Pease & Mays.

It may seem strange to those accustomed to the usual way of doing things to talk about reductions at the beginning of the season. Nevertheless Saturday next brings to our customers a chance to buy goods for less than we have sold before.

The Clothing Department is Right in line—wide open and ready for business; ready to save you the nickels that go to make up the Almighty Dollars. For one day only we will give a reduction in this department of 15 per cent. off

and you can never realize the purchasing power of money till you visit us. Nowhere else in the country can you buy as good value as you can of us. You are standing in your own light if you pass us by. We do not want your money unless we can give you satisfaction for it. No "hot time in the old town" these nights, but Saturday there'll be a warm time in the daytime at our store when the crowds rush for the bargains.

A Few Words About Hatology.

We have placed on this sale the most popular and best Hats of the season—Roeloffs and Manhattan Hats.

Be on hand tonight (Friday) Sept. 15th. At the Hook and Ladder boys' dance. Feed rye for sale at the Wasco Warehouse. Don't forget the sale of Flannel Populaire at Pease & Mays. Twenty-five yards for $1 is remarkable. Saturday's sale. See Pease and Mays. Contentment has one advantage over money; people don't try to borrow it from you.

The West Side, a weekly paper published by E. C. Pentland in Independence, will soon be moved to Dallas.

A social will be given by the members of the U. B. church Friday evening, for the benefit of the poor. All are invited to attend and assist in the commendable work.

No. 1 the "regular" west-bound train will not reach here till 9 o'clock tonight, unless much time is made up, as she is six hours late. A special has however, been put on, which will be here at 4:30.

Has any move been made by Dalles people to assist in putting the road to Prineville by the way of Warm Springs in better condition. We have heard of none, and yet teamsters into the city are constantly agitating it. Lets look it up and see what there is in it.

The intensified feeling regarding the Dreyfus case was demonstrated last night when a resident of our city became so enthusiastic in his demonstrations on the corner of Third and Court streets that he was arrested for disturbing the peace and fined $5 this morning. He pleaded guilty and paid the fine for his undue excitement.

Those who attend the Hook and Ladder party tonight at the Vogt will bear in mind that the entrance will be at the rear of the hall. Any who may have failed to secure tickets may procure them at the door at $1 a piece. No doubt a large number will be present.

Yesterday morning Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Shurtie passed through the city on their way to Hood River from a wedding trip to Spokane. Mr. Shurtie is a member of the firm of Shurtie & Weir, of Arlington, and his bride was the widow of the late Rev. G. W. Barnhart. They were married at Spokane on the 7th.

Saturday the 16th doesn't mean all month, but means one day. Flannel Populaire at Pease & Mays.

Miss Taylor's kindergarten started out with bright prospects this week, a large number of little ones being in attendance. It is a pleasure to watch the children going and coming perfectly happy in the prospect of school, which the kindergartners have made most attractive by the methods of teaching adopted.

The scare about the crops being badly hurt seems to have been all scare. One farmer near Centerville who had calculated and brought sacks for a twenty-bushel crop found himself under the necessity of hustling sacks for an additional forty bushels, his wheat yielding forty bushels to the acre.—Golden-dale Sentinel.

A letter received by friends from Chas. Johnson, who is at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, says that he is now able to sit up, but that it will be at least two weeks before he will be able to be about the building. His Dalles friends are pleased to learn that Mr. Johnson is improving and will be glad when they can again welcome him home.

It is said the United States has 4,000,000 working women. Surely this must refer to those whose work calls them away from home duties; for how much that number would be augmented did it include the working women whose "work is never done," and whom we could not dispense with half so well as we could with the others, although it seems that both classes have become a necessity.

Yesterday morning Judge Bellinger rendered a decision in the case of Augustus Russie, a person of mixed blood, and a voluntary bankrupt, to the effect that Indian lands are fully exempt and excluded by the allotment act from the operation of the bankrupt act. They are not a basis of credit and the Indian may become a bankrupt without surrendering them. The Indian landowner, therefore, is lucky.

About twenty-five of her young friends surprised Miss Edie Fisher last evening by gathering at her home to give her a farewell party before her departure to attend school in Portland. She did not expect them, but they were none the less welcome, and the hours were very pleasantly spent, dancing being the principal enjoyment. Refreshments were served, and it was about the midnight hour before they bade her good bye and the party broke up.

Howard Ackerman, in company with Doug Langille and two other gentlemen, made the ascent of Mt. Hood last Friday. The thousand-foot life line is buried under ten feet of snow, thus making the ascent more difficult, and many times it was necessary for the guide to cut steps in the ice with his hatchet. The atmosphere being free from clouds and smoke enabled the party to obtain a splendid view. This was Dog's 52nd trip to the top of Mt. Hood.—Glacier.

