HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF.

England had her commissariat scandal during the Crimean war. Some of the facts are recited in Justin McCarthy's "History of Our Own Times."

"The winter (1854-55) was gloomy at home as well as abroad. The news constantly arriving from the Crimea told only of devastation caused by foes far more formidable than the Russians—sickness, bad weather, bad management. . . . On shore the sufferings of the army were unspeakable. The tents were torn from their pegs and blown away. . . . The hospitals for the sick and wounded at Scutari were in a wretchedly disorganized condition. . . . In some instances medical stores were left to decay at Varna, or were found lying useless in the holds of vessels in Balaklava bay, which were needed for the wounded at Scutari. . . . Great consignments of boots arrived, and were found to be all for the left foot. Mules for the conveyance of stores were contracted for and delivered, but delivered so that they came into the hands of the Russians, and not of us. Shameful frauds were perpetrated in the instance of some of the contracts for preserved meats. 'One man's preserved meat,' exclaimed Punch with bitter humor, 'is another man's poison.'"

The similarity of the Crimean scandal to the scandal of our recent Cuban campaign is striking. In both wars the commissary departments were inefficient, and troops suffered from hunger and exposure. In both instances, hospital supplies were near at hand in ships, while the sick and wounded suffered for want of them. And then, as now, rascally meat contractors were in a conspiracy to poison the defenders of the flag.

THE MACS COME OUT STRONG.

The following very complimentary editorial, in which Oregon's senator receives a share of the laurels, is clipped from the Washington Post: There are four Macs in the senate—McBride, McEnery, McLaurin, and McMillan. Two are Democrats and two Republicans. But they all voted for the treaty, and two of them—McEnery and McLaurin—secured its ratification. Our citizens of Scotch descent are very solid members of society. They seldom get left in any important matter in which progress, prosperity and patriotism are involved. It is a pretty safe thing to bet on the Scotchman. He makes it his business to keep on the winning side, and it is due him to say that, canny though he may be in ordinary things, he is willing to risk a little, sometimes much, where his feelings and convictions are concerned. He is a good, solid stand-by in the hour of need. Hoot, mon!

A Beautiful Skin.

Ladies, if you desire a transparent, clear and fresh complexion use Dr. Bourdon's French Arsenic Complexion Wafers. Their effect is simply magical, possessing the wizard touch in producing and preserving a beautiful transparency and pellucid clearness of complexion, a shapely contour of form, brilliant eyes, soft and smooth skin where the reverse exists. Even the coarsest and most repulsive skin, marred by freckles, moths, blackheads, pimples, vulgar eruptions, yellow and muddy skin are permanently removed, and a deliciously clear and refined complexion assured.

Price per small box, 50 cents; large box, $1, or six large boxes, $5. Sent to any address post paid and under plain wrapper upon receipt of the above amount. Write for free circular.
