WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The Metropolitan Opera Co. will appear at the Baldwin next Tuesday night.

Max Lueddeman, of Antelope, has been appointed administrator of the estate of Thomas Coghlan, deceased.

The legal age limits for original enlistments in the army are now eighteen and thirty-five years, by order of the secretary of war.

Next Saturday at their dancing school Smith Bros. will give a lesson on the French minuet. Only members of the class will be admitted.

Dr. G. C. Eshelman will be in The Dalles tomorrow. Any one wishing to see him can leave word at Clarke & Falk's drug store any time tomorrow.

A heavy frost covered the ground this morning, and for fear of losing the more tender plants which have recently been uncovered, it would not be amiss to shield them a little at night.

A circular letter will soon be issued by School Superintendent Ackerman instructing county superintendents to require that a 50-cent revenue stamp be placed on the bond of each district school clerk.

J. D. Lee, who was appointed by Gov. Geer to the position of superintendent of the state penitentiary, was for a time a resident of The Dalles, having come here for the benefit of his daughter's health. During that time he gained the respect of Dalles people for his integrity of character, and all are glad to learn of his good fortune in securing such a position.

Peter Limmeroth was in from his farm near Nansene yesterday. He says that the recent winds have caused the soil to dry up very quickly. They have light frosts nearly every night now in that vicinity.

Mr. Hugh Fraser, who has been confined to his bed for some time with grippe, we are sorry to say is much worse, and it is feared the disease is developing into pneumonia.

Mays & Crowe are already beginning to move some of their hardware into the new building, and last night the store was lit with electric lights. They will be fully settled in their new quarters next week.

W. Mansfield, an exponent of the "art preservative of all arts," is in the city. Mr. Mansfield was formerly located in the Willamette valley and later in The Dalles. He is in this section for the benefit of his health.—Baker Democrat.

Tomorrow afternoon and evening Mrs. Phillips will have a display of spring hats, principally those for street wear. Having an immense stock suited to ladies, misses and children, it was found impossible to make a display of her entire stock at one time, so her Easter opening will be some weeks later. 10-2t

Tonight Mrs. Geo. Rowland and family will leave The Dalles for Missoula, Mont., where they expect to make their home in the future. It is always with regret that we notice the removal of residents who have been with us so many years. At the same time we wish Mrs. Row and her family success in their new home.

Warren S. Chipp and Mrs. Annetta Klingsmith, both of Arlington, Gilliam county, Or., were united in marriage at the Perkins hotel yesterday, Rev. Henry A. Barden officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braden and others of the bride's friends were present. The bride was handsomely attired. After the ceremony the company repaired to Watson's restaurant, where a sumptuous dinner was served.—Telegram. Mr. and Mrs. Chipp will return to Arlington Monday, where they intend to make their home.

Next Monday afternoon from 2 till 6 o'clock an election will be held at the city recorder's office in The Dalles, for the purpose of electing a school clerk and one director for district No. 12. Tomorrow we will again publish a notice which will give all needed information as to who are eligible to vote at this election.

Private advances from Los Angeles are to the effect that the continued dry seasons in California have prevented the raising of barley and oats this year, and as the supply of these commodities will have to be obtained from Oregon and Washington, the writer advises the Northwest farmers to sow heavily to barley and oats. The commission men will also find a hint in this to them.

This morning about 11:30 o'clock, Mrs. Caroline Rose died at her home on Eighth street, between Court and Union. No particulars as to her death have been obtained, other than that she had been suffering from grippe for some time, which was the primary cause of her illness. She was about 42 years of age. The funeral will take place from the Catholic church Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Yesterday was the closing day of a very successful meeting of the Wool Growers' Association at Pendleton. The society now numbers sixty-four members, and has been instrumental in securing needed legislation beneficial to not only its members, but the entire state. The officers of the previous year were re-elected as follows: President, Geo. Young; Secretary, F. W. Wilson; Treasurer, D. M. French.

On March 6th two more Oregon boys were wounded near San Pedro Macati. They were Harry L. Stanton and Albert E. Eide, the latter severely. The former was a Portland boy, and the latter enlisted there, though his home is in Kansas. Now that our boys are really in the encounters, the dispatches are watched carefully by all, whether they are personally interested or not. Our sister state seems to be suffering most from the ravages of war, which it is hoped will soon be ended.

A very bright and exceedingly humorous serial treating of student life and of social life in a college town will begin in the April Ladies' Home Journal. It is by Mrs. Charles Terry Collins, a novice in fiction, who has written with charming freshness, cleverly picturing student life, the students' games and sports, their social diversions, etc. Into the deliciously droll story Mrs. Collins has subtly woven a most interesting, happy romance, from which the story takes its name—"A College Courtship."

