

DREYFUS TO BE PARDONED SOON

Statement of Government Commissioner of Court-Martial.

EVERYBODY IS TIRED OF CASE

In Any Event, Dreyfus Will Not Have To Go Through a Second Degradation—New York Has Decided Not to Hold a Mass Meeting to Denounce the Verdict.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—A dispatch to the World from Paris says that Commandant Carriere, government commissioner of the Dreyfus court-martial at Rennes, has said in an interview: "Dreyfus is certain to be pardoned very shortly. Everybody wants to get rid of the Dreyfus case, soldiers more than anybody else. In any case Dreyfus will not have to go through a second degradation, of that I am certain."

New York Will Not Protest.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—There will be no mass meeting in this city to protest against the condemnation of Dreyfus. Efforts were made to arrange such a gathering, but the men who were asked to take a leading part declined to do so, and expressed the opinion that the movement was a mistake. Consequently the promoters of the affair decided to abandon the idea.

It became evident that there is very little basis for the talk of boycotting the Paris exposition because of the second verdict against Dreyfus. Representative men expressed the view that the entire French nation should not be condemned because of the action of a military clique and that the feeling aroused by the Dreyfus verdict should not be allowed to interfere with the exposition.

"I think that agitation tending to arouse bitterness between this country and France because of the Dreyfus trial places us in rather a ridiculous position," said Cornelius N. Bliss. "My opinion, like that of most other Americans, is that a great injustice has been done, but talk of boycotting the Paris exposition because of it is foolish."

"We should pay no attention whatever to the Dreyfus case," said former Major William Strong. "That is a matter of their own, and what the judges have decided should not interfere with the exposition in any way."

"My first thought when I heard of the verdict was that we ought to retaliate on the exposition," said Frank S. Gardiner, secretary of the board of trade and transportation, "but after all, the exposition is a business matter, and our merchants are to show goods there for their own benefit rather than that of France. Therefore it would be foolish to hold back."

Sheep Must Leave Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Secretary Hitchcock has refused to extend the time for grazing on the Rainier reserve beyond September 25. He told Senator Foster that all sheep must be moved off after that date.

Citizens of Cowlitz county, Washington, protest against part of that county being included in the proposed reservation. Representative Cushman filed the protest with Commissioner Hermann, who says the matter will not be concluded until after an investigation and report. Cushman left for home tonight.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can

WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA

A Prominent Virginia Editor Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Read His Editorial.

From the Times, Hillsville, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. CLUNG TO CAPSIZED BOAT

Fisherman's Dreadful Experience Off Long Beach.

LONG BEACH, Wash., Sept. 13.—Yesterday, about 7 o'clock a. m., a fishing boat with a man in charge was sighted about a mile off shore at Long Beach. The wind was mild, and he was sailing along making good progress. About 11:30 the wind changed to the northwest, and was too strong for him to make any headway, so he sailed back toward the Columbia bar. Seeing that he could not make it in by night, or the bar was too rough, he sighted a vessel and started on to catch it, as no other assistance was in sight. He expected to obtain some assistance from the vessel, but was doomed to disappointment.

He sailed around until 8 o'clock, when a very strong wind came up and capsized his boat, and the poor man hung to his craft until 5 o'clock this morning. As his boat capsized the anchor held it just outside the surf, and he hung on until 4:30, when the anchor let the boat come ashore.

The man was washed away from his boat several times, but managed to get back. As he was washed in, Postmaster English's son, Henry, was on the shore, waiting to render assistance, and as soon as the boat was near enough the boy went to the beach since 4 o'clock in the morning.

The boy took the rescued man home with him and gave him dry clothes, warm food and a bed, and the shipwrecked man soon recovered. He had started from Astoria for Gray's harbor. Henry English deserves great credit for his work in saving the life of the distressed fisherman.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters'; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Robbed and Murdered.

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 14.—Sheriff Cole received a telegram tonight from Fairfield, this county, reporting that H. Sutton was murdered today near that place and robbed of $200. It is thought that the murdered man was held up by highwaymen. The sheriff and coroner have gone to the scene on a special engine.

LIBERAL OFFER TO AGUINALDO

Remarkable Terms Which Chief of the Tagals Refused.

INDEPENDENCE OR NOTHING

Although Everything Else Would Have Been Granted, Naught but Self-Government Would Do—Could Have Had Annuity of $5000 and Support of United States as Leader of the Natives.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—A special to the World from Ithaca, N. Y., says: Your correspondent is able to say on authority that the Schurman peace commission offered every inducement short of absolute self-government to Aguinaldo and his followers. Aguinaldo was promised as the price for the restoration of peace in the Tagal tribe a bonus of more than $5000 a year while the Tagals remained peaceful. He was told that he could choose men from his tribe for the minor municipal offices. The commission went so far as to promise Aguinaldo the moral support of the United States government, if such were needed, to make his leadership of the Tagals thoroughly secure.

With all these inducements, tempting as they must have been, Aguinaldo, as the recognized head of the insurgent movement, declined to yield. He insisted upon immediate self-government, and as his instance was so firm as to make an agreement impossible, the American commissioners ceased negotiations.

President Schurman was frank in telling your correspondent a day or so ago that he favored giving to the various tribes the largest possible measure of home rule at the earliest moment. He thought the several tribes could administer their local affairs, elect their municipal officers, establish courts and penal institutions, etc., but he did not believe it possible to allow the natives to participate in the general government.

"How could they govern the islands, in view of the heterogeneity and multiplicity of the tribes?" he added.

There's always hope while there's One Minute Cough Cure. "An attack of pneumonia left my lungs in bad shape and I was near the first stages of consumption. One Minute Cough Cure completely cured me," writes Helen McHenry, Bismark, N. D. Gives instant relief. Butler Drug Co.
