WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Read A. M. Williams & Co.'s ad.
New dress goods just arrived at Pease & Mays.
Children's fancy reefer jackets in Pique and Welts, all colors and daintily trimmed, at Pease & Mays.
Club ties, stock ties, bow ties, separate stocks, Tecks, four-in-hand and chiffon ties, and chiffon ruffs just arrived at Pease & Mays.
Yesterday morning when A. Bruner, a sheep herder, was splitting wood, the ax slipped and cut his left foot very severely. Dr. Hollister was called and was compelled to take seven or eight stitches in the wound.
Sam L. Simpson, the Oregon poet, whose "Beautiful Willamette" made him famous, has decided to quit the Webfoot state. He will go to San Francisco and engage in literary work, for which occupation he is by natural endowment well qualified.

F. C. Reed, the new state fish commissioner, will arrive from Portland this evening and remain over tomorrow. His headquarters will be at the Umatilla. Any fishermen who desire licenses should see him tomorrow and procure them.
The Salem bowling team which will play against the club team Saturday night, is composed of Messrs. McGrew, D'Arcy, Hatch, Barker, Griffith and Minto. It is probable The Dalles team will consist of Messrs. Bradshaw, Nolan, Houghton, Baldwin, Schmidt and either DeHoff or Hertz, the latter name being decided by the result of their try-out.
There are to be a number of changes in the location of business firms soon. We understand P. G. Daut, the optician, will remove his store to a portion of the building which is to be occupied by the First National bank, while C. F. Cathcart will occupy his present stand, putting in a cigar store. Other changes are contemplated, but not determined upon.
Last night at the Masonic hall the Royal Arch degree was conferred upon three candidates. The remainder of the evening was very pleasantly spent, at the close of which a banquet was served. A delegation, consisting of E. L. Smith, A. S. Blowers, G. R. Castner, G. E. Williams, W. A. Slingerland and E. E. Savage came up from Hood River and were present at the meeting.
The nurse, Mrs. Ida Crawford, who is in attendance on George McKennon, the man who was badly injured in a runaway Monday evening, informs us that he shows little signs of improvement, being in an unconscious state most of the time. The left side of his head was badly cut and the skull pressing against the brain causes him untold suffering. An operation will be performed tomorrow morning.

"Hello, Enderby," was heard to vibrate over the Oregon Telephone wires yesterday afternoon, the line being connected with that postoffice yesterday. No doubt the people of that section will be delighted to be in direct communication with the outside world. It will be particularly advantageous to them should 'phones be placed at various farms throughout that section.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Biggs returned on last evening's train, after having spent six months visiting relatives in Missouri and California. Their first visit was in Canton, Mo., after which they went to Kansas City for a short trip. They report the winter a hard one. Coming to Southern California they spent some time in Los Angeles and other cities. On their way home they remained in San Francisco about two weeks. Altogether they have had a delightful trip. Mr. Biggs says Los Angeles county is still suffering sadly for want of rain, only about four inches having fallen this season. Much of the fruit crop will be lost. Mr. and Mrs. Biggs will remain here for a short time at least, and we trust will decide to make The Dalles their home.
Citizens no doubt would be much concerned were they aware that a scorpion was killed Monday afternoon on the sidewalk surrounding H. Nielsen's store; and the ladies would take to wearing rainy-day skirts for fear of them stealing a ride on their trains. They are not frequent travelers through the streets of our city, however, and this one proved to be a foreigner, as it jumped from a pack of umbrellas which the umbrella mender laid down on the sidewalk. It is supposed the scorpion crawled into an umbrella while the old fellow was on his way from Hood River here, he having walked from that place. It is a very large one, being about two and a half inches from tip to tip, and is now preserved in alcohol in Mr. Nielsen's store.
Senator McBride has been urging upon the officials in Washington that work be taken up and pushed to secure the right of way for the proposed boat railway at The Dalles. He consulted the chief of engineers as to just what had been done in this direction, and was told that for the right of way and for the terminal facilities of the boat railway, 323.83 acres of land were required. Of this amount, up to June 30 last, title to, or right of way over 188.09 acres had been obtained. In view of this fact, he has urged that the matter be pushed to a speedy conclusion, that the right of way may be completed, and some of the money now on hand be expended in getting the project under way in time to secure a further appropriation from the next congress. Until the right of way is obtained, none of the fund on hand can be expended, and congress will make no further appropriation. The fact that the right of way was not fully obtained prevented any appropriation for this project in the last congress.
Nightwatchman Phirman was this morning about 1 o'clock called upon to straighten out a man (?) whom he should at once throw into the Columbia, and probably would have done so, had not his respect for our grand river caused him to hesitate to so sully its waters. The aforesaid individual lives somewhere in the vicinity of the garrison, and unfortunately has a wife who is now helpless, and four children, who for years have been scarcely able to eke out an existence, and have been wandering from pillar to post, the thing who calls himself their protector spending every cent for that which puts the finishing touches on the job which nature pretty ably accomplished in creating a fool. At 1 o'clock this morning he came home reeling, and kicking open the door gained admission and made things lively for his family for a short time, when Phirman was sent for, and the culprit landed in the city jail. Such brutes should be settled once for all, and the amazing thing is that women have no more stamina than to put up with their brutality.
When Traveling
Whether on pleasure bent or business, take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50 cent bottles by all leading druggists. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.
Pneumonia, la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping-cough readily yield to One Minute Cough Cure. Use this remedy in time and save a doctor's bill—or the undertaker's. Salpes-Kinersly Drug Co.
Handsome plaids and stripes are the newest thing in silks for shirt waists, at Pease & Mays.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

