

To the Boys who wear the Clothes

We quote from our Ad. of Friday, May 18th.

"Keep your eye on this space for the coming week, as we propose to give you something novel for the boys in the way of Suits for their summer outing."

Our promises are not like pie crust—easily broken. We have a novel scheme, and to the average boy it reads like a fairy tale, for the thought of owning a real Friends have just received a letter from Elder and Mrs. W. V. Boltz, who are now in a meeting at Looking Glass, Or. They report having held meetings in five different places since leaving The Dalles, Dec. 30, 1898, and have had 109 accessions to the churches in that time. Since April 6th F. O. McCauley, who is well known in Eastern Oregon and Washington, has been with Elder Boltz taking charge of the song service. White in Roseburg Mr. and Mrs. Boltz were guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Norman. Since that time the latter have moved to a station about sixty miles from Roseburg, where they are keeping a half-way house for travelers on their way to Myrtle Point.

YESTERDAY'S EXCURSION.

The Sons of Herman Visit Our City and Find Splendid Weather.

The Dalles did herself proud yesterday, and after six weeks of almost unremittant wind storms, she put on her best behavior and showed our visitors just what nice weather we can have, and the same was duly appreciated by them, for while we have had wind, Portland people have had a ducking and if the sun had shone out for a moment there the surprise would have caused widespread disaster.

At about 12:45 the excursion train pulled in at the Umatilla House, with at least 800 excursionists, who were greeted with music by the band. The committee of reception took the visitors in charge and most of them made their headquarters at the Baldwin, while others sensibly chose the cool recesses of Academy Park as a fitting place to enjoy the hours. Indeed it seems strange that people who are out for an outing would not much more prefer some such retreat to a close room or to wandering up and down the principal streets. To obtain a good idea of The Dalles and the scenery about it one must seek a higher level than Second street.

After the experience of last year when an excursion visited our city, many rather feared there might be a repetition of the same proceedings; but instead the excursion seemed to be composed of quiet, respectable citizens of Portland, who came for a little respite from duty and to meet friends here, and nothing objectionable was noticed in their demeanor. We are sorry to be compelled to acknowledge that the only disturbance came from the hoodlum element of our own city, and not from our visitors.

Realizing that more than half of our people are opposed to Sunday excursions and believe in spending the day in a different manner, these people did not seem inclined to disturb that quiet by hilariousness or drunkenness and the train pulled out at 6 o'clock with little shouting or unnecessary noise.

While THE CHRONICLE ventures the hope that Sunday excursions to our city will not be of frequent occurrence, at the same time if they are to be, it is to be hoped they will all at least behave as orderly as did the Sons of Herman.

CIRCUIT COURT.

May Term Opened This Morning—A Portion of the Docket.

The May term of circuit court convened this morning at the court house, and the court room is not an uninviting place on a day like this, but seems cool and comfortable to one who has nothing at stake and no reason for avoiding the presence of the judge and jury. It is not thought the term will be a long one, although there are several criminal cases to try.

The following were chosen as grand jurors: Polk Butler, foreman; J. C. Egbert, Wm. Endersby, E. J. Middle-swart, W. H. Fowler, G. W. Cervert and Lemuel Burgess. J. Dougherty is grand jury bailiff, and James Harper and J. H. Jackson general bailiffs.

The following cases were brought up this morning and action taken thereon:

C. M. Grimes will ship a large carload of cattle to Troutdale tonight.

A school boy's outfit, complete from head to foot, at the special price of $5, this week at A. M. Williams & Co.'s.

Tell everyone who wants to know that A. M. Williams & Co.'s is the place to buy boys clothes. You'll make friends by it.

The attention of teachers is called to Supt. Ackerman's letter in another column, where full information is given regarding the National Educational Association.

Next Sunday evening at the Episcopal church, Rev. De Forest will preach a memorial sermon, while on the evening of decoration day in the Methodist church Rev. Poling will deliver the memorial address.

L. P. W. Quimby, game and forestry warden of the state of Oregon, has appointed R. J. Gorman, of this city, game and forestry warden for the county of Wasco, and he will assume his duties at once.

The Eagle has met many sheepmen of Northern Grant and all express a very satisfactory lamb crop, though on account of the hard winter just passed the per cent does not equal that of former years.—Eagle.

Miss Ann Mann, a member of last year's High school graduating class, and who has since held a position as reporter on the West Side Independent, has secured a place in the Salem hospital. She will become a professional nurse.

A few days like yesterday and today will surely tell on the old Columbia, which has stood at 19.8 since yesterday morning. No report has been received from the upper river.

The base ball boys are now planning to give an excursion to Hood River next Sunday and play a game with the nine at that place. Accommodations for about ninety persons will be secured on the fast freight leaving here in the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sternweles, of Dufur, are registered at the Umatilla. Their little son was thrown from a horse the latter part of last week and injured one of his legs very severely, and his parents brought him to this city to receive medical assistance.

Saturday night about 11 o'clock Anna Martin, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Martin, died at their home on Pleasant Ridge, of what was supposed to be catarrh of the stomach. She was 11 years old, and a very bright attractive girl. Mr. and Mrs. Levi Chrisman left yesterday for Pleasant Ridge and attended the funeral there this morning.

Antelope is to be well represented in The Dalles during this term of court, about twenty witnesses being subpoenaed from that section. Among those we have already noticed from there are W. Bolton, F. W. Silvertooth, F. J. Reese, J. D. Tamey, E. T. Glisan, A. T. Esping, E. C. Disbrow, W. E. Kemp, Dr. Pilkington, James Hamilton and Miss Ethel Hamilton.

The body of Hollister D. McGuire, who was drowned in the Umpqua river, April 8th, was found Saturday morning about 400 yards below where the North Umpqua empties into the main stream, and less than a mile from the terrible rapids where Mr. McGuire was drowned. The body of C. W. Reed, who was drowned at the same time, has not yet been found. Mr. McGuire's watch was stopped at 2:10. The body was shipped to Portland in a metallic casket and the funeral held there this afternoon.

Geo. Thompson was very unfortunate Saturday evening and met with an accident which will probably lay him up for a few weeks at least. While standing on a ladder putting some iron beams in the Wasco warehouse, the ladder broke and he fell, spraining his ankle severely. He was taken to his home in an express wagon and the men had to carry him into the house. Mr. Thompson has had more than his share of accidents and sickness of late, and has been confined to the house most of the time.

Some time ago a visitor to our city had the temerity to criticize the appearance of our postoffice building, and suggested that we clean it up a little. The cap fit and we put it on and the cobwebs were swept from its eaves and it was otherwise improved in appearance. It is now time for another visitor to appear and suggest that the "show" windows of which it might be said "dust thou art," be relieved of their decorations by a shower bath, which would make the office appear somewhat more attractive to not only the visitors within its walls, but our home people, who are compelled to gaze on them daily.

This week is the last of another public school year, and on Friday night at the Vogt exercises will be given by the various grades of the school, the High school excepted. An admission of 15 cents will be charged, and, judging from the appreciation shown in other years, the hall will no doubt be crowded. Saturday night the graduating exercises will occur at the same place, with an admission of 10 cents at the door. The following will be graduated: Martha Baldwin, Harriet Cram, Harry Curtis, Nettie Fredden, Grace Hobson, Hester Kent, Lena Liebe, Ivan Oakes, Clyde Riddell, George Ruch, Martha School-
