POLITICAL TIDE IN THE WEST

No calamity party is in sight for next year. Its foundation has gone to pieces. Nebraska banks report deposits amounting to $21,000,000. In the dark days of the Cleveland failure and the Bryan scare, the Nebraska bank deposits amounted to only $11,000,000. They have doubled under a Republican administration. Bryan, if renominated, will be pushed hard in Nebraska. Though state pride is enlisted in behalf of a second trial, the Republican vote has grown since 1896. The fusion plurality last year was only 2721 for governor, the Republicans carrying the legislature and gaining a senator. Bryan has no certainty in Nebraska in 1900. In fact, the chances are the other way. Some of the Western states in his list before are sure to go against him next year. One of these is Washington. Bryan's anti-expansion views alone settles that. Washington is for commercial development on the Pacific. Its Republican plurality last year was 8023, quite a change from Bryan's 12,493 in 1896.

Kansas has parted company with the silver party. Its Republican plurality last year was 15,870. Kansas and Washington combined take fourteen electoral votes from the Bryan column. A change of 1600 votes last fall would have given Nebraska and South Dakota to the Republicans. The gains of Republican congressmen in the trans-Mississippi states last November were remarkable, and had the high distinction of saving the house. All of Nebraska's neighboring states are as prosperous as itself, and can match its increase in deposits. Speaking in the light of mathematical facts, Bryan's prospects in the states west of the Mississippi have generally faded. Figures of all kinds prove it. Nor can he count on gains east of the Mississippi, unless in Kentucky, in which the Democratic party at present is more seriously divided than in 1896. The facts in the case suggest a change in the Democratic candidate, but even that might cost more votes than it would gain. Prosperity, expansion and sound money are a winning combination.

Whenever organized labor becomes a mob defying law, and disputing with violence the right of any man to employ whom or work for whom he may please, then the original disputes are lost sight of, says the Statesman. Then it becomes the duty of organized society to demand a wholesome respect for its necessary rules—for its laws—and to enforce the demand at whatever cost. Hence the very proper use of the state militia in the Cleveland, Ohio, troubles growing out of the strike of the street car men. There were likely two sides originally. There can be but one side now. So with the case of the mining riots in the Idaho district. But in the latter organized labor simply stood for organized crime, before the riots.
