PEOPLE YOU ALL KNOW.

Chas. Kraemer was a visitor from Rufus yesterday.

Daton Taylor left on the boat this morning for a visit in Portland.

Rev. and Mrs. Hoskins are guests of Mrs. M. Parkins while in the city.

Mrs. Alf Allen and two children spent yesterday in the city, on their way from Portland to Prineville.

Geo. Goodall spent yesterday in The Dalles on his way from La Grande to attend the university at Eugene.

Misses Grace Scott and Elizabeth Schelling returned Saturday afternoon from a week's vacation spent in Portland.

S. Bolton left this morning for Newberg, accompanied by his nephew, Coke Jenkins, whom he will place in school there.

C. A. Whitmore, manager for the Irwin-Hodson Co., is in the city today from Portland in the interest of the company.

Mrs. W. C. Johnson, after spending a few days at the home of O. D. Taylor, near the city, returned this morning to Oregon City.

G. F. Guinther has moved his family to this city from More, in order that his children may have the benefit of our excellent schools.

Miss Daisie Allaway, who has spent her vacation at home, returned this morning to her studies at the state university at Eugene.

Remi Rondeau is in from his home near Kingsley today. He says it will be about two weeks before threshing is completed in his neighborhood.

Mr. E. S. Penfield, who came down from Canyon City a few days since to visit old friends and attend the anniversary services at the Congregational church yesterday, left this morning for California.

Eczema! The Only Cure.

Eczema is more than a skin disease, and no skin remedies can cure it. The doctors are unable to effect a cure, and their mineral mixtures are damaging to the most powerful constitution. The whole trouble is in the blood, and Swift's Specific is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated blood diseases.

Eczema broke out on my daughter, and continued to spread until her head was entirely covered. She was treated by several good doctors, but grew worse, and the dreadful disease spread to her face. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many patent medicines were taken, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished, her head began to heal. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now sixteen years old, and has a magnificent growth of hair. Not a sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned.

Don't expect local applications of soaps and salves to cure Eczema. They reach only the surface, while the disease comes from within. Swift's Specific is the only cure and will reach the most obstinate case. It is far ahead of all similar remedies, because it cures cases which are beyond their reach. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other mineral.

superintendents, spoke in a reminiscent vein. Mr. Brooks, who was superintendent for twenty-five years, and under whose charge the school grew to be the best in the state and renowned for its energy and the excellency of all departments, also spoke of the Sunday school of former years. Mrs. Donnell, one of the first teachers, made a pleasing little talk also.

At 4 o'clock about one hundred attended the communion and memorial service, led by Rev. Poling, assisted by Rev. Gray. Mr. Penfield, the first deacon of the church, delivered an address concerning the communion service.

Mrs. Wilson then read a very touching and beautifully-written paper in memory of the early and later members of the church who have gone to the church triumphant. The subject was handled as only one of Mrs. Wilson's ability and adaptability to such a duty could do.

Mrs. Donnell's memorial in honor of the early and late supporters and helpers of the Sunday school, who were not identified with the church as members, was also a splendid tribute and exceedingly well written. Among others she spoke of the untiring zeal of the late Judge Joe. Wilson in the Sunday school work, and of its success in consequence. Many members of the present Sunday school will remember how as little ones Judge Wilson in his affable pleasant manner taught them to sing the songs such as "Give Said the Little Stream," "Have You Spent a Pleasant Day," and many others which will never be forgotten, and which will keep his memory ever green.

Rev. Poling paid a very touching tribute to the memory of the late J. W. Harris, who was his predecessor, though many years ago, in the church here and also at Albany, and who now rests beneath the sod of the cemetery at the latter place.

An historic service was held in the evening, opening with a praise service led by Prof. Landers. After the responsive reading led by Rev. Gray, and prayer by Rev. Poling, Mr. S. L. Brooks, one of the pillars of the church almost since its organization, read an historical sketch, covering the years since its organization on Sept. 17, 1859, up till 1889. Historical sketches though interesting, usually have a sameness of tone which makes them devoid of spice; but this was an exception, for Mr. Brooks' article was interspersed with eloquence and pithy sayings, which added variety. Being so closely allied with every interest of the church for so many years he was in a position to bring out every detail in connection with the past, and is not one who fails to retain anything of interest. His paper was so much enjoyed and considered of so much interest that the CHRONICLE hopes to publish it in the near future.

At the close of his address Rev. Poling called on Rev. Gray, who made a very pleasing, though short address, speaking of the pleasure he felt in meeting wherever he chances to be, people who speak kindly of the church here. In closing his remarks he paid a high tribute to Rev. W. C. Curtis, who preceded Mr. Poling, speaking of his wonderful ability, perhaps the most able man of all who were accustomed to meet in the conference sessions; also of his lasting work in this place; work which cannot fail to leave its imprint throughout eternity. Rev. Poling then seconded his remarks, intensifying them and telling of the good which he as pastor recognizes as the result of Mr. Curtis' work here. He said he felt gratified to be privileged to stand within the shadow of such a man as was his predecessor.

The singing during the day's exercises was very beautiful and appropriate. Altogether it was a day of days to the Congregational society here.
