the office are now admirably kept and in excellent condition. We find that the sheriff was compelled to incur a considerable expense in an endeavor to effect the arrest of Frank Forrester, that should be borne by the county, and we recommend that this expense be paid by the county. We have been shown every courtesy in our investigation by the several officers, and our work had been expedited very materially by their aid. We found the county poor well looked after and cared for by M. M. Cushing and the quarters provided for the inmates comfortable and suitable. We extend our thanks to Mr. Jayne, district attorney, for the gentlemanly and courteous way in which he has assisted and aided us in the prosecution of our labors, and the Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, judge, for the clear and explicit instructions given us and the aid accorded us by him, which has aided us very materially in the expedition of our work. Having completed our labors we respectfully asked to be discharged. Dated, The Dalles, Feb. 17, 1899. C. W. HAIGHT, Foreman.

OUR CAPITAL LETTER.

Deaf Mutes Visit the Legislature to Listen to Those Who are Anything But Mutes. SALEM, Feb. 16, 1899. Last Wednesday was the most exciting day of the present session. The deaf mutes came in from the school to attend, in a body, the sitting of our lawmakers, and see how laws were made. The lesson learned was not evidently, a profitable one, since the decorum of several persons on the floor of the house during the forenoon session was not up to the standard grade which it is supposed lawmakers would assume. This lack of good conduct was caused by comment and debate which was being held in regard to the merits and defects of the proposed daily school textbook commission law.

The afternoon was taken up in the house with consideration in committee of the whole, Moody in the chair, of the three appropriation bills. The sums named in these three bills, which have been passed upon by the committee, aggregate $1,182,924.62, and of this sum the asylum gets $397,950, or a sum which is $3,641.80 greater than one-third of the total sums allowed for the running expenses of the state, besides the large sums allowed for schools, for extending several wings on public building, and other large sums paid for claims against the state. From this, it seems that this same asylum is something of a graft itself.

Today work in both houses is being rapidly pushed through, and great efforts are being made to finish up the labors of this body by Saturday night. Grand Jury Report. In the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for Wasco county. In the matter of the final report of the grand jury for the February, 1899, term. We have examined five cases and have returned three indictments into court and two not true bills. We have examined the clerk's, sheriff's and treasurer's offices, and find the books and records well kept, and the business of these offices well and ably conducted. The county clerk's office has had the vault fitted with new steel vault furniture. This is a much needed improvement and the records and files of

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour and watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out languid feeling. There is often a foul taste in the mouth coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition. The cure of this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it can ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared. According to Dr. Harlan's the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drugstores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will certainly follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membranes of the nose become inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals. Send for little book mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drugstores.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't cure whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.
