

TWO ACCIDENTS IN THE EAST

Had Over a Score of Victims Each and Many Were Injured.

GANGPLANK COL- LAPSED IN MAINE

One Hundred Thrown in the Water—
Trolley Car in Connecticut Jumped Off the Trestle Into Millpond.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 6.—A score of persons were killed today by the collapse of the gangplank of the Mount Desert ferry. Seventeen were drowned and three died from the terrible experience of immersion in the water and injuries while struggling for life.

The Maine Central railroad today ran excursions to Bar Harbor from all sections of its line in Maine, the attraction being the warships which were expected today. All the morning long trains packed with excursionists were rushing to Bar Harbor. The train which left Bangor at 8:25 consisted of twelve cars, jammed with people. At Mount Desert ferry, the terminus of the line, the train is left for the boat, for an 18-mile ride to Bar Harbor. From the wharf a slip or gangplank, 40 feet long and 10 feet wide ran out to the boat. The slip was hinged at the inner end and was raised or lowered to suit the tide. The wharf extends on both sides, flush with the end of the wooden gangplank. Five timbers, 4x12 inches, set vertically, ran the length of the plank, and these were crossed by 2-inch planks. It is said that there was no support for the plank between the hinges at the outer end.

When the excursion train from Bangor arrived at the ferry there was a rush for the Steamer Sappho. The first few passengers had crossed the gangplank safely, and it is estimated that 200 people were massed on the plank. Suddenly they felt the plank give way. The long timber supporting the plank broke in the middle. The hinges held up one end and the chain the other, while the broken ends of the plank dropped, and a struggling, screaming mass of humanity plunged into the water, fifteen feet below the wharf. A few clung to the inclined sides of the plank, but at least 150 were struggling in the water. The piling of the wharf partially penned them on three sides, and the boat lying at the wharf closed the outer end of the opening.

After the first moment of stupefaction the work of rescue began. Ropes and life preservers were thrown to the crowd, but in the panic the people in the water clutched one another and many sank in groups in a death grip. Many were taken from the water unconscious and were revived with difficulty. Doctors were summoned from all directions, but it was half an hour before the first arrived. The freight-house at the ferry was turned into a morgue, the bodies being taken there for identification as fast as recovered.

Another Fearful Accident
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 7.—An open trolley car of the Shelton Extension Company, twisted, bent and smashed almost into kindling wood lying in the middle of Peck's mill pond at Oronoque, about six miles north of here, this morning, is the only visible indication of the frightful accident of yesterday, when 21 lives were lost and about a dozen people seriously injured by the car tumbling off the trestle which crosses the pond at this point.

Coroner Dolen is making arrangements to conduct an immediate investigation into the cause of the disaster. The patients at the hospital, twelve in number, were all reported in a favorable condition today and no more fatalities are apprehended.

interjected in the controversy between the printers and managers of the Sun by the arrival here of the steamer Endeavor from Philadelphia with 105 non-union men in charge of Charles William Edwards, the Sun's superintendent of printing. Only nine of this number after arrival here went to work, and after working for less than a half hour, five of these joined the ranks of the strikers. According to the strikers' figures, there are twenty compositors at work in the Sun's office this morning.

It is said the actual number on a strike in the composing rooms of the morning and evening edition of the Sun is sixty-eight night compositors, thirty-one day compositors, sixty "enbs," thirty stereotypers and six pressmen. Men engaged in the press, mail and delivery-rooms have, it is said, no organization.

IS IT RIGHT

For an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy was kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack, much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

A WOMAN THE CAUSE

Of the Uprising of the Yaqui Indians—
Caused Trouble Before.

St. Louis, Aug. 7.—A special to the Republic from El Paso, Tex., says: Santa Teresa, a Mexican woman, who has long been revered as a saint by the natives of Chihuahua and Sonora, and who was believed to possess the power of healing the sick by the laying on of the hands, is believed to be more or less responsible for the present outbreak among the Yaqui Indians. After the Palomas raid a few days ago the Mexican government made an effort to apprehend her as she was looked upon as a dangerous character. She escaped to El Paso. About a year ago the woman disappeared from this locality and it afterwards turned out she had gone to Sonora and taken up her abode in the edge of the Yaqui villages, where she was safe from molestation by the Mexican government.

DREYFUS NOW ON TRIAL

Principal Witnesses Are Not in Evidence.

HIS DRAM- ATIC RESPONSES

Fears of an Anti-Dreyfus Demonstration—Court to Sit Behind Closed Doors.

RENNES, France, Aug. 7.—The trial of Dreyfus was opened at 7 o'clock this morning. The keenest excitement has prevailed here for several days and though no demonstration has occurred so far the authorities are apparently becoming anxious regarding the maintenance of tranquility during the trial owing to the invasion of the town by a crowd of anti-Dreyfus agitators, and heroic police measures have been taken to insure peace.

The Dreyfus trial opened this morning, in an atmosphere of perfect tranquility. Dreyfus in a new uniform of a captain of artillery scarcely moved during the whole proceedings. On the court proceeding to the roll-call of witnesses the most notable absentees noticed being Esterhazy, Paty du Clam and Milepoye. Dreyfus half turned his head towards the seats of the witnesses, especially when the clerk called Esterhazy, but when no response was received Dreyfus returned to his previous attitude looking straight in front of him.

Later in the morning the proceeding after the bill of indictment had been read the prisoner was handed a long slip of card board upon which the bordereau was pasted.

"Do you recognize this document?" Dreyfus replied with a passionate outburst "No, my Colonel; I am innocent, I declare it here as I declared it in 1894. I am a victim."

Here his voice choked with a sob which must have stirred every spectator in the court. The voice of the prisoner did not seem human. It resembled the cry of a wounded animal. He ended his reply with the words:

"Five years in galleys my wife, my children, my God, I am innocent, innocent."
