PERSONAL MENTION.

Frank Aldrich, the wheat buyer, came over from Goldendale yesterday.

Mrs. H. L. Jones and little son, Guy, left on the boat this morning for Stevenson.

Miss Edna Barnett was among those who left this morning to camp at Stevenson.

Mrs. O. Kinersly and family were among the campers who left for Stevenson this morning.

George Bolton came in from Moro yesterday and today joined the Moro people at Wind river.

Mrs. T. J. Kirk and daughter came down from Athena yesterday and are visiting friends here.

T. H. Johnston and his cousin, Dr. Wm. Johnston, of Los Angeles, came in from Dufur yesterday.

Geo. E. Shepton and wife, of St. Paul, who are making a tour of the coast, spent today in The Dalles.

Miss Maude Clarke, of the CHRONICLE force, left for Cascades this morning to spend a week with her mother in camp.

Chas. H. Green, the San Francisco wool buyer, is again in the city. He is still depending on his crutch for support.

J. B. and W. Hosford and L. K. Moore were Moro people on the boat this morning bound for Wind river, where their families are camping.

Alfred Huot left this morning for Portland. He was accompanied by the Misses Grenier, who have been visiting with the Misses Huot on 8-Mile.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Bolton and family and Miss Josie Jenkins left on the boat this morning to spend the rest of the summer at their old camping place at Stevenson.

J. E. Adcock was a passenger on the boat this morning for Portland on a business trip. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Norman, and his children, who will visit friends there.

Joe Heroux left this morning for Portland. Joe does not seem to be content with being a hero in name only, and is contemplating enlisting in the regular army. He has not as yet fully decided, however.

Otis Patterson passed through the city this afternoon, on his way from Heppner to Portland. Mrs. Patterson will join him here and return to Portland to spend the remainder of the summer.

Recorder Gates and F. W. Wilson were seen on the lower deck of the Dalles City as it pulled out this morning. Presumably they are not "steerage" passengers, but will be allowed in the cabin later. They were on their way to spend Sunday at Sprague.

Chris Schwabe, of the CHRONICLE force, was the most popular young man of the party which left this morning for Stevenson, and we have no idea that Mr. Bolton will dispute his claim. His accident a few weeks ago caused the young ladies to determine to see that he learns to swim, and he is in for a number of genuine duckings.
