Sergeant Mason at Fort Leavenworth, says the Spokesman-Review. Armour & Co. and Libby, McNeill & Libby are now made the real culprits at the bar, with the chiefs of Mar17-td the commissary department codefendants. The government should lose no time in dragging these men before high courts and administering severe punishment to every man concerned in the outrage. Murder sinks into insignificance when compared with the crimes of these meat packers and the carelessness of the commissary agents. The national honor has been besmirched. The crime is high treason and should be treated as such.

California is the third state to be deprived of a United States senator this year, Delaware and Utah setting the pace. Ordinarily the energies of legislators are devoted to selecting some man to occupy exalted position in the upper chamber at Washington, but these bodies applied themselves to the task of preventing an election. Citizens will suffer not so much from lack of proper representation as from the continuation of the fight for honors at the next session of their legislatthat time destroying amusement, and Strs. The per capita of gold in the United States has increased to $12.87, and the total amount of gold to $966,396,743. It is useless to talk about a scarcity of gold as a presidential issue next year.

Mr. Reed's remark that the speaker's office has but one superior and no peer increases the desire of Republicans to have the speaker of the next house in hearty accord with the president.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Cartain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeles victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued to use and after taking six bottles found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.
