Rupture

W. T. Houser, M. D., of Portland, specialist in Hernia or Rupture, Varicocele and Hydrocele, will visit The Dalles and can be consulted at the Umattilla House from September 25 to 30 inclusive. We cure by Electricity, without laying patients up or detention from business, and absolutely without danger. Would refer those interested in being cured to C. J. Stubling, of The Dalles, who knows of our method.

From a G. A. R. Man

"My attack of miller's Asthma was very bad. I was afraid to lie down at night for fear of smothering. I couldn't get my breath. No matter if all the doors and windows in the house were open, it seemed as if there was no air and that I must surely smother to death. Mr. W. B. Long, of this city, called my attention to Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. I thought little of it but bought a bottle in the hopes that it might help me a little. It gave me wonderful relief, and the second bottle cured me completely. My recovery is permanent, too, for ever since I have not had the slightest return of my old enemy. I consider Acker's English Remedy by long odds the best medicine in the world for hacking coughs, asthma and bronchitis. It completely masters those stubborn diseases that many people wrongly suppose to be incurable. If sufferers will just try a single bottle, it will prove every word I have said, and more too." (Signed.)

EARLY HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

menced work in this church as its recognized pastor. Shortly after his arrival, the church people found it necessary that a parsonage should be provided for the pastor, and steps were taken to that end. In the spring following, a contract was let and a good residence built at a cost of about $1100. A few years after Rev. Gray arrived it was found that the old edifice would have to be repaired at a considerable cost, or a new one built. Mr. Gray ascertained that Mr. O. S. Savage would sell two lots off the property on which he lived for $3000. At a meeting of the board of trustees it was decided to close the purchase which could be made on very favorable terms. The title having been acquired, plans were examined and finally one was adopted for a house that had a seating capacity of about 400.

Mr. Gray's ministry was a very successful one. During his pastorate the church flourished and "grew like the cedars of Lebanon." His excellent wife took her place in the Sunday school as a teacher. If the prayer meetings were taken to a leader in the singing, Mr. or Mrs. Gray filled the place. The prayer meetings were generally well attended, and were always an evidence of the spiritual growth of the membership. Mr. Gray's pastorate was unfortunately brought to a close in July, 1887, by a partial paralysis of the vocal cords, to the deep regret of the church and people.

November 7th Rev. R. V. Hoyt, of Cheney, Wash., having received and accepted a call from the church, filled the pulpit for one year, after which Rev. W. C. Curtis, of Richmond, Maine, having been called April 18, 1888, to the pastorate, came out at an early date and began a faithful ministry. A very short time after his arrival, on the 2nd of September, 1882, a disastrous fire with other losses destroyed the old church, and many a sigh was made as the old bell struck one in its fall, as a parting knell to its perishing home. Tender were the memories that clustered around that old sacred edifice. It was there that many plighted their marriage vows before its altar; and it was there that many were born into the kingdom of our Master; it was from there that some of its faithful members and loved ones were borne out through its portals to the Silent City.

The society being left roofless fell back onto first principles, though not in the old court room, but the new. In this room the church worshipped until January 27, 1889, at which time the new and beautiful church edifice, erected upon the property purchased of the late Judge O. S. Savage, was dedicated. This magnificent building was built by contract. The specifications providing for art glass windows, inside finished in wood color, and seated as this audience room is today. The furnishings were neat, the entire rooms being carpeted with ingrain carpet, and a hundred chairs for the annex, costing, including grounds, $12,000. The lectern, made and presented to the old church Christmas morn, by Deacon Samuel L. Brooks, was saved from the burning buildings of 1889 and 1891. This new house was built and completed, lighted and furnished throughout, and dedicated in October, 1892.

Great honor and praise is due the first building committee, who had the herculean task of raising the funds, procuring grounds and building the First Congregational church building in a town whose morals were far from the ways of truth and righteousness. In referring to these gentlemen, Mr. H. P. Isaacs is living in Walla Walla, I believe, and is a very prominent man of Eastern Washington. He owns extensive flouring mills in his city, and also in the thriving little town of Wasco. The other two, Messrs. Andrew Clark and J. M. McKee, have long since gone to receive their great reward.

A WORLD OF TROUBLE.

What Gave the Economical Apartment House Manager a Case of the Blues.

The manager of the apartment house, a well-fed, well-dressed, well-dressed man, was standing in the main doorway of his establishment, which, by the way, is owned by an out-of-town capitalist, who is not the most generous provider in the world and insists upon the hat being conducted upon the most economical lines. The manager was not happy, however fair he may have appeared to the eye, and he heaved a long-drawn sigh as a friend approached and greeted him, says the Chicago Chronicle.

"What's wrong?" inquired the newcomer.
 "Oh, we've all got our troubles," was the vague and lugubrious reply.

"You oughtn't to have any."
 "But I have, just the same."
 "What, for instance?"

"Well, I'm worried sick because I haven't got an elevator boy."

"There shouldn't be any difficulty in removing that trouble, I should say."

"There is. I've tried 40 and can't get one to suit."

"You must be very hard to please."

"It isn't that," sighed the manager.

"I'm all right, but it's this way. The old man insists on having the elevator boy wear a uniform and he furnishes it. Uniforms cost money, and when the last boy retired he left a brand-new uniform, and the old man won't get another. That's the rub. I can find plenty of boys of sufficient intelligence, ample experience, industrious habits, good moral character and fine address, but I'll be darned if I can get one that the uniform will fit, and there you have it. Now what the dickens am I to do? Ain't that enough trouble for any one man?"

Fried Stuffed Eggs.

Boil eggs 20 minutes; put them immediately into cold water; when cold remove the shell; cut them in half lengthwise; carefully remove the yolk; rub them very smooth. To six boiled eggs add one teaspoonful of melted butter, one and a half tablespoonfuls of very finely chopped ham or tongue, salt and pepper; fill the hollow of each white, having the surface level; press one half to another; dip in egg, then in crumbs, then in egg, then in crumbs again; fry in hot, deep fat; remove, drain on a piece of paper, arrange on a hot platter; serve with cream sauce made with one tablespoonful of butter melted, one of flour; cook together; add one cup of milk, salt and pepper; let it boil five minutes.—Chicago Times-Herald.
