ORGANIZED CRIME.

On the 11th day of July, 1892, the organized miners of Canyon Creek blew up the Frisco mill and engaged in a pitched battle in which several men were killed. These wholesale crimes were accompanied by innumerable individual crimes against life, property, conscience, and the constitutional rights of American citizens.

The Spokesman-Review says the criminal character of the miners' unions of the Cœur d'Alenes has been demonstrated by their regular "celebration" of the anniversary of that terrible day of anarchy. As organizations they have annually gloried in the wild deeds of their members. They have set the 11th of July against the 4th of July. They have boycotted the glorious anniversary of American independence.

A letter written by Michael J. Dowd, a member of the union, and present assessor of Shoshone county, which has been preserved among the records of the Burke union, reflects the spirit which for years has animated these criminal organizations.

"Fourth of July was a very tame affair here," wrote "Brother" Dowd. "None of our people took any part in the celebration. All the women are waiting for the 11th. Even the little children are looking forward to that day, and I might add that our enemies expect that we are only waiting for that day to come here and blow things up. * * * I remain, yours to win at any cost."

These so-called labor organizations of the Cœur d'Alenes were criminal in 1892, and have been criminal ever since. Their members have gathered in the union halls to "celebrate" past acts of violence, and to plot and countenance further rioting. On the morning of the recent riots at Wariner, the union hall was used as a rendezvous for the rioters. There the final instructions were given. There the arms were distributed, and the masks put on.

These murderous organizations are no more fit to claim brotherhood with law-abiding labor unions than are the Italian Mafia of New Orleans and the Chinese highbinders of San Francisco to claim fraternity with the Masons, the Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias and other worthy fraternal orders. They are lawless and unpatriotic, and Gov. Steunenberg's avowed purpose to stamp them out and restore law and order in the Cœur d'Alenes is approved and applauded from one end of this country to the other.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undetermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hannick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.
