Zola Says That Dreyfus Will Be Vindicated.

STRUGGLE WILL GO ON

Honor of France Before the World Is at Stake—His Defenders Will Exact Rehabilitation of the Condemned Less for His Sake Than for the Sake of France.

New York, Sept. 22.—The Journal and Advertiser prints a dispatch from Paris giving the full text of Emile Zola's letter, a portion of which is as follows: "Dear Madame: Your husband and those who defended him have been exposed to the vilest insults, and even to bodily insults. For my part, these are organs belonging to the 'gutter press' and men so tainted with moral dirt that I have struck them from my life, from my memory. For me they are no more. I have driven them as completely from my thoughts as if I never had swallowed them. It is such forgetfulness of atrocious insults that I recommend to the innocent man who has suffered the wrongs. He is so much apart, so far above them all that they should not be able to reach him. May he come to life again, under your care, and under the clear sunshine of universal sympathy shown for him. Peace be to the martyr who has such need of repose, and around him now in retreat may there be nothing but love and caresses. As for us, madame, we shall continue to fight. We shall tomorrow go on with the struggle for justice just as sternly as we pursued it yesterday. We shall exact rehabilitation of the innocent less for the sake of him, who has already so much glory, than for France, which would assuredly be killed by this excess of infamy. Our task will be the regeneration of France in the eyes of the universe, which will take place when the infamous judgment has been quashed. A great country cannot live without justice, and ours will remain in mourning just as long as the stain is leveled at the highest jurisdiction and the violation of the primitive rights shall remain. "The social fabric crumbles when the guarantee of law no longer exists, and there is in this violation of right such an element of insolence, bravado and impudence that we cannot ignore it. We cannot bury a body secretly without showing our shame to our neighbors. The whole world has seen and heard, and it is before the whole world that reparation should take place. To desire a France without honor is criminal."

CRIME OF A JEALOUS MAN

Killed His Wife, His Brother and Then Himself.

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 21.—Under the brow of a hill a few hundred yards from the state penitentiary, a triple tragedy took place between 2 and 3 o'clock this afternoon, resulting in the death of one woman and two men. It was one of the most terrible crimes ever committed in this city.

O. B. Byland arrived here yesterday from Pomeroy, Wash., in search of his wife, who, at the instance of her mother, Mrs. Kilgore, had deserted him. She came several weeks ago, since which time she has been living with her mother and Grant Byland, a brother of O. B. Byland. The latter learned of the situation, and in a fit of jealousy and hatred he determined to kill them all.

He procured a pistol, and went quietly to the house where his wife and brother were. Upon being refused admittance, he shot his brother through the heart, who ran out of the house and dropped dead.

Not finding Mrs. Kilgore, he turned on his wife, whom he chased into the vacant lot back of the house. When a short distance behind her he shot her in the back. Although bleeding and weakened from the wound, she arose from the ground, and a terrible struggle ensued between husband and wife. For several minutes they zigzagged over the lot, he shooting and striking while she made a desperate attempt to wrench the pistol from him. She again fell, and, after shooting her in the face, mutilating it beyond recognition, the husband lay down beside his wife and shot himself, blowing the top of his head off.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Stratsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

GOLDSBORO, Wash., Sept. 21.—James A. McCumber, of Morrow county, Oregon, has purchased the Virginia Crooks-Crawford stock farm, situated on Camas prairie, north of the Clickitat river. Mr. McCumber expects to engage in the cattle business. He will raise alfalfa on 100 acres of his new purchase. He has water in abundance, which he can utilize for irrigation purposes.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Otis Becomes a Catholic. NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Apropos of the charges of vandalism in Catholic churches in the Philippines by American soldiers, a correspondent of the Times calls attention to the fact that in a recently published book issued by a Paulist father a list is given of "American Converts from Protestantism," in which appears the name of Colonel E. S. Otis, United States army.

SAYS THAT OUR HEAD IS TURNED

Goldwin Smith Thinks That Dewey Is Overestimated.

ASKS WHAT DID THE HERO DO

Answers the Question Himself by Saying That He Shot to Pieces at Long Range a Lot of Hulks and a Few Hundred Spaniards.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 22. Goldwin Smith, writing in a local paper, says: "Nothing could show the extent to which the head of Columbia had been turned by the war more than her adoration of the hero Dewey. What did the hero Dewey and his comrades do? They sat in almost perfect safety and destroyed at long range a line of helpless tubs, with some hundreds of the poor Spaniards who manned them, and who alone had any opportunity of showing heroism on the occasion. So perfectly secure did the Americans feel that they adjourned to breakfast in the middle of their sport. There was among them a single casualty, and had they all gone tiger hunting one casualty at least probably would have occurred.

"For this, however, Dewey is declared to be the equal of the great seaman who conquered in the terrible days of Aboukir, Copenhagen, Trafalgar. If he were so inclined he might probably be elected president of the United States.

"Canada cannot possibly take part in the celebration of Dewey's triumphs without an evidence of discourtesy toward Spain, a friendly nation, which has done Canada no wrong. Spain, let it be remembered, though deprived of her possessions in this hemisphere, is still a Mediterranean power, decayed at present, but capable of restoration. The British government will hardly thank the Canadian government for making her an implacable enemy."
