MORE MEN FOR THE PHILIPPINES.

The fact that more men are wanted for the army in the Philippines than were thought to be necessary a few months ago does not mean that the campaign thus far has been a failure. It means that the president is determined that not only shall the resistance by future Aguinaldos be averted, but that all guerrilla disturbances shall be prevented. It will be very easy to suppress the present Aguinaldo. The determination of the government is to render all Aguinaldos of five, ten or fifty years hence, impossible.

Moreover, a large army in the Philippines means quicker work and a smaller loss of life. The rebellion will be crushed sooner, and it will stay crushed. Capitals or any other sort of towns held by the Filipinos can be captured at any time. It is never difficult for the American troops to drive any number of the Filipinos out of any point which they hold. In the future, however, something more than this will be done. The town which is captured will be garrisoned and held. This necessarily requires a somewhat larger force than would be necessary for merely whipping the Filipinos. Under the new plan, when they are whipped they will remain whipped.

Great work has already been done by Otis, Lawton, MacArthur, Hall and their associates. No soldiers whom the world ever saw could have done more with their means. Their resources will be enlarged now, and they will do still better work. The moral effect, too, of this increase in the force in the Philippines will be salutary. It will have a deterrent influence on Aguinaldo. That astute personage relied on the discharge of the volunteers to weaken Otis' army permanently. He thought, therefore, that while Otis could drive him from any position which he could occupy, Otis would not have enough men to hold the position. This is where the new programme will hurt Aguinaldo. The places which will be captured will be retained. When the rebels are driven out of a region they will never again be able to get a glimpse of it except as prisoners. Guerrilla fighting will be prevented. A district which is cleared will be pacified for all time. The new programme will be merciful to the soldiers and will give satisfaction to the country.

All the impregnable places held by the Filipinos have been taken one after another, as fast as our forces could get to them. They were impregnable to the Spanish soldiery. The fighting qualities of American soldiers do not admit of impregnable places. They have no such places in the range of their philosophy. So the foolish Filipinos will get tired, before long, of getting killed or driven out for their presumption. They will find out that they are whipped. Then the war will end.

Our Trade Number.

THE CHRONICLE has in preparation a "Trade Number," which will be issued in July. The object of the work is to present a trustworthy review of the business interests of The Dalles, and to that end THE CHRONICLE has employed the services of Messrs. Sargent & Rohrbacher, two able and experienced commercial writers, who will collect data, prepare matter and solicit business for the work.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. BABCOCK, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.
