

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was applied that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. I had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific,

S.S.S. For Blood reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral.

BABYISH BOYS.

Mothers Are Often to Blame for Their Sons' Lack of Manliness.

No woman admires a babyish man, yet one frequently sees a mother training a babyish boy. He comes in pouting and crying because some one treats him unfairly, or the fellows won't let him play, or he has met with a fall, and everyone is to blame but himself.

His mother coddles and pets him; criticizes the other boys; gives him a piece of cake, and keeps him in with her.

The boys don't like to play with him. They call him mother's darling and baby boy, and they get rid of him in every way as soon as possible. He is peevish, selfish and overbearing at home, but that is interpreted as a sequence of his playmates spoiling him.

This kind of boy grows up and takes his fretful, fault-finding, unlovable disposition with him. He has no luck in the world. His mother only is patient with him, but even she cannot be proud of, nor lean lovingly on, such a son.

How much better would it be for a mother kindly to show her little son his fault! And in so doing she need not lose sympathy for any real hurt or childish sorrow.

As a rule, mothers consider their own offspring entirely superior to other children; they listen to a one-sided tale, and harshly judge the other side, and in consequence neighbors fall out and children are encouraged to disagree—a twofold injury.

"The other boy didn't mean to hurt you, Johnnie," was a wise woman's reply to her complaining son. "I have seen you throw the ball in the same way, and very likely you do other naughty things, so you really have no right to get mad. Besides, it will only make other children laugh at you and call you names. Now you must put a stop to that by showing them that you can be manly, and are willing to take what you send. Go, my son; it really hurts mamma to see you babyish."

Such a course as this mother pursued was most sensible; it developed the child's sense of right, of justice and unselfishness.

If you think it a slight thing, mothers, you are mistaken. You take the easiest way to rid yourselves of the matter, really and metaphysically, and caution him to "let those boys alone."

If his playmates are really bad, it is your business to know it, and guard your son from contamination; but you do him an injury to keep him from the company of other rollicking, sturdy, good-natured boys—boys in the fullest sense of the word.

Some time he must match his strength, physically and morally, with his kind; he must battle with life and its problems when mother is powerless to shield him from the world's hard knocks.

Some time he and you must awaken to the knowledge that it is only by courageously meeting disappointments and discouragements that manly strength matures. Happy is the boy who has had that wise help and that occasional demands, which inure and ennobles his moral muscle!—Housewife.

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Ferrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stipulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion and builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists, Guaranteed.
