to evacuate, and that one severe blow would settle the matter. Our army and navy were made ready and the work carefully cut out. It was complicated and difficult. A large city must be held in subjection, and every weak point strengthened against a possible massed attack. Aguinaldo planned an uprising in the city, and it is said to have miscarried. It is far more accurate to remark that the disposition of troops in the city and of our ships in the bay prevented the battle in the streets that had been arranged. It was our readiness and display of force in Manila that foiled the plot in the Filipino quarter.

When the battle opened Dewey's flagship took position in the midst of the foreign vessels in the harbor. He believes in giving personal attention to the duties of neutrality under trying circumstances. If Aguinaldo had any consulting assistants on a foreign ship in the bay they kept quiet. The fighting craft of lighter draught went to their appointed stations to aid in repelling the assaults. In every attempted advance our troops carried the position they wanted, and held it. Our long and patient forbearance at Manila is proved by the fact that armed Filipinos held the water works, though the city was surrendered to the United States months ago. We allowed them to remain up to the day of their attack rather than provoke a quarrel. Here again they suspected timidity. Our army and navy at Manila deserve the warmest praise for admirable foresight as well as splendid valor.

The threat of a Havana paper that Cuban hostility to the Spanish residents of the island will make the Spaniards all annexationists undoubtedly means something. Independence would be likely to instigate assaults on the Spaniards by the natives which would repeat the feuds of the other Spanish-American states three-quarters of a century ago. This peril is sure to win the support of a large majority of the Spanish residents in Cuba to the annexation policy. Unquestionably also the influence of Spain will be used in favor of annexation. Spain will have no sway of annexation. Spain will have no sway over the native Cubans, but it will probably have some weight with the Spanish inhabitants of the island. Stability and progressiveness in government will help the Spaniards in Cuba as well as the rest of the residents, and these conditions, as Spain presumably knows, are more likely to be secured under a government run by the Americans than under one managed by the Cubans.

Stock-jobbers and trust-builders are not in very good repute at present, but the man who puts his trust in the American army and navy may begin to count his profits from the time the first gun is fired.

We are informed that "Aguinaldo is one of the greatest Malays whose name appears on the page of history." It is not known whether this characterization takes Hoar, Hale, Billy Mason and the rest of the Filipino Junta in Washington into the comparison. These individuals deserve some sort of recognition from those persons who are reciting the deeds of the great Malays.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.
