THE "PAPS" AT CITY BUSINESS They Make Another Move to Secure Electric Lights for the City.

Mayor Kuck presided at the council meeting last night and Councilmen Keller, Clough, Johns, Gunning, Stephens, Johnston, Shackelford and Michelbach were present.

In the matter of the application of the police patrol to be admitted into the fire department, which had heretofore been referred to the committee on fire and water, they reported not yet ready to give in report and were allowed further time.

On motion of Gunning, the fire and water committee were authorized and directed to purchase the necessary hose menders and nozzels as are now required by the department.

The recorder was instructed to advertise for bids for grading and opening up Federal street from Alvord to Clay Judiciary committee recommended Ninth street, The Dalles. Address that deeds be assued by the city to C. L. Phillips and B. A. Gifford in accordance | a26-w1m with their applications.

Another move in the direction of securing electric lights was then made, when on motion of Johns, the select committee on electric lights was instructed to try and obtain a contract from the Electric Light company at reasonable
