WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The Dalles City will arrive at the dock about 7 o'clock this evening.

The flume broke loose near the garrison last night causing no little excitement and compelling the workmen to get up and "fight water."

The lecture to be delivered by Dr. Roland Grant will take place tomorrow (Friday) evening in the First Baptist church. Admission 25 cents.

During the absence of H. L. Vorse from the city his place will be filled by L. R. Robertson, of Portland, who arrived in the city Tuesday evening.

Paul Kretz is confined to his home today, having suffered a severe attack of stomach trouble last night, from which it was thought for a time he would not recover.

The funeral of Mrs. John Cates will take place at the family residence on Seventh street tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Friends of the deceased are invited to be present.

Remember that on Saturday morning the Regulator will leave the dock here at 4 o'clock, or four hours earlier. If you want to keep up with the D. P. & A. N. boat on that day you must get up early in the morning.

Yesterday Dr. Logan and Gelsendorfer performed a very critical operation on John Burns, son of A. L. Burns, who lives about a mile from the city on Mill creek. The trouble was with the tubercular glands, and was a serious one. He stood the operation remarkably well and is improving rapidly.

W. C. Blalock, of Walla Walla, whose eyesight and hearing have been very poor for the past 32 years, suddenly found himself the other day in full possession of these faculties. He is now in his 76th year and cannot account for the restoration of his eyesight and hearing, which are the equal of those of his youth. His physical condition has much improved since his good fortune.

Last night the members of the grand lodge visited Fern Lodge, of this city, and spent a most delightful time. Two brothers, who are desirous of organizing lodges in their own towns when they return, were initiated into the mysteries, P. G. C. Mrs. Kate Young acting as presiding officer. Later all adjourned to the club rooms.

He was not dead, but dead drunk, when Marshal Hughes found him last night lying on the sidewalk, and when he awoke he was not resting on flowery beds of ease, but on the cot in the city jail. Before morning he was repentant and Recorder Gates dismissed him today. And his name was "John Doe." So was his cake dough.

"Kissing Bugs Not Wanted Here" were the words the young man read at the gate where his darling lived in Walla Walla. Then he walked sadly away, for he considered that he was an accomplished kissing bug, although not of the late dangerous kind. He will not return until that abnoxious sign is removed and the girl apologizes.

Tourist traffic this year is keeping the D. P. & A. N. boats hustling, and almost every day parties are brought to the Cascades. Saturday the Gillespie party will be brought through the locks. On that day the Regulator will leave this city four hours earlier, or at 4 o'clock, going through to Portland, and the Dalles City will leave Portland four hours later.

Yesterday Mr. Bolton received a report from Miss Holmes, of the Business college in Portland, giving a statement of the work done by Edward Jenkins while in the school. It was flattering indeed, the standing being among the highest made by any pupils in the college. She also expressed her deep regret that one who gave such promise in the work he had recently chosen should be so early taken away.

Yesterday morning Rev. J. H. Wood and sons, Frank and Willie, and A. Hall started for a camping trip in the vicinity of Badger lake. They expect to be absent about three weeks. Mr. Wood has labored assiduously in his pulpit for some time without a vacation, except as he was compelled to be at home through sickness in the family, and he has certainly earned a rest.

Judge Mays returned this morning from a trip into the Bakeoven country. Speaking of the crops, he said: "When I went into the country a week ago and looked over the grain I was discouraged and thought it was surely a failure, so parched did it seem; but on this trip I somewhat modified my opinion, and now believe the situation is not nearly so bad as some report it, although much of the crop will be anything but first-class. The weather is some cooler and the nights not nearly so sultry, which had bettered the condition. The condition of the grain is much worse beyond Deechutes than this side."

