CANADA GIVES AN ULTIMATUM

Tells England to Choose Between Her and United States.

BOUNDARY DISPUTE IS WORSE

Great Britain Cannot Proceed With the Negotiations in the Face of Such a Predicament, and Officials Cannot Place the Blame at Her Door—Report Positively Contradicted.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A special to the Journal and Advertiser from Washington says: Canada has served notice on England that she must choose between the United States and the North American Dominion in the settlement of the Alaskan boundary question. It is stated on the highest authority that this statement represents accurately the conditions submitted to England, which has delayed the negotiations between Ambassador Choate and Lord Salisbury in the provisional life of the modus vivendi.

The position to Canada is known here officially. The official to whom it is known feels authorized in saying that there are only two ways out of the difficulty; first, that Canada will voluntarily recede from her demand for a Pacific tidewater port, or, second, that the United States shall surrender the principle laid down by Secretary Hay, in his tentative boundary line, that Americans will not grant temporarily or otherwise any port facilities to the Canadians. That Canada will yield is considered by the state department officials, who have discussed the new and acute phases of the situation, as improbable.

It is asserted on authority that England has been forced to yield to Canada and that the United States and England are wider apart today in the controversy than since the adjournment of the high joint commission.

In the light of the present news, the conflict, which the provisional boundary line was intended to prevent, may be precipitated at any moment, and with greater show of probability when it becomes known that England has decided to stand irrevocably behind Canada.

England Denies It.

LONDON, June 19.—The officials of the colonial office today were shown the dispatch from Washington saying that Canada had served notice on Great Britain that she must choose between United States and her North American Dominion in the settlement of the Alaska boundary dispute. They declared the story false, both in substance and fact, and that it can be further reaffirmed that a modus vivendi was reached early last week, as cabled to the Associated Press at that time.

The arrangement is a verbal one and deals with the question on broad lines. One or two minor details are still under discussion, and when they are settled a final arrangement will be entered into. It may be further said that the boundary agreed upon follows the summits of White and Chilkoat passes.

Wedded After Fifty Years.

ROSSLAND, B. C., June 19.—A romantic marriage took place here recently. Fully half a century ago George Kuchle and Bertha Weidel went to school together, and subsequently became engaged. Circumstances separated them, however, and in the course of time each of them married. For twenty-five years the two never met, and eventually one lost a much-loved husband while the other mourned the loss of a devoted wife. Each learned by some means of the lonely condition of the other. They met again, and the early affection which had so long lain dormant in their breasts sprang into life with unabated vigor. The rest followed as a matter of course. The pair came here Saturday and were married that morning by Rev. G. H. Morden. The groom is aged 67 and the bride 59. The happy pair left on the noon train for their future home in Colville.

CANNIBALISM IN ALASKA

Three Eastern Men Get Lost and One Is Eaten.

CIRCLE CITY, Alaska, May 29.—Via San Francisco, June 19.—A story of possible cannibalism and death on the Yukon trail has just reached here. Three men who left Dahl river on December 5, for Jintown, were not heard of again and they were supposed to have been lost. Nothing was heard of them here till the steamer Rideout, which arrived today, brought a terrible tale of suffering and horror.

The men were Michael Daly, Victor Edair and M. Provost. They were from Providence, R. I., Woonsocket, R. I., and Brockton, Mass., respectively. They were discovered seventeen miles from the mouth of Old Man creek, they having lost the trail and become bewildered. Having left Dahl river with only three weeks' food, but which was amply sufficient for the 150 miles to Jintown, the poor fellows were soon reduced to starvation.

Daly's body was found, partly eaten, in a tent, and on the stove just as it was left when death overtook the others were found some scraps of moose hide and moccasins of which they were endeavoring to make a stew.

Daly's body was identified by the clothes. The other two men were found dead five miles away from the tent. The fact of the tent flaps being shut down when found would preclude the possibility of Daly's body having been eaten by animals. The other men doubtless were driven by hunger to the awful extremity of cannibalism. Four hundred dollars were found on the bodies.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

Sampson Not Ill.

Boston, June 18.—The statements published to the effect that Admiral Sampson was ill and would retire from the command of the North Atlantic squadron have been authoritatively denied by an officer of his staff as wholly unfounded. On the contrary, Admiral Sampson is now in better health than he has been at any time since or during the war, and has no intention of giving up his command.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters'; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. 5

FILIPINO ARMS CAPTURED

Five Killed, Twenty-Five Wounded is Our Total List of Casualties.

MANILA, June 19.—A battalion of the Fourth infantry, which left Imus with General Wheaton in command this morning to reconnoiter toward Pedas Desmarin, was attacked in the rear by apparently friendly natives. This brought on a sharp engagement lasting several hours and five Americans being killed and twenty-five wounded. The loss of the rebels was very heavy.

The battalion soon exhausted its ammunition and Wheaton and his staff with two mountain guns and one field piece went to reinforce the troops which were attacked. General Wheaton was fired on in the road and had a narrow escape.

The third battalion was ordered to the front and formed on the Las Minas road. Heavy firing on both sides followed, artillery being freely used. The enemy was located in the woods at 4 o'clock, showing signs of retreating as the rebels were pressed very hard. One gun of the Sixth artillery did great execution.

The fighting was still in progress at 5 o'clock, at which time the Americans had secured a quantity of Filipino arms which had been abandoned in the woods. The scene of the fighting is 20 miles from Manila.

Offered a Regiment.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The war department today received a telegram signed by Senators Perkins and White offering for immediate service in the Philippines a full regiment of infantry from Southern California. No action can be taken in the matter. The question of calling for volunteers has not been determined, besides it has not been decided whether state troops would be accepted, should volunteers be called for.
