MONEY PAID TO FOREIGNERS.

The amount of money annually paid by the American people to foreign ship owners was estimated by the treasury department a few years ago at about $200,000,000. The Philadelphia Press has investigated the statistics relating to the matter and figures out that the amount is $182,000,000.

The Press says that if by legislation, as proposed at the last session Dalles, Oregon. of congress, we could save one-half that sum-$91,000,000 annually-it can easily be seen what an enormous gain that would be to our people.

"At least 90 per cent of that sum would go to labor in building, maintaining and running the ships. That would give employment at $2 a day to 130,830 men for every day in the year excepting Sundays. That money would be distributed in about every trade in the United States. That vast army of men would support families and the additional consumption of farm products and manufactures of every kind would be enormous."

It is evident that the American ople are at last beginning to Sisters of the Holy Name of realize that the policy of depending on foreign ship owners to carry nearly all our foreign commerce is a very costly one. Party platforms have for years contained planks in favor of such legislation as would restore our marine, but in spite of a unanimous sentiment there appears to have been little done toward attaining the desired result. With the growth of our export trade the people growth of our export trade the people superior. are likely to give more attention to the matter and insist that some steps The Dalles, Portland and Astoria be taken to build up an American marine that will do the business now being done by foreigners.

Young Astor, whose father, the New York millionaire, has expatrated himself, declares that he will not be influenced by his father's renunciation of American citizenship. He says he is a loyal American and will remain so. The Americanism of Young Astor is a legacy from his Strs. Regulator & Dalles City mother, who died in England. He promised her to remain an American, whatever might come of the family's residence in England. This promise the young man says he will keep in the spirit and in the letter.

"Wherever the flag is assailed," said the president in his latest speech, will be carried at any sacrifice to Touching at way points on both sides of the a triumphant peace. Rebellion may delay, but it can never defeat its blessed mission of liberty and humanity." This is the extent of the president's militarism and imperial-

Senator Tiliman remarks that Oak St. Dock. Boston is "the bead and center of all devilment." Not quite all, for Boston statesmen have never ac quired the Tillman habit of making a personal use of the state laundries.

In the Tagal military lexicon the art of war consists of running away from intrenched positions. And there are people in the United States who are anxious to stop the sprinters long enough to surrender to them.

Going down is so much easier than coming up that it has taken Lieut. Hobson six months to raise a couple of war-ships that Admiral Dewey sent to the bottom of Manila Bay in about fifteen minutes.