The Commercial Club rooms were well filled with guests last night, a reception being given to the visiting delegates in our city. Many were surprised and all greatly pleased with the appearance of our club. The time was spent by some in bowling and at billiards, while the greater portion improved the opportunity to meet the club members. The D. C. & A. C. band was stationed in the billiard hall, and we were all proud of the band and the music rendered by them. Truly they have made wonderful progress, under the direction of Rev. Poling and Mr. Simonton, who now has taken charge.

Mistakes will happen in the best regulated newspapers, and the CHRONICLE is not an exception to this rule by any means. And so last night when after printing the entire edition, we had the temerity to glance over the paper, we were not a little surprised to read in the report of the proceedings of the Degree of Honor, that Mrs. Mamie Briggs had spoken in "gloomy" terms regarding something. As a matter of fact it would be an unusual occurrence for that happy and always cheery-dispositioned lady to lock on the gloomy side of any subject. Therefore, we trust our readers interpreted us aright and read it "glowing" instead of "gloomy."

Geo. D. Evans, the defaulting Washington deputy auditor, last Saturday was sentenced to the penitentiary at Walla Walla for five years. Evans pleaded guilty when his case came up at Olympia Saturday. He hoped by throwing himself on the mercy of the court to get a lighter sentence, but the judge gave him five years. The assistant attorney-general and the prosecuting attorney both asked that a light sentence be imposed in view of the fact that Evans had saved the state the expense of a trial. A letter from J. E. Frost, ex-state auditor, under whom Evans was employed, asking that Evans receive mercy, was read in court.

Will Arrive Tonight.

The Roland Grant party will arrive in the city this evening on the Dalles City, word having been received that the boats can be taken through the locks today. They will make the Umatilla House their headquarters, and remain until Saturday morning visiting points of interest near the city. The party is composed of the following persons:

M. A. Chandler, a hardware merchant of Boston, and wife; Henry R. Veltzy, wholesale leather merchant, of Boston; Geo. E. Loomis, capitalist; Mrs. Geo. E. Loomis and daughter; Mrs. C. C. Backus, Worcester, Mass.; Mrs. Jane Nichols and Harold Nichols, of Haverhill, Mass.; Miss Sarah Kelley, of Haverhill, Mass.; Mary E. Grant and Marguerite Grant, Westfield; Mrs. Dr. Welch and Mrs. J. Frank Hoyt, of Concord, N. H.; Roland Grant.

Colleges are represented by Miss E. B. Sherrard, professor at Wellesley; Melville Nichols, of Harvard; Robert Grant, Amherst, and David E. Truesdale, of Brown university.

DR. SIDDALL RETURNS.

Not Overly Enthusiastic Regarding Atlin—Not What It Is Purported to Be.

Dr. Siddall is again seen on the streets of The Dalles after three months spent among the so-called abundant gold fields of the Atlin district. About two weeks ago he came down to Seattle and has spent the time since in Ellensburg. He will soon be ready to begin work in his profession and his patrons will no doubt claim the distinction of carrying about in their teeth fillings of Alaskan gold. The doctor wears a pretty nugget in his scarf, and beside, wears a unique button showing that he belongs to the order of Artie Brotherhood. It represents a pan containing three gold nuggets and bearing the letters A. B. The organization was begun on the "City of Seattle" last year and now numbers 1200 members, who are pledged to protect any brother who may be in need when prospecting through the northern land, or wherever found.

Dr. is nothing if not honest, and none need fear of being misled by his statements. He is not enthusiastic in his praises of Atlin, but says while he knows there is much gold there, reports have been grossly exaggerated and that he believes there is as much gold in one claim in Dawson as in a dozen at Atlin.

Conditions when he came out were not encouraging. For thirty-six hours rain had poured down, loosening gravel and dirt and causing sluice boxes to be washed out and men to lose the work of months. Many men with families are in there and have not the wherewithal to get out.

There are perhaps fifty children in Atlin, which is one of the worst places in the world for a child to receive the comforts necessary. His opinion is that there will be much suffering in the fall.

