

A Treatise on Dress Goods.

For Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday we will give you a few lines of late pretty things that will do you a world of good. They will consist of plaids, stripes, checks and figured novelties and range in price from 9c to 75c per yd.

Those of you who need a separate skirt, a complete dress, or only a waist, you will find these goods just right and the prices cut in two. Our East window sold many dress patterns for us on Saturday in Wash Goods, and if you will gaze upon it during these three days above mentioned, we will be able to repeat our assertion that the window sells the goods.

ments were served, and Mrs. C. F. Stephens on behalf of the circle, presented Mrs. Filoon with a silver napkin ring engraved. The evening was happily spent, and successfully arranged as a surprise.

A deal has been consummated whereby the livery stable of Murchie Bros. on Second and Laughlin streets, passes into the ownership of Messrs. L. A. Porter and W. H. Hobson. While they have virtually taken possession today, Mr. Murchie will remain for a short time, and on June 1st Lewis Porter will take charge of the business. It is the intention of the new firm to make many improvements and carry on a livery business which will meet the requirements of everyone who may patronize them. Having lived in The Dalles so many years and being gentlemen people enjoy dealing with, no doubt they will command a large patronage, and make this already popular place, the more popular for the attention given it. Mr. Murchie will remain in The Dalles for the present.

Mrs. Rebekah Vance, who is a sister of W. E. Sylvester, and who for years made her home in The Dalles, but is now a resident of Portland, received word Saturday that her husband, who left Portland February 3, died April 25 at Atlin. He had been there just a month, and in the last letter he wrote to his wife said his health and prospects were good. Mr. Vance was a native of Ohio and came to Oregon in the early '50s. The cause of his death was not stated, but it is presumed to have been too much exposure, for the letter bringing news of the death, which was from O. West, of the Bank of British Columbia, said old men make a mistake in going to Alaska, for the hardships are too great for any but the young and vigorous to endure. Mr. Vance was 62 years old.

As a result of the teachers' examination which took place last week, first grade certificates were issued to Minnie Elton and A. May Sechler, of The Dalles. Second grade to Nettie Kemp, of Hood River, and A. W. McClure, of Boyd. Third grade to Gertrude Badger, of Kingsley; Emma Brainard, of Goldendale; Ruth Sturgiss, Mosier; Samuel Foss, Earl Curtis, Bertha Williams, Lizzie Sherran and Abbie Taylor, The Dalles. Under the ruling that a teacher having taught twenty-two and one-half months in the schools of the state is entitled to a state certificate, Mrs. Ellen D. Baldwin and Miss Emma Roberts, of The Dalles, and Eliza Stevens, of Hood River, were recommended by the board for state certificates.

SEE GRIFFITH TONIGHT.

The Celebrated Actor Will Play "The Avenger" at the Opera House.

Mr. John Griffith and his company arrived in the city last night having made the jump from Seattle yesterday. With the company is a sixty foot car load of scenery which will be used at the opera house tonight in the production of "The Avenger." This is Mr. Griffith's first appearance here and the local management is gratified at being able to secure a date from him. As an actor in his line Mr. Griffith has few if any equals. He first became known to fame by his masterly rendition of Mephisto in Faust. The play which he presents tonight is a stirring romantic drama of the French school. It abounds with startling situations and there is not a dull moment in it. From a scenic point of view the play is remarkable. Magnificent scenery is carried and the piece will be mounted in exactly the same sumptuous manner that it was last week at the Marquam. It is not often that a performance of such proportions is given here and the management should be encouraged by a greeting to Mr. Griffith from a crowded house. The supporting company is very strong being headed by Miss Kathryn Parnell, an actor of celebrated ability and beauty.

Brazil Savage Dead.

Last Friday night at 10 o'clock Brazil Savage died at his home in the Wamic settlement, after a two-months sickness of an ailment which has baffled the physician's skill and which they have failed to name.

Mr. Savage, who was 73 years of age, is very well known in the county, and state as well, having crossed the plains in '49. When his party of six reached Sult Lake City they lost their bearings and came through the mountains. One by one the members of the party dropped by the way, until but two reached this coast. Later Mr. Savage returned to his eastern home and again in '53 crossed the plains, in company with S. M. Driver, father of T. J. Driver, settling near Oregon City. Some years after he came to Eastern Oregon, choosing Wamic as his home.

He leaves a wife, a son, who also lives at Wamic, and three daughters, one of the latter being married and living at Sweet Home, Linn county. They were all at his bedside when he passed away. The funeral took place yesterday at Wamic.

WE ARE AWAKENING.

A Well Attended Meeting Held Saturday Night Addressed by G. J. Farley.

There must have been fully 100 members of the club and citizens present at the club room Saturday evening, drawn there by a determination to unite in an effort to devise means for building up our city and working for its best interests.

Judge Blakeley presided over the meeting and stated that its object was to in some way raise a bonus to be used in inducing manufacturers to start here and consider the best means to be employed. He then called upon G. J. Farley, who has given the subject careful study of late, and had in mind several plans, one of which THE CHRONICLE referred to last week. It was the idea of asking each property owner on Second street to give $1 for each front foot of reality upon said street. The business houses from $10 to $100 each. Professional men, including lawyers, doctors, dentists, insurance and real estate agents, resident county officers and contractors, each $10. Householders in the city from $1 to $2. Clerks and employees, $1. Other resources, $1500. All together a grand total of $15,000 could thus be raised. In speaking of this proposition Mr. Farley said:

"First, we ask the property holders on Second street to put up $5,000. For why? Because it represents the heaviest and most valuable interests in our city. Second, we ask the merchants to give $5,000, because, on this proposition, they, together with the holders of real estate, on Second street, represent the next largest value to be benefited by this move.

