

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. Jacroux, of Goldendale, is a visitor in the city.
Miss Addie Jackson was a passenger on the boat this morning bound for Portland.
Miss Maie Enright came down from Moro yesterday and spent today with friends here.
Chas. Hilton is in the city today on his way from his ranch near Fossil to his home in Portland.
Mrs. Raley, who has been the guest of Miss Laura Thompson, will return to Portland this afternoon.
Mrs. Balfie Johnson came up from Astoria Monday, and will visit her sister, Miss Nell Mitchell, for a few weeks.
Mrs. C. N. Thornburn will leave on this afternoon's train for Portland, where she expects to make her home for some time at least.
Miss Annette Michell will leave this afternoon for Portland, where she expects to take a course in the study of stenography.
Eriz Gottfried, a brother of Carl, and who was formerly a resident of this city, arrived in the city yesterday, and is visiting relatives here.
Miss Baum Mann, who has been teaching in the school at Pendleton, spent yesterday in the city, and will leave on the afternoon train for her home in Independence.

Mrs. W. O. Hadley went to Hood River today to spend some time with her mother Mrs. L. Clarke. She was accompanied by Mrs. F. J. Clarke, who will return this evening.
E. C. Pentland, of the West Side, published at Independence, spent yesterday in the city with his sister, Mrs. S. L. Brooks, on his way to Baker City. He is still loyal to his old home, and was loud in his praises of the improvement in The Dalles. He also greatly enjoyed meeting his old friends here.

Don't think you can cure that slight attack of Dyspepsia by dieting, or that it will cure itself. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure it; it "digests what you eat" and restores the digestive organs to health. Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

Steam Saw Notice.

On account of the dull season now being at hand in the wood sawing line, Wm. Cates has decided to run the steam saw but two days in the week, Tuesdays and Fridays. Patrons will, therefore, govern themselves accordingly and prevent friction in the matter. Call up Phone 201.

ried and didn't care about making a catch; the short stop thought he was trying on shoes instead of stopping a ball, and so played accordingly; the third baseman let the tall Weigel from his grasp; the shoemaker in the right field let them awl pass, and the center fielder although Cram full of enthusiasm, made his measurement wrong and missed 'em every time. And so, speaking in German, the teams came out even on the sixth,—nine to nothing. In the first half of the seventh the Williams team scored two, and on account of the lateness of the hour Mays & Crowe did not play the inning. At the bat the Williams crowd made their hit, striking some dandies; while in the field the Hardware shone, catching most of their thrashers. As to handsomeness of appearance it was a stand-off, except that one was perhaps a little dirtier than the rest.

When it was discovered the score stood 24 to 12 in favor of the Mays & Crowe push, a ringing shout went up from the crowd, while the two teams magnanimously joined in a hand shake. While congratulating the winners, many were heard to remark that they had hoped the scores would have been more nearly even; but it was a game simply for the fun to be got out of it, and A. M. Williams & Co.'s nine got just as much fun out of it as anybody, and are in good spirits in spite of the defeat.

The spectators are indebted to the two firms for a pleasant afternoon, and express the wish that Dry Goods will soon challenge Hardware to another game.

After the game.
