WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Fresh cream for strawberries at Dawson's. River reading—Columbia, 28.8; rise of .2. Rivers rising above. The Commercial Club band will have a rehearsal tonight at 8:30 at the band room. Every member is expected to be present. We understand that Oregon's governor, T. T. Geer, will arrive in the city tonight on the Dalles City. The import of his visit we have not yet learned. There will be a regular meeting of Court The Dalles No. 12, F. of A., at the K. of P. hall this evening at 7:30 sharp. All members are requested to be present. The closing exercises of St. Mary's Academy and St. Joseph's school will take place on Friday evening, June 10th, when a splendid entertainment will be given by the pupils of these schools. The board of fire delegates are getting in their work and have called another meeting for Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

This board is not asleep and we may expect to hear something interesting from them soon.

Miss Cain and Miss Clara Grimes arrived on the late train last night from Portland, and will remain until tomorrow evening, and perhaps until Saturday. Those who desire to have dressmaking done can find them at room No. 4, in the Chapman block.

Bernie Sellick is in today from the Boyd district, and is very enthusiastic in regard to the outlook for crops. He says they have had splendid rains in that section, Wednesday night furnishing a water spout near there, which made the streams running near experience a raise.

All of twenty-three cows examined in Chicago recently were found to be suffering with tuberculosis. There were no outward signs of disease, yet as much as one pint of germs was taken from the lungs of one. Milk from all of these cows is said to have been sold in Chicago last week.

The best curfew ordinance, says a respectable head of a full grown family, is the one that is adopted at each fireside where the old man acts as mayor and council, marshal and calaboose keeper, and where fine and punishment go together, and where a good hickory is more to be feared than so much lolly pop.

Mrs. Harris is a hostess who never does anything by half, as was attested by the manner in which she entertained her guests last evening, the occasion being an "Evening with German Authors and Composers." The parlors, which are just suited to such an affair, were arranged very prettily, and the program was exceptionally fine. Among other good numbers, a tablean, "The Lorell" was especially beautiful and was arranged on the lawn, while Mrs. B. S. Huntington sang the song so familiar to all. At the close of the program ice cream and cake were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in games and other enjoyment.

Margaret Montgomery offers, in the June Ladies' Home Journal, some excellent suggestions for spending a summer's vacation. The article is based on her own experiences in passing her "Vacation in a Vacated Farm-house," and is therefore practical. She asserts that the days were delightfully spent, that the party gained in health and rest, and that the expense was small. There are probably enough vacant houses in many of the farming districts to give a number of pent-up families from the cities the opportunity for an enjoyable outing.

An appropriation for construction of a canal around the dalles of the Columbia at Celilo is the principal big item Oregon will try for at the coming session of congress. This is the opinion ex-Congressman Ellis, who is in the city, and who is well posted regarding the outlook for Oregon river and harbor legislation, pending, and to be inaugurated. The canal, Mr. Ellis says, will be about 13 miles long. But as there is considerable of an eddy along the course of the route, much cutting away of ground may be avoided, thus making two canals in fact.—Telegram.

Having the interest of this whole community at heart, it becomes our duty to notice the efforts being put forth by the Oregon Telephone & Telegraph Co. to give us telephonic connection with the interior. Their line now building to Prineville is costing a snug fortune and that, too, without the assurance of a fair return on the investment. This line will bring to The Dalles, business that today is without creation. We are here to encourage every industry that tends to enrich the people of our town. Let us hope for an early completion of this line. It is a good thing and we push it along.

Marshal Lauer is nothing if not gallant. At the same time he is also vigilant, and THE CHRONICLE reporter just drops this hint for the benefit of any ladies who may presume upon his reputation for being a ladies' man and continue to ride their bicycles on the sidewalks. Had it not been for the persuasive powers of one of his friends, a lady would have found herself up before the recorder this morning and paying her fine, that is providing Ned could find it in his heart to fine a lady, which we doubt. But, ladies, look out, someone, who was either wise, or thought themselves so, said that "men are deceivers ever."

Hotel men and even the railroads in every part of the country are complaining of loss of business consequent upon the recall of "traveling men" on account of the formation of so many trusts and combines. It is estimated that as many as 75,000 drummers have been thrown out of employment by reason of these industrial consolidations, and the loss falls directly and mainly upon hotels and railroads, and these depending upon them for a livelihood. A loss of fully $500,000 a day is being subtracted from the receipts of these institutions, and the item is of sufficient magnitude to be taken into serious account by those concerned, and their name is legion.

Water Notice.