Every spot of land, of all sorts and descriptions, is staked out, until it would seem that there were enough stakes used to keep New York in wood for two years.

Dr. did not invest much in that section, but has a quartz claim near there. The law regarding the right of ground was so unsettled when he was there that it was impossible to make any headway or get at the true state of affairs.

His trip, however, (although when he went in he rode 150 miles over ice, perched on the top of three bales of hay) was an interesting one and worth the while, and he saw much that was very grand in the way of scenery.

It is not unlikely the doctor will return and go into Dawson next fall.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Was the Rule of Yesterday Afternoon in Both Lodges.

Yesterday's afternoon session was an interesting one to the members of the grand lodge, A. O. U. W., the occasion being the election of officers, which consumed the greater part of the afternoon. The result was as follows:

Grand Master Workman, D. C. Herrin, of Temple Lodge No. 3.

Grand Foreman, Ralph Feeny, of Upechurch No. 126.

Grand Overseer, C. C. Hogue, of Safety No. 13.

Grand Recorder, Newton Clark, of Riverside No. 68.

Grand Guide, J. M. Dixon, of Lafayette No. 31.

Grand Trustee, Geo. W. Probstel, of Weston No. 71.

Grand Inside Watchman, C. H. Dye, of Falls City No. 59.

Grand Outside Watchman, J. E. Wellinger, of Harmony No. 25.

Supreme Representative—E. L. Smith of Riverside No. 68; Wm. Cotrig, of Banner No. 23; Newton Clark, of Riverside No. 68.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Evidently the A. O. U. W. members are early risers, for at the early hour of 8 o'clock a goodly number were in their places and ready for work. At the beginning of the session a resolution was offered and adopted making a special order for 8:30 this evening, for the installation of officers.

In regard to the official paper of the order, a resolution was adopted to let the contract to the lowest and most acceptable bidder. It was also the sense of the members that the paper be devoted solely to the interest of the A. O. U. W. and D. of H., having only such advertisements as these orders shall provide.

The report of the committee to whom was referred the report of the grand medical examiner, was adopted.

At 9 o'clock the lodge went into a committee of the whole and continued so until 12.

D. OF H.

Evidently the ladies are somewhat "speedier" than the gentlemen, or else they have much less to do, for while the A. O. U. W. will probably be in session until Saturday, the D. of H. expect to almost completely finish their work this evening. Much time is being taken up by the former in revising the constitution.

Yesterday afternoon after the ice cream had had a cooling effect, the election of grand officers was proceeded with, and the following were chosen:

Past Grand Chief, Mrs. Martha A. Armstrong, of Naomi No. 25.

Grand Chief of Honor, Miss Maggie Barker, of Greenleaf No. 23.

Grand Lady of Honor, Mrs. Ollie Stephens, of Fern No. 25.

Grand Chief of Ceremonies, Mrs. Hilda Belknap, of Sunbeam No. 36.

Grand Recorder, Mrs. Margaret Herrin, of Marguerite No. 45.

Grand Receiver, Mrs. Minnie Mason, of Crystal No. 50.

Grand Usher, Mrs. Laura Smith, of Golden Rule No. 3.

Grand Inside Watch, Mrs. A. P. Fastabend, of Charity No. 53.

Grand Outside Watch, Mrs. Mary Simmons, of Hawthorn No. 21.

Supreme Representatives—Mrs. Anna R. Bewley, Mrs. Martha A. Armstrong and Mrs. Maggie Houston.

The matter of the unpaid claim of Wilhemina Rosneau came up for consideration and upon deliberation it was decided to refer it to the grand chief for further action.

A per capita tax of $1 was then adopted.

It is a custom with the lodge to present the lodge having the least percentage of social members a broom, with which, we presume, to "brush up." For some time Upechurch lodge at Lebanon has held the weapon, but upon investigation it is found that Esther lodge No. 56 has unwillingly captured it from the present holder, and it was given to the latter.
