STRENGTH OF THE ARMY.

Recruiting will probably be continued until the army reaches the authorized strength of 100,000 men. About 60,000 regulars have been enlisted, leaving room for 5000 more. The ten volunteer regiments, with a total of 13,090 men, are practically full. Gen. Otis is organizing in the Philippines two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry, with a total of 3865 men, one-half of whom will be obtained from the volunteers leaving for home. The three regiments will be filled with recruits from the United States. We have still over 12,000 regulars in Cuba and nearly 3000 in Porto Rico. In Alaska is a total of 455 soldiers, and in Hawaii 483. These two possessions are a light charge in a military sense. Some of the troops in Cuba might be withdrawn from present peaceful indications throughout the island, but as the details of pacification are still ahead and a general election to be held at some time in the future, it is doubtful if the existing army of 12,000 will be much reduced.

In the Philippines are 22,550 regulars and 5072 are on the way there. By the end of the month Otis will have a total of 27,622 regulars. In San Francisco, ready to sail, are 2801 men, which will make the aggregate 30,423. The three regiments organizing at Manila, and in service now as far as recruited, will bring the aggregate to 34,288. Ten new volunteer regiments, whose ranks are now full, can depart for Manila as soon as transports are ready. This gives an aggregate of 48,951 fighting men who should be in the Philippines before the end of November. Nearly 20,000 more recruits could be accepted before the maximum of 100,000 men is reached. They can easily be obtained long before ships could be secured to take them across the Pacific. The problem of ocean transportation must be allowed for, but in any case the end of the rainy season will find a powerful American army in Luzon, and reinforcements in hand, if needed.

"A curfew ordinance well enforced would be a good thing for Portland," says the Evening Telegram. Yes, and wholesale parental authority well enforced would be better; a thousand times better. There is too much paternalism expected from law and order officials, and not enough paternal and maternal responsibility from the natural guardians.—Salem Statesman.

One of the strongest safeguards against civil war in Paris is the fact that a World's Fair is to be held in the city next year. The costly preparations, already far advanced, remind the excitable Parisians that the arts of peace are preferable to public tumult and wild deeds of destruction.

When the London Spectator argues that republics have seen their best days it forgets that Great Britain's resemblance to a republic has grown at a rapid pace throughout the century.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Your Face

Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, Pimples and Skin Eruptions. If you are feeling weak and worn out and do not have a healthy appearance you should try Acker's Blood Elixir. It cures all blood diseases where cheap Sarsaparillas and so called purifiers fail; knowing this we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures obstinate summer coughs and colds. "I consider it a most wonderful medicine, quick and safe."—W. W. Merton, Mayhew, Wis. Butler Drug Co.

Acker's English Remedy will stop a cough at any time, and will cure the worst cold in twelve hours, or money refunded. 25 cts. and 50 cts. Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
