ANOTHER ANTI-EXPANSION LIE

Another anti-expansionist lie has been nailed to the counter, says the Chicago Tribune. The accusation has been made by the aunties that four Filipino prisoners were slaughtered by Kansas soldiers, acting under orders of Captain Bishop, of the Salina company. Now comes Captain Bishop, writing to a friend in Salina, and says: "I see by the American papers that I am charged with ordering or permitting prisoners to be killed. I do hope the good people at home will not think for one moment that I am such a brute. The insurgent wounded and prisoners are well cared for—we only wish that all of them would surrender and end this awful affair." The aunties should be satisfied with Captain Bishop's concession that the "affair" is "awful," without lying so wickedly about him. They derived their information, it appears, from a soldier's letter. Will they never learn to suspect the truth of these gruesome romances which come from the front? Or are they so malicious in their prejudices and so determined to stamp our brave fellows in the Philippines as assassins that they are willing to swallow any story that is printed, no matter how absurd it may be?

The bodies of the dead of the Second Oregon, who died and were buried in Manila, will be returned in due time to the United States for burial. This is following the precedent set in returning the bodies of the soldiers who fell in Cuba to their native land for final interment. It respects a sentiment especially dear to our people, and assuages to some extent the bitterness engendered by the thought that privation, which it was in the power of the commissary department to prevent, sent many a soldier to the hospital and from thence to his grave. All honor to those who gave their lives to the service of their country. The measure of this honor would not be full in the estimation of those nearest to them in kindred ties without the return of their bodies to graves in their home land.—Oregonian.

The skipper of the 12-foot cockleshell who attempted to cross the Atlantic was picked up in an exhausted condition seventy miles from the Irish coast. He is not deserving of any more sympathy than the man who jumps from the Brooklyn bridge or he who tries to go through the whirlpool rapids at Niagara in a barrel.

There seems to be no abatement of interest in expositions. People thought there might be an interim after Atlanta, Nashville and Omaha, but today Buffalo, Philadelphia and St. Louis are all busily engaged in preparing for expositions, each of which the promoters say will be the biggest thing since the World's Fair.
