Representative Landis, of Indiana, is undoubtedly right in his assertion that "the West is with the president on the Philippine question," says the Globe-Democrat. The West, except a few of the reactionaries, like Bryan, Stone and Altgeld, stands with the administration in the purpose to prosecute the war vigorously, and establish American authority all over the islands. These copperheads have the greater part of the western Democracy against them. There will be a savage fight in the Democratic convention of 1900 on the expansion issue. Probably the reactionaries will win in that gathering. Democratic conventions have committed so many follies that nobody will be surprised if Stone carries his "anti-imperialism" lunacy through that of 1900. No states in this quarter, however, will be won on the contraction issue. There are very few flag furlers in the western states.

There is talk about revolution in the Dominican Republic. No many revolts have occurred in that country in the past quarter of a century that no one would be surprised if a rising should occur at this time. The assassination of its president shows that the conditions which ordinarily lead to revolts are at hand. There are a comparatively large number of Europeans and Americans in the Dominican Republic, and almost all of them, it is understood, favor annexation to the United States. If that annexation project of thirty years ago, which President Grant favored, and which the people of the island agreed to, had been carried out it would undoubtedly have been a benefit to all parties. The present disturbance may lead to another annexation movement. This time it would succeed. The country in 1899 is a little wiser than it was in 1869.

It is incredible that Admiral Dewey could use the language attributed to him in regard to Germany as reported in a dispatch from Trieste. Dewey is a man of unusual diplomatic discretion, as the country knows from the events of the past year. He must have undergone an astounding change if he could predict that "the next war in which the United States will be engaged will be with Germany." An officer of the navy who had lost his wife might say such a wild and utterly gratuitous thing, but not one who had any recollection of his duty to his government. Dewey will dispose of this latest liar promptly.

The Montgomery Advertiser, a Democratic paper, says the people of the South are learning that "good money can't be made out of poor material." Perhaps some unpleasant surprises are in store for the silver party in that section.

That once obstreperous Havana paper, La Lucha, admits that the first half of the current fiscal year shows a balance in favor of the American administration of $4,967,500. Such arguments for annexation are unanswerable.

The time has passed when Mr. Kipling refers to the American eagle as a carrion bird. He has just remarked that to the American public he peculiarly owes "the best and most honest work I can turn out."

"We have sold many different cough remedies, but none gave better satisfaction than Chamberlain's," says Mr. Charles Holzhauser, Druggist, Newark, N. J. "It is perfectly safe and can be relied upon in all cases of coughs, colds or hoarseness." Sold by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. 1
