

SHERIFF YOUNG IS ARRESTED

Charged With Bribing and Abetting the Wardner Rioters.

WILL OUST HIM FROM OFFICE

Coeur d'Alene People Want a Military Post but General Merriam Opposes the Plan.

WARDNER, Idaho, May 6.—The first steps toward removing the county officials of Shoshone county who are accused of being in sympathy with the rioters was taken today by the state, assisted by United States troops, when Sheriff James D. Young, and County Commissioner William Boyle were arrested by order of State Auditor Sinclair, who represents Governor Steunenberg in Shoshone county. Sheriff Young and Commissioner Boyle were placed in the stockade with 300 other prisoners. Proceedings for the removal of these officials from office will be begun on the ground that they aided and abetted the riot last Saturday. Coroner France by statutory regulation, becomes acting sheriff.

The trial of those accused of murder and riot will in all probability be held at Wallace, the county seat of Shoshone county. United States troops have taken charge of the office and safe of the Burke miners' union. When the safe is opened, the federal officials expect to find incriminating evidence against some of the leaders who are absent from the state.

Citizens and business men here are almost unanimous in favor of the establishment of a military post in the Coeur d'Alene district, as a means of protection against the riotous element, but General Merriam believes that the state authorities should provide protection for the mine owners.

BOLD ROBBERY AT PENDLETON

Jewelry Store Looted—Watches, Rings and Other Property Valued at $2500 Stolen—No Clew.

PENDLETON, May 6.—The jewelry store of Lewis Burger, doing business under the name of the Pacific Coast Jewelry Company, at 207 Court street was robbed last night of goods of the value of $2500. The thieves took seventy-six watches, one hundred diamond rings and other gold rings. Mr. Burger has offered a reward of $250 for the capture of the robbers. The Portland police have been notified.

Sheriff Blakeley has offered a reward of $250 for the apprehension and conviction of the burglars. There are no clews.

Killed in a Runaway.

DALLAS, Or., May 5.—Mrs. Mary Staats, wife of H. E. Staats, of Lewisville, Polk county, was killed at 3 o'clock this afternoon, while riding in a cart alone on the road. It is supposed that the horse ran away and collided with a fence. Mrs. Staats' ear was cut off and the scalp badly torn.

After the collision with the fence, the horse continued to run. Mrs. Staats' head falling over the end of the seat, the hair became entangled in the wheel and the scalp was torn from the head. The horse was stopped after running a short distance, and Mrs. Staats was taken from the cart. She died in a few minutes. No person saw her strike the fence, but these are the conclusions of the first that arrived at the scene of the accident.

CATTLE SALES ARE SLOW

Buyers Not Getting as Many Cattle as Last Year.

LONG CREEK, May 6.—Messrs. Robert Gilmore, W. M. Butler and William Moore, cattle-buyers, who have spent the last month purchasing in Grant and Crook counties, are in this valley looking for more cattle. Mr. Brown, who comes from Gilliam county, has so far secured about 2000 head in Grant counties, while Mr. Butler has bought about 1200 to 1400 head. Since his arrival in this county, Mr. Gilmore has secured 1500 head, buying them all in the vicinity of Prairie City. Mr. Gilmore says he has purchased in Eastern Oregon close to 7000 head.

Speaking of the cattle sales this year, Mr. Butler says the sales will not come up to those of last year by a good many thousand head. In Crook and Grant last year over 20,000 head were driven and shipped out while this season he roughly estimates the number from 12,000 to 15,000 head. In Grant county alone, he says, not over 3500 head have so far been purchased, or about half of the entire number to be contracted for, and in Crook county about the same number have been engaged.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. Cyrus Dolph Recommended.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Cyrus Dolph, of Portland Or., son of the late United States Senator Dolph, of Oregon, has been recommended by the examining board at the Presidio for a second lieutenantcy in the regular army.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. LYNCH, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by Blakeley & Houghton, never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many time site cost. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

FILIPINOS IN THE DYING THROES

President Believes Philippine War May End in Two Days.

REBEL ARMY LOST HEART

Aguinaldo's Envoys in Manila are Working for Peace—They Only Want Assurances—In the Meantime General Otis Will Not Abate His Aggressive Campaign.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—President McKinley believes the war in the Philippines will be at an end within forty-eight hours.

This conclusion is based upon highly gratifying cablegrams received from Mr. Schurman, president of the peace commission. The result of the next conference between the peace commission and Aguinaldo's representatives, the president believes, will be a decision by the Filipinos to lay down their arms as a preliminary to the inauguration of the form of government which the peace commission recommended and which the president has approved.

A high official on the administration said tonight:

"Our information justifies the belief that there will be a cessation of hostilities within less than forty-eight hours. Meantime, it is absolutely necessary to keep up the fighting on the part of the Americans in order to make the rebels realize the utter uselessness of their resistance."

