You needn't go to Switzerland to see the Alps. They will make their appearance at the Baldwin opera house tomorrow night.

We are very sorry to learn that L. E. Crowe is confined to his bed in Portland, the grippe having settled in his ear, making it much more troublesome, and at the same time he is suffering with rheumatism.

R. C. Judson, accompanied by a number of gentlemen, is expected to arrive in the city this evening, and tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the first meeting of the Farmers' Institute will be held at the court room. Other announcements as to the meeting will be made later.

The case of Otis Patterson, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, which was to have come up in the recorder's court this afternoon, was postponed at the request of the defense until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The two other cases against defendant will follow.

All are rejoicing over the splendid showers we are now having, and which, it is now said, extend throughout the country, and are sadly needed. During the past thirty-six hours we have had 1.35 inches of rain, and from all indications it will continue. Let us hope so, at least.

The Oregonian says: "Arrangements are in progress which it is hoped will result in admitting The Dalles, Astoria and Salem in the inter-club contest which is to begin about the first of April. It was originally intended to include only the Portland clubs, but if the matter can be satisfactorily arranged the three teams mentioned will be given an opportunity to enter this bowling contest."

The passenger train which should have arrived here at 2:55, this afternoon, was this morning reported twelve hours late; but this afternoon word reached here that it had been annulled, so that today's train will not arrive at all. This train has been very uncertain for the past few weeks.

Evangelist Crittenton seems to be awakening quite an interest in his work in Portland, as he invariably does in every city he visits, for it is a work which commends itself to everyone, no matter what their station in life. At a meeting Sunday afternoon a widow lady became so enthusiastic that she contributed her diamond ring to the furtherance of the work in Portland. Mr. Crittenton will leave that city for Astoria Friday.

Last night F. N. Jones returned from a trip to Southern California, and the reports that he brings of the drought there are anything but flattering for the residents of that part of the state. It is not surprising that Oregon is at present receiving such an influx from that locality. Mr. Jones says farmers will hardly have enough of a crop for seed, and that the absence of rain is even telling on the eucalyptus trees, whose roots extend an indefinite length in search of moisture.

Mr. G. W. Miller, who called at this office yesterday to pay his daily subscription, has certainly proven himself the friend of newspapers, having won quite a reputation as a subscriber to many. Among those he has read continuously for years is the Oregonian, he having been a continuous subscriber for over forty years, and has taken the daily for over twenty years. When the Golden Eagle Sentinel started his was one of the first names on the list, and he has received that journal for over twenty years. Every since THE CHRONICLE commenced publication, nine years ago, Mr. Miller has read it daily, and is such a subscriber as newspapers desire to have.

Some time ago in speaking of Henry Irving's visit to America, THE CHRONICLE could not suppress the question as to whether he could do a calk walk or sing a coon song, and if not, how could he possibly succeed in this enlightened age. It now seems, after years of success on the legitimate stage, with all the world's praises sounding in his ears, that Louis James has just awakened to the serious mistake he has made, and becoming tired of the Othellos, Hamlets and Macbeths, longs to do a calk walk or try his rich voice, which so captivates everyone who hears it, in "Mr. Johnson Turn Me Loose." And yet it cannot be this conclusion has been reached through any lack of appreciation by the people, for he never visited The Dalles, as has Ward, and been greeted by an audience of a dozen or more; but in every city plays to packed houses. Then why this sudden outburst and the declaration that were he back at the foot of the hill he should travel the other road? Simply, as the Telegram says, because greatness always brings weariness. Then, too, he may have been desirous of giving the reporter who interviewed him, something to write about.

So far nothing has been done in this city toward enforcing the law regarding the abolishment of nickel-in-the-slot machines and similar devices, and the officers as well as owners of such machines seem to be waiting the decision in regard to the constitutionality of the act. Such a test was to have been made in Astoria yesterday. An attorney had been engaged by the nickel-in-the-slot men at that place and another at Salem, the first arrest to be made at Astoria. A victim had been selected with the understanding that all costs of litigation were to be borne by the men interested in the protection of the machines, and either the sheriff of Clatsop county or chief of police of Astoria be induced to make the arrest. A pro forma confession of judgment was to be entered in the state circuit court and the case at once taken up on appeal. A gentleman here said today: "If they would let the machine rest, it would soon wear itself out, like any other fad." That when he first had his machine he took in from $12 to $15 some days, whereas now it only helps him to sell his cigars, and many days but fifty cents is put in. Quite a revenue is paid into the city from licenses on these machines, which, in case of the enforcement of the law, must be refunded. It certainly is naught else but one form of gambling, and should be dealt with as such.

In Older Times People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with the transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Buy the genuine, made by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Come let us figure with you, -let us show you how much cheaper it is for you to buy your muslin underwear of us. We will convince you that to buy elsewhere, or to make it up at home, is an extravagance. A. M. Williams & Co.

WHO CAN VOTE.

The Latest Legislation Defining Qualifications of Voters.

The following is the full text of the law passed at the late session of the Oregon legislature and will govern voters in the coming school meeting next Monday:

An act to define the qualifications of voters at all school meetings and school elections and to provide for the establishment and regulation of polling places and elections in districts having a school population of more than two thousand.

Be it enacted by the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon:

Section 1. In the school districts in this state now created or that shall hereafter be created, any citizen of this state male or female, married or unmarried, shall be entitled to vote at any school election or school meeting, who is twenty-one years of age, and has resided in the district thirty days immediately preceding the meeting or election, and who has property in the district of the value of at least $100, as shown by the last preceding county assessment, upon which he or she is required to pay a tax; provided, that in districts of less than one thousand inhabitants women who are widows and male citizens over twenty-one years of age who have children in the district of school age, and who shall have resided in the district thirty days, as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote at any school meeting for the election of school directors or school clerk.

Section 2. All school districts in the state having a school population of two thousand or over, as shown by the last preceding school census, shall be subdivided into voting wards by the directors of such district, such wards to conform as near as possible to the city wards comprised in its boundaries. The board of directors of all such districts shall establish at least one polling place in each ward, the judge and clerks of which shall be qualified electors within the provisions of this act, and residents of such ward; and each elector shall be required to cast his or her ballot in that ward in which he or she resides.

Section 3. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 4.-Inasmuch as uncertainty now exists as to the qualifications of voters in such districts, this act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor.

Approved October 15, 1898.