The water will be turned off below the bluff tomorrow morning (June 3) from 8 till 10 o'clock. Read the CHRONICLE and it will save you complaining because you are without water during those hours.

Company D, Attention!

All members of Company D are requested to be present at the armory this evening at 8 o'clock sharp. There will be a regular drill and election of non-commissioned officers.

The Modern Beauty.

Thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face blooms with its beauty. If her system needs the cleaning action of a laxative remedy, she uses the gentle and pleasant Syrup of Figs, made by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

Miss Myra Helm is in the city at present and will remain for some time taking orders in portrait painting, samples of which may be seen at Blakeley & Houghton's, where orders may be left. She will also give lessons in oil, pastel and crayon work. 31-3t.

LIVELY FIRE DRILL.

Five Streams Play on Wasco Warehouse—Pressure 84.

That Dalles people are interested in their fire department (and they have every reason to be) was proven last evening by the number who witnessed the test drill at the warehouse. One might have thought Dewey had reached the city sure enough, (and it certainly was dewey for a time) judging from the procession which followed the department up Second street.

"The process" was headed by our new band, which furnished marching music for the following companies: Mt. Hood, Jackson, East End, Columbia, South Side and Hook and Ladder. While each company made a good showing, we must mention the new South Side No. 5, which turned out in full force, only three members being absent, one being ill and two in Portland. If appearance stands for anything the east hill is safe in case of fire.

Marching at once to the Wasco warehouse, the "boys" went to work in earnest, inspired by the strains of the band, and soon five streams of water were playing on the building as lively as if the whole thing was in a blaze.

The drill was for the purpose of testing the pressure since the new plugs and extra pressure has been put in. The engine was stationed at Skibbee's corner, and with 2500 feet of hose in use and five streams—two hose attached at the corner of Third and Taylor, two at Second and Taylor, and one at Second and Monroe—it was determined that eighty-four pounds pressure could be obtained. This is a large per cent over what we could depend on before the new system was put in, and East Enders feel a great deal safer than formerly.

The test being made, they proceeded to the engine, where occurred a test in which the steamer was tried against the pressure obtained from the plug. This time Engineer Brown was outdone and the plug came out ahead.

The East End has always seemed to be the place to be dreaded on account of fire, as has also that district on Second street between Court and Union. We understand that in case of a fire in the latter section eight streams at least, and probably eleven, could be turned on at once, so that that section is not to be dreaded as a fire trap so much as it has always been.

The board of delegates are much encouraged over the outlook for a new alarm system, chemical engine, etc., and we expect to hear encouraging news from them soon. Let us assist them in every manner possible, for their efforts are only for our benefit, their services being given gratis.

We owe much to our fire department; let us keep this ever in mind.

One View of the Situation.

THE CHRONICLE has never so far been guilty of taking a pessimistic view of matters in general, but, variety being the "spice of life," we may be excused if we deviate for once at least, and look at the river question on the dark side, thus giving ourselves sufficient reason for being thankful that the weather still remains cool and hoping that it may so continue.

While quite a number of experienced river men predict that there will be no unusual high water this year, there is a probability, or we may say possibility, of the river reaching the '94 mark. We have, so far, had no summer weather. The moon changes for warmer weather next Thursday. On Tuesday the river at The Dalles will be 31 feet. Suppose we should get fifteen days hot weather (and this is not at all improbable) with the amount of snow in the mountains it would be an easy thing to get a raise of 1 1/2 per day, or a 22 1/2 foot rise above Tuesday's mark, making 53 1/2 feet at The Dalles, pretty close to the '94 mark. Should the weather continue cool, of course there will not be much danger of the river reaching the above figure; but in the meantime let us cease "kicking" at the weather, the weather prophet, etc., when we realize that this is perhaps our only salvation from a flood.

Down the Columbia.

Engineer Strack and White, with a full crew of well equipped railway surveyors, started a line of survey down the north side of the Columbia river, beginning at Paul F. Mohr's old warehouse. Last Saturday the same crew of surveyors was seen in the vicinity of Celilo flats, on the exact line of Paul F. Mohr's right of way by Klickitat's coroner, William Hart, who was in that vicinity on official business. Mr. Hart says he asked no questions, but he ascertained from one of the crew that there was abundant capital behind the present party in the field.

Another theory of many people is that the survey party is in the field to carry out the plans of Paul F. Mohr and Dr. Blalock. Further, that the plans of these two gentlemen have been consolidated, and that a quiet meeting of the two contending forces was recently held in Spokane, and that the meeting brought about the formation of a brand new company, composed of some of Spokane's millionaire mine owners, who are known to be men who have pushed to profitable development great enterprises.—East Oregonian.
