WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Tomorrow will be Palm Sunday, and a week from tomorrow Easter Sunday.

This morning Chas. Butler brought a large band of cattle to this city from Hay Creek. He will ship them to Port Townsend.

The quietude of spider heaven was disturbed today, and that insect will have to search for greener fields in which to weave its web than can be found in our postoffice. The walls and ceiling will now look rather deserted.

Millinery openings are not the only openings being held in our city at present. A large line of boys' and men's fine suits will be displayed at A. M. Williams & Co's. store Monday. Call and see what is to be worn this spring.

Mr. J. T. Peters is erecting a neat cottage on the lot on the corner of Third and Laughlin streets. We understand when finished it is to be occupied by Frank Chrisman. Chas. Johnson has rented the McGinn property on the lot adjoining.

Tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Methodist church the Epworth League will hold a rally service, to which all are especially invited. The rally will be opened by a song service, followed by a short address by the pastor, Rev. Wood, to the young people. The regular evening service will be postponed that the pastor may devote his attention to the care of his wife, who is quite ill.

This morning at 10 o'clock J. Aubin charged with obtaining money under false pretense, had a preliminary hearing in Justice Bayard's court and was bound over in the sum of $300 to appear before the next grand jury. "Slim" had employed no attorney, but seems to think he will come out all right. He is now in the county jail, having obtained no bondmen.

One week from tomorrow will be Easter Sunday. The season seems somewhat backward this year, which is unfortunate for those who look upon Easter as a time for the display of new bonnets and summer costumes. However, it's an ill wind that blows nobody good, and the less fortunate who cannot afford the Easter rigger will watch with anxiety the weather report in hope it may portend a storm on that day.

The Stevenson paper says that the Regulator passed there Monday with The Dalles band on board playing "Annie Rooney." That is the "most unkindest cut of all." We are much afraid that paper is following in the steps of the Oregonian, which always attacks a person after he is unable to defend himself. Were our band still in fighting trim it might resent the insult, for in its palmy days it was never known to do anything quite so rash as play "Annie Rooney," and never played itself out on neither that nor "After the Ball."

Mrs. A. Keller, accompanied by her little son and daughter, Josie, returned home on last night's train. Mrs. Keller has spent the past five months visiting in different portions of California. She is particularly taken with San Jose, which she says is a veritable garden of blossoms at present. Max Blank, who left this place for California about two years ago, has one of the most beautiful places imaginable, situated about three miles from San Jose. Mrs. Keller also visited the family of H. Gehres at Los Vatos. The people of California are in the best of spirits over the showers they are now having.

Gov. T. T. Geer is in receipt of a letter from J. E. DeVoe, of Lima, Ohio, who, writing for the Epworth League of the Grace church of that city, asks Oregon's executive to contribute a handkerchief, apron or some other article, to be sold at a fair which the league will conduct in the spring, for the purpose of paying the church debt of $3,300, a portion of which the league is to raise. Gov. Geer said that he would gladly assist the young people of Lima, Ohio, and if any others desire to do likewise, he would be pleased to hear from them. The governor has the right kind of a spirit in the matter, but we imagine it will be something like establishing the precedent of kissing babies—the applications will come in thick and fast.

CAPTURES INSANE WOMAN.

She Escaped From an Officer at Portland Last Monday.

Last evening Mr. Jim Wood informed Nightwatchman Phirman that he was in Baker City last Sunday when the sheriff started from that city with Annie Gordon, an insane woman, who escaped from him when they reached Portland, and that he was positive he saw the same woman on the streets of our city during the evening. Mr. Phirman stated to investigate the matter and about 8 o'clock discovered her walking along on Fifth street. When he saw her she was starting to go in the gate at C. M. Grimes' residence, as was her manner in Baker City, walking right into private residences. Phirman asked her if she was looking for some one and she answered him that she knew what she was about; to "go along." He then told her 'twas his duty to look after strangers, that he was an officer, and she said if he was an officer to show her his star. After some persuasion she was induced to follow him in search of a hotel, as she supposed. She told him that she had some friends by the name of Stewart living about a mile up the railroad and that she wanted to go there; that she came down from Baker City Sunday and some one showed her the house. As a matter of fact there are no such people living near here. She also said she came up on a freight train from Portland.

Mr. Phirman finally took her to the city jail, and after promising to take her to her friends this morning, she decided to remain there, and when the reporter called there this morning she was sitting by the grating crocheting contentedly. She is a small woman, with light hair, and apparently about 20 years old. Wears a pink calico dress skit and blue jacket, with a dark fascinator over her head. She has not the appearance of an insane woman, but her expression is more that of an idiot, although she is shrewd in many ways.

It seems that when she was taken to Portland a lady of Baker City accompanied her and remained in the room with her until 2 o'clock in the morning, and that after she left, the insane woman climbed out the window and down the fire escape of the hotel. Nothing had been seen of her since, and no doubt she has been wandering around and finally stole a ride on the freight to this city.

There is little doubt that she is the right person, as Mr. Phirman telephoned to Sheriff Huntington last night and her description tallies with that of Annie Gordon. The sheriff said he would arrive on the afternoon passenger and take her on to Salem.
