Miss Daisie Allaway was a passenger for Portland today.

J. Bolter and H. L. Priday are in from Cross Keys on business.

J. H. Hadley and wife and J. F. Blue came over from Gienwood yesterday. Mrs. J. T. Reynolds, of Sprague, spent yesterday in the city, returning on the boat this morning.

Mrs. Otis Patterson, who has spent the past two months in Portland, returned home yesterday afternoon. Miss Prodence Patterson came down from Wasco Tuesday, and will remain to attend school during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lord returned on yesterday's afternoon train, after spending some weeks at their cottage on Long Beach.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Judson, who is now making her home in the West. The import of his visit we did not learn; but as he expects to return perhaps Saturday, we will determine "what's up." for where Judson is there is exactly an exactly and the same a is there is something on hand.

Doctors Can't Cure It!

Contagious blood poison is absolutely beyond the skill of the doctors. They may dose a patient for years on their mercurial and potash remedies, but he will never be rid of the disease; on the other hand, his condition will grow steadily worse. S. S. S. is the only cure for this terrible affliction, because it is the only remedy which goes direct to the cause of the disease and forces it from the system.

I was afflicted with Blood Poison, and the best doctors did me no good, though I took their treatment faithfully. In fact, I seemed to get worse all the while. I took almost every so-called blood remedy, but they did not seem to reach the disease, and had no effect whatever. I was disheartened, for it seemed that I would never be cured. At the advice of a friend I then took S.S.S., and began to improve. I continued the medicine, and it cured me completely, building up my health and increasing my appetite. Although this was ten years ago, I have never yet had a sign of the disease to return.

W. R. NEWMAN. Staunton, Va.

It is like self-destruction to continue

It is like self-destruction to continue to take potash and mercury; besides totally destroying the digestion, they dry up the marrow in the bones, pro-ducing a stiffness and swelling of the joints, causing the hair to fall out, and completely wrecking the system.

Would Open the Eyes of a Potato.

The following from the Standard, of Montgomerv City, Mo., whose editor was recently in Oregon at the national convention, will make even a potato open its eyes:

"Speaking of potatoes, this good story is told of a certain gentleman. Visiting an Oregon town he was entertained by a triend. With the frankness of Western hospitality, his friend inquired what were the Easterner's favorite dishes. 'I have never seen the day,' he replied, when I couldn't eat a good baked potato and a piece of fat and tender roast mutton.' At dinner the next evening a huge platter was borne in with nine baked potatoes, aggregating sixty-three pounds in weight. The biggest one fell to the lot of the Eastern guest. It weighed eleven pounds. Broken open it was mealy and white, with a perfect flavor. 'And this is the first day I ever knew when I couldn't eat one baked potato,' was the comment of the astonished