A Deaf Mute Thrown Off the Track, but Not Seriously Injured.
Another instance of the folly of a deaf mute attempting to walk a railroad track was given yesterday afternoon. As No. 4, east-bound passenger, rounded a curve about ten miles below town, the engineer noticed a man on the track, and whistling supposed he would step aside at once. He was astounded, however, to see he made no move, and it was impossible when the discovery was made to stop the train, which was going at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour, and the engine struck the man, throwing him about eight feet up onto a bank.
The train men, supposing of course he was dead, stopped as soon as possible and going back found he did not appear to be badly hurt, but what his injuries really were they could not fully determine as he was unable to hear them or speak to them. They assisted him to the train, and brought him to The Dalles telegraphing ahead for a physician to be at the Umatilla House. Upon reaching that place, he walked out of the car and could not be found when the doctor arrived. Nightwatchman Phirman, however, ran across him shortly after and took him to the city jail, as he seemed to have no friends and no one to look after him.
Dr. Logan was called this morning and found that his ankle was badly sprained and also a torn wound on his left elbow. Further than this he was not injured.
He informed a reporter that his name is Will Gillett, and that he lives at 61, North First street, Portland. He had come up from Portland Monday, to work for a fisherman below the Locks; but not finding him, and being told that he had gone up the river he started in search of him. Had about made up his mind to turn back, when the train overtook him. He says he did not even see the train, and blames no one for the accident but himself. Claims he has a good home and that his people will probably send money for him to return.
The poor fellow may thank his lucky stars he escaped as easily as he did, as it was positively miraculous that he was not instantly killed. It is feared the results may yet be more serious than present appearances would indicate.

THE BOYS TO RETURN.

So Says the Latest Report—Oregon's Fourth of July Celebrations.
A dispatch published in another column to the effect that the soldier boys will return home in June or July, will gladden the hearts of thousands of Oregon people, who, with the assurance that their duty has been well done, now are anxious for their return. Portland is already planning a Fourth of July parade, which would cause enthusiasm that would know no bounds, and fairly cause the snow-capped peaks of Oregon to bellow forth a welcome such as our brave boys justly deserve. What a parade that would be. But would not each city and village who contributed these heroes come in for their share, and demand that their liberty car be filled with these gods of liberty, as they might well be termed?
When the return of the volunteers was first talked of, the government announced that the various regiments would be brought home in the same order in which they went out. This would make the Second Oregon and the First California the first to come. Thirty days is required to make the passage from Manila to San Francisco. If the first transport sails May 5th, therefore, it should arrive early in June. That at least part of the Second Oregon will be on this vessel there is no cause to doubt. The boys will probably be in Portland by June 15th.
Willamette Valley Chautauqua.
This association, the yearly meetings of which our people look forward to, has engaged some stars of great magnitude for the next meeting of the assembly, which will be held at Gladstone Park from July 18th to 29th inclusive. Among them are Sam Jones, J. DeWitt Miller, Frank Beard and Camden Coburn, all platform entertainers of national reputation. This is the strongest array of talent ever engaged for this assembly, and it was only through the combined efforts of the assemblies at Ashland and in California that made it possible to secure these celebrities. Arrangements are perfected to make the coming assembly at Gladstone Park a greater event than any kindred organization in the United States, except the parent Chautauqua in New York.
The management are planning new features for the assembly, and expect a daily attendance of 5,000 people from all parts of the Northwest.
Recreation, art, song, oratory, games, instruction, life and happiness at Gladstone Park for twelve full days. To thoroughly enjoy the assembly one should camp during the whole season. Every season brings an increasing number of campers. Reduced rates will be given on all lines of transportation, and the living expenses are nominal. Season tickets $1.50. Day tickets 25 cents. Children under ten free.

PERSONAL MENTION.
W. S. Neece is in the city from Moro.
C. M. Brown is a Grass Valley visitor in town today.
Joseph Moll and John Allen are in from Ridgeway today.
John Chappelle and James Sarsfield came over from Goldendale yesterday, and spent today in the city.
J. B. Venable and A. R. Mitchell of Rufus, are in the city today, and will leave for home on the evening train.
Dr. Siddall boarded the afternoon train for Portland. When he returns we trust he will remember us all with a good-sized nugget of the Altin gold.
Mrs. Lee Weigel came in from Prineville yesterday and left this morning on the boat to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Wilkins, at Corvallis. Her cousin, Mrs. Woodbury, came up from Portland yesterday and accompanied her down the river.
If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder-blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy your liver is torpid and congested. 1041 Miles in Ten Hours.

With each returning season the Lozier Manufacturing Co. show something new and desirable in Bicycle construction. This season finds them with more good things than ever. One of these good things is the BURWELL BALL and ROLLER BEARING.
Examine the illustration—notice particularly that the little steel roller between the balls transfers the motion without interruption and the balls cannot grind together as in ordinary bearings.
