FOR THE HOUSEWIFE.

Various Items of Interest Concerning Matters in Parlor and Pantry.

In rugs versus carpets, rugs continue to grow in favor from sanitary, economic and aesthetic. A carpet held in place by heavy book-cases, cabinets, sideboards and so forth cannot be taken up and shaken at will and dust and microbes of various sorts find lodgment when undisturbed for half a year or more.

Oyster pie is now seasonable and a dish much to be commended. It may be baked in a large pudding dish or in individual patties as desired. In a large dish that holds three pints, line the sides of the dish with puff paste or a crust, and put in a quart of oysters, layer by layer, seasoning each one with a teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of pepper, and an even tablespoonful of butter in bits.

While the California prune does not make as rich a sauce as the French, it is cleaner and cheaper. Wash carefully one by one in tepid water, allowing the prunes to stand in the water for two or three minutes to plump. Wash again and put in a saucepan, allowing to every cupful of prunes a cupful and a half of cold water.

"Potatoes a la Duchesse" live up to the elegance of their name and are much in favor. Take cold, well-seasoned mashed potatoes and form into biscuit-shaped cakes using a little flour to form them, but mixing none with the potato. Arrange the cakes on a buttered pie plate, brush over with a beaten egg and bake a delicate brown in a hot oven.

When space is a desideratum in a pantry, a groove should be made at the back of one of the lower shelves, so that the platters can stand up. Hooks screwed into the bottom of the shelf above where the cups and saucers are to be kept will permit the hanging of all cups that have handles.

If grease is spilled upon the kitchen floor do not pour hot water upon it, but cover the spot with a strong solution of unslacked lime and sal soda dissolved in cold water, and scrub vigorously with a clean scrubbing brush.

After mixing a wedding or any rich fruit cake, allow it to stand three days in the refrigerator before baking. An expert in making wedding cakes always steams them first, then bakes.

Cocoa is frequently used in place of chocolate for icing cake. Add to the white of an egg a tablespoonful of cold water, two teaspoonfuls of cocoa and as much confectioner's sugar as is needed to make it of the consistency required to spread well.—Washington Star.