Opening of the fall and winter millinery at the Campbell & Wilson Millinery Parlors from Tuesday to Saturday inclusive, Sept. 19th to 25th, '99. On this occasion will be shown the most stylish and complete line of millinery ever displayed in The Dalles. Good values in street hats, dress hats, children's school hats, also baby bonnets.

A mission band has been organized among the children of the Calvary Baptist Sunday school, and they invite their friends to a literary and musical entertainment which they will give this evening at the church. No admission will be charged, but all will have an opportunity to contribute toward their work as a collection will be taken.

When Supt. Ackerman was visiting institutes throughout Eastern Oregon, in company with Prof. Durrette, of Condon, he made the trip from Condon to Fossil, being driven over by Ed Nelson, a livery man of that place. Bro. Stewart, of the Journal, evidently got matters mixed, and the joke on the educators is that his paper came out with the following: "Ed Nelson, perhaps the best known livery man in Oregon, brought a load of sports over from Condon to make hay while the sun shone here this week. They returned Thursday."

That Spokane has gained the prominence it has as a business center and an all-alive city, is in a measure due to the efforts of one of the best and most ably edited papers in the United States—the Spokesman-Review. Recently the paper has published a quarterly containing the story of "A Million Dollar Check," and also other true treasure tales. It is devoted principally to the mining interests of Washington and Idaho. The cover, which is lithographed, is a splendid work of art, novel in design and complete in every way. The quarterly, which is published every ninety days, is filled with beautiful photographs, descriptive of mining interests, accompanied by reading matter calculated to give one a good idea of the wealth of that section. It also has many views of Spokane and the surrounding scenery, not entirely slighting Oregon, which makes it a nice ornament to a library. Spokane speaks for itself if any one has the opportunity to visit the city; but such publications will do much to advertise it and the surrounding country abroad.

Why It Didn't Suit Her.

"No," said the widow of the waiter, addressing the tombstone man. "I will not accept this monument. I do not care to advertise my poor, dear Henry's business over his grave."

"Why, madam," the man asked, "what's wrong with the stone? It's one of the best we have in stock for the price."

"I don't care," she declared, "I won't have it, with that lamb on top and under it them words: 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.' A person might think he had just taken an order for a mutton chop."

BEFORE THE PUBLIC GAZE.

Everybody's Face Appears in the Newspapers—A Foolish Practice.

To be "in it" nowadays one must procure a cut of themselves and have it published in some newspaper, and in nine cases out of ten their best friends won't recognize them any more than if it had been Aguirre. But you must appear in the paper, either as a "society" woman, a postmaster or postmistress, an amateur actor or actress, a leading member of the A. B. Cs, X. Y. Zs or any old thing, just so you get your "phys" before the public gaze. There are some people who are really of enough importance for the public to have a care to see their pictures displayed in the newspaper; but why a woman should wish to have her likeness placed before the public gaze because she is a leader of society in some 2x4 or even 200x400 town, is beyond our ken. We fail to see that there is any particular honor attached to such a distinction. And yet the women are foremost in this new newspaper departure.

Not that it is not commendable for any woman to make everyone about her as happy as possible by entertaining them in her best manner and so adding to their pleasure; but is that sufficient reason for sending her photograph into the homes all over the state as some one of public interest? Had she founded an asylum, a home for the poor, or been a public benefactor, then there were sufficient reasons for such proceedings; but such women are not the ones to desire publicity. Or even if in the every day walks of life she has carried a basket of clothing, fruit, or any gift of charity to those in distress she were more worthy. Or were she struggling against poverty to support a family of little ones or to make her fireside the place where the most attractive society for the boys and girls is found, then were she more worthy of the commendation of the public.

But such faces are not the kind one is most likely to find in print, although occasionally one creeps in who is not noted as a "society leader" but a benefactor. True faces are engraven on our memory and in the hearts of those with whom they come in contact.

Monument Fund Entertainment.

Little has been done in The Dalles toward the soldiers' monument fund, and the CHRONICLE is more than pleased to see that the little ones are setting an example worthy of emulation. Like the widow's mite, the money raised by the children is really more than the large sums given by those who have an abundance. Beside the effect of such efforts upon the children is wholesome and will tell in their character in after years. They should be encouraged by the presence of all their friends.

We refer to an entertainment which will be given at the home of Genevieve Fish, by the children of the neighborhood, tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. The proceeds will be sent to swell the monument fund, and an admission of 15 cents will be charged the "big" folks, while children under 14 will be admitted for 5 cents.
