SOVEREIGN'S PROPOSITION.

The Idaho Tribune, official paper of the Western Federation of Miners, issued under the auspices of Cœur d'Alene Miners' Unions, and edited by James R. Sovereign, admits that the Wardner outrages were perpetrated by union miners from Canyon Creek and Mullan, boasts of their deeds, contends that they were justified, lays the responsibility for the rioting on the Bunker Hill and Sullivan company, and asserts that there will be warfare in the Cœur d'Alene so long as any mine employer refuses to recognize the union. It says:

"Let Mr. Bradley and Mr. Burdige meet the miners' unions and contract to give the miners the same recognition and the same rate of wages given by the other operators in this district, and they can build a thousand mills at Wardner if they wish to and no protection will be needed. * * * It is protection in their determination to reduce the wages of miners below the standard rate that they clamor for, and judging from Saturday's demonstration, if that is their purpose, they will need military protection continuously for forty years after their new mill is completed."

In other words, Mine Owner A and Miner B at Wardner will not be allowed to agree between themselves on the terms under which the mine shall be operated; and if they do agree and attempt to carry on a great industry there, Miner C, who is working in other camps, twenty miles away, will arm himself with a rifle, put on a mask, steal a ton or two of giant powder, seize a railway train carrying United States mails, and go down to Wardner and blow up the property of Mine-Owner A.

The proposition is rank anarchy. One may search in vain through all the annals of history for a government based on such violent principles. From the days when the Mosaic laws were fulminated, down to the time of the code Napoleonic, civilization has never accepted such principles of law, and it never will. The thing is hateful, and has nothing in common with the principles of American government. If men in large numbers throughout the United States should adopt such vicious principles, and endeavor to enforce them by the methods employed by the Canyon Creek and Mullan anarchists, civil law would have to be suspended, martial rule would take its place, and until the hateful uprising were stamped out, the country would have to endure the evil of a military dictatorship. The members of the Cœur d'Alene mob, and all who have incited them to deeds of murder and violence, are enemies of the republic.—Spokesman-Review.

A Hungarian violinist in Pennsylvania confesses that he has been married twenty times. This is the kind of Hungarian rhapsody that ought to be suppressed.

Col. Bryan's idea that "an idea once turned loose in the world can never again be chained" is quite an idea.

The Best in the World.
We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Drugists.

If you have piles, cure them. No use undergoing horrible operations that simply remove the results of the disease without disturbing the disease itself. Place your confidence in DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It has never failed to cure others; it will not fail to cure you. Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.
