Farmers in town today say that it rained much harder in the country last night than it did here. That's all right. Let it rain. There's nothing selfish about us.

We are to have a band concert Monday, about noon, by the Noble Company's band, which we hear is a good one. Seats for "Our Strategists" are now on sale at the Snipes-Kinnersly drugstore.

Next Monday afternoon from 2 till 6 o'clock an election will be held at the city recorder's office in The Dalles, for the purpose of electing a school clerk and one director for district No. 12. Let every one qualified vote.

Those who are particularly interested in the new sewer system for our city (and all should be) will find a complete description in another column. After reading it a person would be a fit subject for admission into the "sewer gang."

An opera company such as the Metropolitan has not visited our city in many years. The company numbers thirty persons. "La Mascot" will be given by them at the Baldwin Tuesday night. Get seats at Blakeley & Houghton's.

In addition to the usual musical program at the Episcopal church tomorrow morning, Mr. C. M. Smith will sing as an offertory "The Holy City," by Steven Adams. Mr. Smith was formerly the solo bass in St. John's Cathedral, Denver.

A meeting of the water commissioners is called for Monday night at 8 o'clock, when bids will be received for the construction of a main hold, enclosing the pressure valve and gate of the new water system. The plans may be seen at the recorder's office.

Mrs. Marie Peirano and Miss Delia Greeley have returned from Portland, having made some choice selections in millinery goods. While there Mrs. Peirano visited her brother at St. Vincent's Hospital. Mr. Reeves is improving rapidly and expects to return home soon.

Yesterday Robt. Mays made a hurried trip to Portland to visit L. E. Crowe, whom he found able to leave his room and occupy a couch in the sitting room for the first time. He is more than anxious to return home; especially so now that the work of moving into the new store proceeds, and he feels he is needed here.

These be the mornings when the "little fishes in the brook" must be wary if they evade the various bait which is dropped for them, and wary they certainly are if the experience of a number of nimrods this morning is any criterion to judge by. Five o'clock saw about a dozen fishermen lined up along the banks of Mill creek this morning, armed with rod and line, angling for a trout for breakfast. Seven o'clock beheld just as many nimrods retracing their footsteps loaded down with small fishes about five inches long. The leader was humming a bass solo, something about "could we but fathom the mighty deep," the remainder joining in the chorus. Fishing is all right in Mill creek, but catching is where the shoe pinches.

Cedar Circle has always been famous for the entertainments given under her auspices, and no order can excel the programs which are gotten up principally within her own circle. Last night an extra fine program was rendered, several persons taking part who have not often been heard by Dalles people, and each number seemed to be especially well chosen and as well given. At the close of the entertainment an hour or so was spent in dancing, the music being furnished by Mr. Lynch and Mrs. F. Menefee.

The Wardner News says: "The Nobles Dramatic company opened in Pythian hall last Monday night with 'The Strategists' and will close tonight with 'Lucky Ranch.' No company ever visited Wardner with more satisfactory results to its patrons than the Nobles. They have a large repertoire of comedies and dramas such as suit the popular taste and upon every presentation they produce specialties between acts which never fail to please. The Nobles have a fine solo band which is a drawing card in itself. The company has made an excellent impression in Wardner, where they have had a good house every night and the News takes pleasure in recommending them to the public wherever they may go."

Some weeks ago Mrs. Ed Wand, whose home was directly across Mill creek bridge, died, leaving to the mercies of a husband scarcely worthy of the name, a young babe and four children besides. Great sympathy was felt by neighbors for the little ones, and since the mother was taken away efforts have been made to in some way provide homes for them. Finally the case was submitted to the county judge with a request that three of them—Grace, aged 6; Katie, aged 3, and Emma, 4 weeks old, be sent to the Boys and Girls Aid Society of Portland, the complaint alleging that the father was unkind to them and took no care of them whatever. Monday, the 13th, is the day appointed for the hearing of the case and the decision as to whether they will be sent to the society. It is to be hoped that something will be done for the children.

