POPULATION IN 1900.

Estimates as to the population of the United States in 1900 have just been made by three experts, Assistant Director of Census Wines figures out that his bureau will find about 75,000,000 people in the United States, exclusive of Hawaii and of the territory gained as a result of the Spanish war, when the enumeration is made next year. The government actuary, J. S. McCoy, estimated that the number will be 77,676,000. Prof. H. S. Pritchett, superintendent of the coast survey, puts the number at 77,472,000, qualifying his calculation by saying that it leaves a margin of possible error of 250,000 either way.

It will be noticed that there is only a slight difference between the estimates of the government's actuary and of the superintendent of the coast survey, while each is in the neighborhood of 2,500,000 in excess of that of the census official. Even his figures, however, allow for an increase of about 12,500,000 in the country's population since 1890. This is equal to the aggregate population of the United States in 1830, around the middle of Jackson's first term as president. It is nearly four times the total population of the country in 1790, at the time of the first national census. It is five times the population of the thirteen colonies at the time of the declaration of independence.

There is a disposition among conservative statisticians to avoid high figures in the forecasts of the probable population which will be found in the country a year hence. There are, of course, two causes for this. The financial convulsion of 1893, checked immigration, and probably cut down the natural increase from the inside. As the nations grow older the rate of increase in population diminishes. Keeping these two considerations in mind, however, there is no good reason to suppose that the aggregate inhabitants in 1900 will be below the 75,000,000. This figure, indeed, will represent a very encouraging growth. No other country in the world shows a rate of population expansion anywhere near as great as this. When Benjamin Franklin long ago excited the incredulity of Europe by predicting that the great republic of the West, which was soon to come into being, would double in population every quarter of a century his estimate was very far from being as wild as the Old World supposed.

In Nebraska a law was recently passed to better the condition of women who work in stores and factories. The employers threaten now to substitute male help for the hundreds of women at work in the state, rather than comply with the law, and the women are raising a great row over it. Perhaps, after all, the man who drew the bill knew what was best for the women of his state, and also for the men.

It is figured out that there is in circulation in the United States just about a round billion dollars in gold, or almost a third of a billion more than there was four years ago. The increase of gold in circulation has far exceeded that of population or volume of business. This is one fact that has done much to shut the mouths of the free-silver propagandists.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. 6-10 Hall's Family Pills are the best.