Wasco has never had the pleasure of witnessing so good a dramatic company as it did last week in the Noble company and it will doubtless be a long time ere it does again. It was the first time we have ever had a six-day entertainment, and the boys are all "busted," for they couldn't stay away; but they are satisfied, nevertheless. Crowded houses every night greeted the company, whose sole thought was to give the people their money's worth. And they did. Every member of the company is good, from Mr. Noble down, and it is with delight that we listen to the orchestra. In addition to the many other accomplishments, they are ladies and gentlemen in the fullest sense of the term. They go from Moro to The Dalles next week, where they will no doubt receive an ovation.—Wasco News.

Geo. Young, state president of the Wool Growers' Association of this state, has in his possession a paper of which he is justly proud. While in Boston, Mass., Mr. Young, who by the way has just returned home from an extended visit in the East, visited the office of the Revolutionary war archives of the commonwealth of Massachusetts and secured an abstract of the war record of his grandfather, Daniel Nutting, who was one of the first patriots to take up arms in the grand struggle for American independence. Mr. Nutting volunteered in 1775, and the abstract shows that he served with distinction and credit to himself and his native state. Mr. Young expresses himself as highly pleased to be at home again, and says that although he was accorded every courtesy while in the East, he did not at any time feel really satisfied until he again set foot in Eastern Oregon.—East Oregonian.

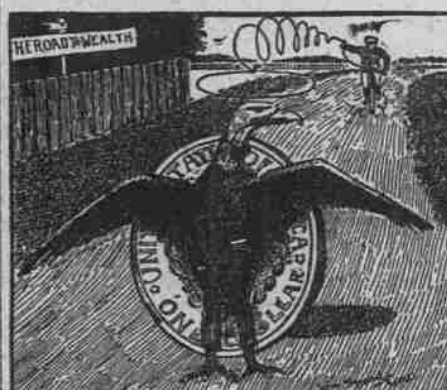

Stockholders Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that there will be an annual meeting of the stockholders of The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Co. at their office Saturday, April 1, 1899, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of electing seven directors, and transacting such other business as may properly come before said meeting. By order of the president.

KURTZ FURNISHED THE BREAD The Other Man Had the Bologna and Also the Nightmare.

We have heard many times over the story of the man who said he could furnish the water if his wife could only manage to keep them in bread. Yesterday Mr. Kurtz struck a man who could furnish the bologna if he would "dig up" the bread. He probably belonged to the same gang as the tramp who entered THE CHRONICLE office recently and asked for the "head cheese." No doubt they intend to start on a picnic and are preparing their lunch.

Mr. Kurtz' friend sauntered into the express office yesterday clothed in a decolette costume en train, (or rather under train) and with an air that solicited sympathy. Perceiving that the gentleman behind the desk had a well bred appearance he gave him the high sign and informed him that he "ran against some bologna up town and knocked it over," and that the bologna now felt the need of the staff of life. He was now looking for a man to furnish the same and Kurtz had been referred to him as the express man.

Kurtz looked him over sympathetically, and deciding he was loaf enough, took his name and address, informing him that he would express it to him "C. O. D."

The kind hearted expressman informs us that the poor fellow had the nightmare last night and imagining he was a barrel of cider thought he was working. He raised such a rumpus that Nightwatchman Phirman took him under his protecting wing and this morning Recorder Gates made his nightmare a partial reality by putting him to work on Union cut.

A Neighboring Party.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Clarke, who will leave in a few weeks to make their home in Hood River, were given a genuine surprise by their neighbors last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Giger. Having been invited over to spend an hour, they were soon surrounded by the following friends: Mr. and Mrs. Groat, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Gourlay, Mr. and Mrs. Jayne, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Mr. Cates, Mrs. M. A. Hadley, Mrs. W. O. Hadley, Miss Rouark, Miss Smith and Arthur Clarke.

No better time was ever enjoyed than that spent by these neighbors, as they passed the time with all sorts of games, music and conversation, and partook of a splendid lunch. It was such an occasion as neighbors so well acquainted with one another can enjoy.

Discovered by a Woman. Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to

The new steamboat Spokane, built by the O. R. & N. Co. to ply on the Snake river between Riparia and Lewiston, is now complete, and in service. Steamer Lewiston is also in service, and the two steamers will alternate between Riparia and Lewiston, leaving Riparia daily except Sunday on arrival of train No. 4 from Portland and reaching Lewiston next day at 1 p. m. Returning, will leave Lewiston daily except Saturday at 12 o'clock noon, arriving at Riparia at 7 p. m., connecting with train No. 3 from Spokane. The Spokane has been specially constructed for the run mentioned above, and is thoroughly equipped with all modern appliances, electric lights, etc., and for speed and comfort will excel any craft that has ever been built for the Snake river. The Lewiston is her steady old self. Mar 4-1m