Admit They are Whipped.

MANILA, May 6.—Colonel Arguelles and the other peace envoys of the rebels are here working and begging for peace. They admit they are whipped. The troops are not to be shaken in their resolve to surrender, and they will not fight. Arguelles says the rebel soldiers are throwing away their weapons, and have lost all heart in the fighting, since nothing seems to stand in the way of the American soldiers—rivers, intrenchments, jungle and rebel sharpshooters being all alike to them.

Arguelles has thrown aside all reserve, and declares with an injured air that there should be no suspicion of bad faith in the rebels' proposal for peace. He declares all are willing to surrender as soon as assurances are made that the Filipinos will have some representation in the local government that is to be substituted for the Spanish government in the archipelago.

While negotiations for peace continue, General Otis is rushing the campaign ahead, and will keep up the fighting until Aguinaldo and his men lay down their arms.

An Epidemic of Whooping Cough.

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for cough and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—JOHN E. CLIFFORD, Proprietor Norwood House, Norwood, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

The Best in the World.

We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

HIRAM'S HALF DOLLAR.

He Dropped It in the Hat at Zeke's Silver Wedding and Wanted It Back.

Last spring Zeke Murch and his wife celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Zeke lives on a side hill farm in one of the outlying districts in a Maine town. He and his wife have always worked hard and been "saving" as folks have to be who make a dollar out of a farm in this particular part of the Pine Tree state.

Among their visitors that night were Hiram and Mirandy Treat. Now the Treats were even more saving than the Murches, and the latter were said to be snugger than the bark of a yellow birch.

But they felt in duty bound to give something. Not having bought any plate, they could not add to the collection of pickle jars and casters which adorned the sitting-room table, so they waited till the hat was passed.

Passing the hat may strike some readers as a novel feature to introduce at a wedding anniversary, but Ezekiel didn't propose to let anyone go away without a gentle hint that those who accept invitations to a silver wedding must settle in the white metal.

"For the benefit of those as didn't have a chance to get a present, we will now pass round the hat and those as feel moved so to do can add their piece of silver," explained the host.

When the hat reached Hiram he pulled out his wallet, carefully abstracted a half dollar, looked at it lovingly and then dropped it into the chapeau. That night, after they got home, Hiram and Mirandy were talking it over, speculating on the probable value of those two pickle jars and trying to settle in their minds how much was put into the general collection.

"There was 50 cents that I give 'em," said Mirandy.

"What!" cried Hiram, "you give 50 cents?"

"Why, yes, Hiram, we calculated to give 'em that much, you know. We talked it over beforehand, and agreed that we could spare it."

"But Lord bless ye, wife," said the husband, quivering with excitement, "don't ye, can't ye, understand I dropped a half dollar in the hat myself?"

It was a late hour before the two ceased talking about that lost coin, and the next morning Hiram was no more reconciled to the accidental generosity than the night before.

All summer long it worried him, and he couldn't keep from thinking how far that half dollar would have gone in trade.

Lately Hiram and Zeke had a settling up of some old accounts for wood and labor. Their figures tallied, and after the money had shifted hands Hiram's thoughts reverted to that unintended gift.

"Zeke!" he began, softly.

"Yes, Hiram."

"You remember that silver wedding of yours last spring?" He was beginning with diplomatic evasion of the real point at issue.

"O, yes," Zeke remembered all about that.

"Wa'al, when the hat was passed round, ye remember I put in 50 cents?"

"Yes, Hiram, I remember."

"Wa'al, unbeknown to me, my wife, Mirandy, she put in 50 cents."

"Ya'as," said Ezekiel, slowly, but very carefully avoiding any show of understanding.

"Wa'al, we didn't intend to give but one of 'em, and I want you to give me back the half dollar that Mirandy give ye."

Ezekiel said nothing.

"It's no more'n right ye should," pleaded Hiram. "We didn't intend to gin ye but half a dollar. We can't spare that other 50 cents nohow. I've worried about it all summer long an' I made up my mind to speak out to ye about it. I've thought it all over an' Mirandy, she's thought it all over an' we sartainly can't spare the 50 cents."

Ezekiel had been gathering himself for a burst of scorn.

"Wa'al, of all the dog-gonedest mean critters I ever sot my eyes on ye're a leetle the wust! No, I won't give ye back your half a dollar!"

But Hiram wasn't going to be touched by scorn. The justice of his cause led him to make one last appeal.

"No, I ain't mean, Zeke, for here I've waited till now without sayin' a word. Just think on it, Zeke, you've had the interest on that half a dollar for over six months an' you oughter be all fair an' willin' to give it back to me. Won't ye, Zeke?"

But Zeke's ear was deaf to pleading and he still retains the half dollar.—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.
