WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Wilson gallery now open. Photographs from $1 to $5 per dozen.

Jyl-1w

The morning service at the Congregational church tomorrow will commence 10:30 instead of 11 o'clock.

Will Corson, formerly of this city, but now of Ione, will soon locate in this city as accountant for Rhea & Welch.

The Commercial club bowling team is making arrangements to have a contest with the Multnomah team on the club alleys here next Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Geer Short, mother of Capt. S. V. Short, died in Portland Wednesday and was buried yesterday afternoon. She was an aunt of Governor.

It has been warm enough today, thank you; but the weather report says warmer tomorrow. The river still falls lightly and will continue to fall until Wednesday.

Wm. P. Watson, assistant engineer of the Columbia Valley Railroad, and surveyors came into the city today, having finished the survey from Umatilla to this place.

Tonight is the regular meeting night for the Elks. As this will probably be the only meeting during the month of July, it is desired that there be a large attendance.

Tomorrow being quarterly meeting Sabbath at the M. E. church, communion service will be held in the morning at the usual hour, 11 o'clock. In the evening the service will open with a song service.

Sheriff Gray, of Crook county, arrived in town this morning on the stage. He came in for the purpose of taking a prisoner, Frank Craine, back to Prineville, he being wanted on a charge of arson from a dwelling.

Mrs. Ben Wilson has fitted up a neat photograph gallery in the second story of the new building on Second street between Laughlin and Federal, where photos may be obtained which are not only reasonable, but good as well.

Dr. Hollister is in town today on his weekly visit. He informs us that early next week he and Mrs. Hollister will remove from the Curtis to a residence on Seventeenth street, between Morrison and Yamhill, where their Dalles friends may hereafter find them.

We are informed by both Robert Hynd and Phil Cohn, the warehouse men, that they predict their warehouses entirely emptied of wool within the next few days. It is estimated that $275,000 has been paid to our wool growers since the first of this month.—Heppner Gazette.

William A. Miller is in town today from Wapinitia. The temperature in that section of the country has not been so cool as in The Dalles, the thermometer standing at 98 in the shade one day this week, and 96 most of the time. The heat is not very favorable for the grain.

There will be no preaching service at the Christian church tomorrow, the pastor being still absent. In the evening at 8 o'clock the Endeavor society will give a patriotic service, which promises to be a very interesting affair. Patriotic songs and other selections are being prepared and Mr. G. E. Stewart will deliver an appropriate address. All are cordially invited.

Rob Murry, who came in town from up the railroad today, he being employed as a track walker, tells of a man who had been sent up recently to watch the track, being run over last night beyond Des Chutes. It seems that instead of watching the track he employed his time in watching the "jug," and when No. 24, east bound freight came along, he was lying on the track, and was run over and killed.

Anent the story told by Industrial Agent Judson, of the O. R. & N., about growing macaroni in the Palouse country, Secretary Lennox, of the Colfax chamber of commerce, sent the Oregonian a specimen bunch, freshly harvested, to show the capabilities of that section. It consists of greenish, jointed, hollow stalks, and suggests the sort of reed that was the hiding-place of Moses when Pharaoh's daughter found him, several years ago. Some people prefer bu'rushes to macaroni, anyway. It is feared, however, that the Colfax chamber of commerce did not plant the right kind of macaroni seed.—Oregonian.

In yesterday's edition we mentioned the fact of the state military board considering the idea of declaring the day of the volunteers' return a state holiday. We now learn that The Dalles Commercial Club should receive the credit of suggesting the idea, a resolution to that effect being sent to the reception committee in Portland and by them forwarded to the governor. Gen. Beebe informed the committee that he had already spoken to Gov. Geer concerning the proposition, and that he looked with favor on the plan. It seems that Postmaster Riddell met Gen. Beebe on the train and informed him of the action of the commercial club, and he followed it up by bringing it to the governor's attention.