Occasionally Dalles people have a little variation in the regular program, and awaken some morning to find that a store, shop, or some place of business has been opened and a few hundred dollars taken, perhaps less. Such occurrences occasion a slight excitement for a time and the matter is forgotten. This should not be the case, but every possible means should be used to bring the culprit to justice, and, as in Tacoma, some special efforts be made. This morning when Mr. Gunning came down to his blacksmith shop he found that he was worth $40 less than when he left it last night, some individual having unlocked the large door on the east side and walked away with eleven Green river screw plates, taps, dies and stock, and a bolt clipper, which were worth all of $40. The case containing the screw plates was left, and many tools which were valuable. No possible clue as to the robber can be found; but every effort is being made to apprehend him. Mr. Gunning says he cannot replace the screw plates here and perhaps not in Portland.

"Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might" has been the motto of Mr. S. B. Adams, whose third term of office as school director ends with the election Monday. Mr. Adams, we understand, has fully decided not to again accept the office, and certainly Dalles people could not expect more of him than has already been given. During the nine years in which he has served the district as director, his whole purpose and aim seemed to be the good of the school and everything in connection therewith, devoting most of his time to his duties in that line. Had he been erecting a residence of his own he could not have been more enthusiastic over every detail than was he regarding the erection of the new High school building, and his only regret now is that his term is up before he has seen the work of beautifying the grounds fully completed, and still expresses himself as determined to take as much interest as though he were a director. District No. 12 should feel very grateful to Mr. Adams for his efforts in its behalf, and trust that in its new director will be found one who has its good so much at heart.

MONDAY'S ELECTION.

A Clerk and One Director Are to be Chosen.

Next Monday afternoon there is to be an election in The Dalles for the purpose of electing a school clerk and one director for district No. 12. This should be a matter of great import to every citizen and all interested in the welfare of the city, whose schools are a very important factor in its progress. On those who have in charge the direct management of the affairs of the school district much depends, and much is expected. Therefore none should overlook the fact that the best men possible should be placed in such positions; not those who will take no special nor personal interest in the matter.

Monday is the day to give the subject your attention, not a week or month after the election, when you realize that the wrong man has been put in a most important place, and begin to find fault with every move made by the board.

The district at this time needs the best business men to be found; men who plan for its financial interests in as conscientious a manner as they would for their own.

So many questions are being asked regarding the qualification of voters as decided by our late legislature, that we again publish the law governing it. Read it carefully and further questions will be unnecessary:

"In the school districts in this state now created or that shall hereafter be created, any citizen of this state, male or female, married or unmarried, shall be entitled to vote at any school election or school meeting, who is twenty-one years of age, and has resided in the district thirty days immediately preceding the meeting or election, and who has property in the district of the value of at least $100, as shown by the last preceding county assessment, upon which he or she is required to pay a tax; provided, that in districts of less than one thousand inhabitants women who are widows and male citizens over twenty-one years of age who have children in the district of school age, and who shall have resided in the district thirty days, as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote at any school meeting for the election of school director or school clerk."

A Neat and Attractive Office.

If there is one place above another which should be clean and inviting it is a physician's and a dentist office. Dr. Sanders must realize this fact from the manner in which he has beautified the office recently purchased from Dr. Frazier. Besides the laboratory and operating room, he has a nice little library and a reception room which would do credit to any home. The carpet, portieres, oil paintings and other furniture display the best of taste, and make one forget the object for which they came hither.

Dr. Sanders is now ready to begin dental work in earnest, which fact will be appreciated by Dalles people who are

Metropolitan Opera Company.

The one big event, theatrically speaking, of the season will be the Metropolitan opera who present for the first time in this city "La Mascot." The company numbers thirty people, and on account of an open date will play in this city one night. It is not a usual occurrence for The Dalles to have operas, but our citizens appreciate the fact that this is a superior organization. The sale of seats commence Monday morning at Blakeley & Houghton's.

The costumes are elegant in design and elaborate in finish. Will Resing, Jeanette Lincoln, Blanche Aldrich, Lillian Kemble and Alice James are among the company. This will be a feast of mirth, melody and music. The company appear here one night only, March 14th. Prices, 75c and $1.

Lectures on Health.

Mrs. Sarah M. Read, of Portland, will speak in the small K. of P. hall, at The Dalles as follows: Tuesday, March 14, at 2:30 p. m., to women, on "The Physiology of Digestion;" Wednesday, March 15, at 8 p. m., to married men and women, on "Nature's Method of Curing Disease;" and Thursday, at 2:30 p. m., to women, on "How to Regain and Keep One's Youth." A cordial invitation is extended to all interested in these subjects to be present. No admission charged.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of La Grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'"