"A rough estimate of invested capital on Second street in merchandise is not quite $700,000.

"The value of reality and improvements on Second street is considerably over $800,000.

"Now if the merchants are willing to pay $5,000, the realty not for a minute should refuse to co-operate. Neither do I think they will, and I have carefully canvassed among the business men and they will contribute their share.

"Let us look a little further upon this proposition. If the town goes back, who are the losers? The business men, nine out of ten, could pack their stores and move out with but a small loss. The realty and improvements are a fixed proposition, and cannot be transferred."

He then called attention to such places as Dallas, of about 3,000 inhabitants, which has six manufacturing enterprises, each of them secured by "rustling" and raising and giving bonuses. Baker City, La Grande and Pendleton have secured their industries in about the same manner. Now, what will The Dalles do? Will it profit by the successful experiences of its neighbors?

Mr. Farley seems to favor a furniture factory as one of the best enterprises which could be fostered here, and says:

"Just the other day Portland added a new industry to their city, a furniture factory, which when completed will employ four hundred hands. How did they get it? They agreed to give a bonus of $25,000. They went to work, but were unable to raise but a little over $17,000. They got the factory, even with that amount. The Dalles is by far better located for this kind of enterprise than any other part of the state of Oregon, because the material can be seasoned here acclimatically, and because we have, right in our own county, for this purpose the best lumber in the state. I have learned lately through another, that The Dalles could have had this same enterprise here, on account of its situation, at a much less sum than was contributed in the city of Portland. And gentlemen, if I had my say as to one specific purpose, if we should raise this money, I would by far prefer a furniture factory because it employs a great deal of labor and is generally operated the year round."

The question as to the best means of obtaining power was also discussed in his paper; but it was thought advisable to first obtain the bonus, and decide these questions afterward.

Everyone listened intently to Mr. Farley, and at the close of his speech, Messrs. Crowe, Nolan, McCoy, Goulay, Douthit, Dr. Sanders and others expressed their opinions, some thoroughly coinciding with the speaker; others advanced their theories; but all stating emphatically that they see the importance of something being done at once.

A committee, consisting of G. J. Farley, E. Schanno, L. E. Crowe, E. C. Pease and A. Bettingen, was appointed to canvas the matter thoroughly and meet with the principal property owners to devise the best means to be used to the desired end.

We hope the matter will be pushed with vigor and not be dropped, as have others previously. With a chairman so alive to the question, and other members of the committee consisting of energetic business men, surely the interests of the city are in good hands; but they must receive the co-operation of every citizen. Will they receive it?

The river now stands at 21 9. Yesterday morning it stood at 22. Pague reports that it will fall until Wednesday. News from the upper rivers reports them falling.

You must not miss hearing "Wally", (Will Crossen) sing "I'll Shake up This Mean Old Town," introducing a cake walk in which Mercy joins him, at the play Wednesday evening.

The great Pullman, king of ventriloquists, and professor of hypnotism and science, will appear at the Baldwin opera house on Thursday, May 18th. General admission 25 cents; children 15 cents.

F. L. Houghton has received word from Mr. Wise that the Astoria bowlers will visit The Dalles on Friday, the 26th. We may expect a lively contest as the bowlers from that city are said to be up-to-snuff. However, if our team play as lively as they did when the Salem team was here, the Astorian will have to move at double quick pace.

In the fourth act of "A Summer's Fancy" Myrtle Michell, as "Edith Henderson," will sing "Sweetheart, Sigh No More", and Will Frank, as "Professor Potts" will also give one of his splendid bass solos.

A sheriff sale, which arose out of the case of William Watson vs. George Christensen, took place today, when a tract of land on Des Chutes grade, near the free bridge road, was sold and bought in by the plaintiff for $700.

The last of the pleasant soirees which have been given by Smith Bros. during the winter, took place Saturday evening. A large crowd was present, many being attracted by the dancing contest. Many couples took part in the waltz, and the judges were Harry Liebe, Mrs. Gunning and Mrs. Chas. Tibbets. When their decision was announced it was found that Miss Lena Jackson and Charles Frank had been selected as the best waltzers, while others on the floor received very favorable comment.

The Epworth League held a very interesting meeting last evening, it being the tenth anniversary of the League. Rev. J. H. Wood, assisted by First Vice-President Miss Nettie Fredden, presided, while papers were read by Misses Vesta Dellinger and Constance Wheelodon, and recitations were given by Clyde Riddell and Ena Uren. Miss Hilda Beck also sang a solo, and led by the choir, the congregation joined in various hymns that were sung. The church had been beautifully decorated, and altogether the jubilee service was a good one.

Friday evening Cedar Circle, W. of W., gave a pleasant surprise in honor of Mrs. Inez Filoon, who will soon leave for Moro where she will reside. After the regular business session of the Lodge, an interesting program consisting of music, recitations and charades was rendered, after which dainty refresh-
