DUTY OF IDAHO CITIZENS.

An obligation rests upon the people of the state of Idaho to apprehend and bring to punishment the dynamiters and murderers of the Coeur d'Alene who committed the outrage at Wardner Saturday, the Spokesman-Review says. Every merchant who wants to continue in business in the northern part of the state, every prospector who has a claim he wants to sell, every mechanic who desires to work in peace, every man who has a family to rear, owes it to himself, to his state and to future generations to assist in punishing the offenders.

If the law abiding people simply do their duty there should be no difficulty in convicting the chief offenders. The acts were committed openly, brazenly. Some of the men made a pretense of disguising themselves, but many of them must have been recognized.

All who took part in the riot are guilty, in the first place, of interfering with the United States mails in capturing and robbing a mail train. Again, they are in contempt of the United States court in violating the Beatty injunction. These matters are to be dealt with by the federal authorities and should be pressed with no gentle hand.

But the state laws are the ones that have been most ruthlessly set at naught. Murder, rioting and arson are the chief indictments to be brought against the men and each member of that mob is equally guilty with the other.

It is time an example was being made of the desperate characters who are attempting, with apparently great success, to "run" things in the Coeur d'Alene. If those men are permitted to go unpunished any mine owner who may cross the miners in any way may expect to have his property destroyed. Emboldened by one success, the vicious element will go to greater extremes in the future than they have heretofore dared.

What hope is there for a land where it is known there is no law save the will of the vicious and criminal? What reason is there that the people of the United States should not point to the Coeur d'Alene today as the most lawless and dangerous spot on the continent? What defense can be made of a class of workmen who argue their alleged wrongs with Winchester and dynamite?

A stain, dark and lasting, has come upon the state of Idaho and it is for her citizens, so far as lies in their power, to wipe it out and to prove to the world that the lawless characters of the Coeur d'Alene are not representative of the commonwealth.

A 2-weeks-old baby, beating about from house to house and finally landed in the jail for lack of more childly shelter, represents in the most flagrant sense the crime of parental neglect and irresponsibility. Misfortune and innocence combine in such a case to enlist at once the pity and the execration of humanity. The difference between maternity and motherhood is strongly marked in a woman who can so far forget nature as to abandon her helpless offspring to the chance offices of charity, while of the father it can only be said that he is a monster of selfishness against whom it were well if the only measure that could insure the community against a repetition of his offense could be enforced.—Oregonian.

The Best in the World.
We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.
Digests what you eat.

It artificially digests the food and aids nature in strengthening and reconstructing the exhausted digestive organs. It is the latest discovered digestant and tonic. No other preparation can approach it in efficiency. It instantly relieves and permanently cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heartburn, Flatulence, Sour Stomach, Nausea, Sick Headache, Gastralgia, Cramps, and all other results of imperfect digestion. Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.