To the 11:45 east-bound train tonight will be attached a special car containing the reception committee from Portland, who will meet the visiting editors at the state line. A representative from the CHRONICLE will join the committee here and accompany them. It is impossible to determine as yet just what hour they will reach this city Tuesday, but as soon as they reach the O. R. & N. line word will be sent regarding their plans. It is to be regretted that the shortness of their stay here prohibits their being driven about the city, as a poor idea of The Dalles can be gained by merely seeing First and Second streets. They will, however, receive a good breakfast and be taken through our warehouses and stores, giving them an idea of the amount of business done here. No doubt many of our people would find friends among the party were they to make it a point to be at the Umatilla House when they arrive.

The Salpes-Kinnersly Drug Company has changed hands having been purchased by the Butler Drug Company, and this morning Truman Butler assumed charge as manager. This drug store being the oldest in the city is therefore a popular one with all, and the new management will only tend to increase its popularity. The very fact of the choice which has been made in the management will insure its success, for the affable, happy manner of Mr. Butler will always draw patrons, were there not many other features in its favor. But, besides, it is intended to entirely renovate and refit the store, placing in a new stock of drugs and in every way making it what a drug store should be, neat and attractive, as well as full of the best drugs, which, as Truman would say, are not a "drug on the market" when it comes to selling and also curing. The most important feature of all, however, is the fact that the services of a competent druggist from Portland has been engaged and he will soon arrive and commence work. The Dalles is well fitted out with drug stores, and good ones too.

Where Was Washington Wedded?

"Although one of the most interesting events in Washington's private life, his wedding has been comparatively neglected by the majority of his biographers," writes Williams Perrine in the July Ladies' Home Journal. "It is generally agreed that the ceremony took place on the sixth of January (or the 17th of January, new style), 1759. But whether it was performed in St. Peter's church, in New Kent county, or at the home of the bride, known as the 'White House,' there is a wide variance of opinion. The weight of local authority is against the belief that it occurred in the church; nor is there any record in the church indicating that the couple were married there, although its rector, the Rev. Mr. Mossom, who had been in the pulpit for forty years, solemnized the contract. On the other hand, those who insist that the clergyman officiated in the church point to accounts that Washington rode on horseback on the day of the wedding, and that the pair were attended by a bridal cavalcade, as evidence that that there was a journey between the church and the home of the bride. This, however, is offset by the conjecture that the cavalcade was escorting the couple immediately after their marriage to Mrs. Custis' house in the town of Williamsburg, or to Mount Vernon, and that they were repairing thither to spend the honeymoon."

Biennial Convention.

LAST MEETING OF COUNCIL.

Vote of Thanks Tendered to the Mayor—Licenses Granted.

The last meeting of the present city council was held last night at the recorder's office at 8 o'clock. Mayor Nolan presided and Councilmen Kuck, Keller, Clough, John, Gunning, Stephens, Michelbach and Johnston were present.

To take extra precaution against fire on firecracker day, next Tuesday, Johns moved that the fire and water committee be ordered to hire a team and have it at the engine house all day the fourth. The motion was carried.

The application of a man, whose name was not determined, to letter or place the names on the streets of the city and number the residences, for the former of which he would charge $35 and from 25 cents to $1 for the latter, was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

On motion of Kuck a vote of thanks was extended to the retiring mayor for the untiring interest he has taken in the city's welfare during the time he has served us, which was a fitting move, and the entire city should join in tendering to him and to the city council the same courtesy. These offices are thankless ones as a general thing, as are all such places where so many are to be pleased, and none but those who have had experience along this line can realize what it means to have the affairs of a city to manage and to please at least a portion of the public. The present mayor and council have been faithful to their trust and deserve our gratitude.

Mayor Nolan responded in a feeling manner, speaking of his regret at severing the pleasant relations which have existed between mayor and council and expressing his interest in the future welfare of the city.

Then were read sixteen applications for saloon and one brewery license, accompanying which were the requisite bonds. These were granted.

The following bill were read and ordered paid.
