MONDAY - - - - JUNE 12, 1899
THE MASS OF CUBANS FRIENDLY

Passing events show that the great majority of the inhabitants of Cuba are well-disposed toward the United States. A few ambitious politicians are anxious to hurry our forces out of the island in order to try schemes of their own, but the people in general are not acknowledging their leadership. This fact is apparent in the acceptance by the enlisted men of the money offered by the United States. They refuse to listen to the heroics of hothead officers who want to use them for future political ends. Common sense assures the Cubans that the $3,000,000 is tendered to aid disbanding soldiers to make a fresh start in civil life and not as a bribe, nor with any ulterior designs. Each soldier can take his share without loss of manly self-respect or making any pledge of future political action. He is paid because it would be unfair to turn him back to ordinary industries in a penniless condition.

Some of the officers, however, take a singularly wrongheaded view and are eager, by what they say and write, to breed mischief. Gen. Collazo publishes in a Havana paper an article in which he remarks that "the offer of charity affronts the dignity of our people, and the gratuity of $3,000,000 insults them. The United States government, if it intends to free the island, should pay what is due the army in the form of a loan to Cuba, which Cubans would gladly and easily repay. We do not want gifts." It would be hard to condense into the same space more foolishness and misrepresentation. The money is not offered as alms. The United States has already freed Cuba. Its greatest gift to Cuba is liberty. It is one the Cubans wanted very much and for which it implored the aid of this country. No loan could be made to Cuba at this time. It has no government except by our military authorities. Gen. Collazo may have a plan of his own for governing it, but he will be allowed but one vote when the time comes to decide the matter.

The action of the Republican representatives of New York in falling into line with the majority of the other Republican congressmen in support of Gen. Henderson removes the last vestige of doubt of the nomination of the Iowan. Sherman, of New York, was the earliest of all the speakership aspirants to put himself into the field. It was thought by his friends at the outset that he would have a long lead in the speakership caucus. The fact, however, that he had a rival from his own state in Payne, which was not suspected until Sherman had been in the field several days, weakened his supporters, and destroyed all his chances to get many votes, even in his own section, if he should have remained in the field. His withdrawal, which has not taken place, makes a clear field for Henderson. He will probably get a unanimous vote. An honor of this sort, at a first election, comes seldom in the United States. Reed, Crisp, Carlisle, Randall and all the rest of the speakers for many years past had, at their first election, opposition in the caucus of their party. The distinction of a unanimous nomination which Gen. Henderson is likely to receive is rare enough to be notable in American annals.

Glorious News.
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion and builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists. Guaranteed.
