FREE PORTAGE RAILWAY.

The Commercial Club of Lewiston is wide awake and just now is pushing the free-portage railway question with a vigor, and they should receive support all along the line. They say the scheme can be accomplished in one year by the appropriation of $250,000, in addition to $200,000 still remaining of the boat railway appropriation. In what freight alone they claim $1,500,000 per year will be saved. At a recent meeting of the club the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The legislatures of the states of Washington, Oregon and Idaho at their last sessions memorialized the congress of the United States strongly endorsing the movement for the opening of the Columbia and Snake rivers to navigation from the mountains to the ocean; and

WHEREAS, The general navigation of the Columbia and Snake rivers is now entirely prevented by the obstructions in the Columbia at The Dalles and Celilo in Oregon and Washington; and

WHEREAS, The removal of said obstructions will, in the opinion of all parties familiar with the facts, be worth millions of dollars annually to Eastern Washington, Eastern Oregon and all of Idaho, for the reason that (1) the said rivers follow the prevailing lines of trade and transportation, more even than do any other of the greater rivers of the country, and that (2) the vast resources of the section named, known as the Inland Empire, in wheat, live stock, lumber and minerals, require more and cheaper transportation facilities; and

WHEREAS, The proposed ship-railway, or a ship-canal, to overcome said obstructions is an imperative necessity for the welfare of the country; but as the construction of either form of works would cost from $2,500,000 to $4,000,000 and would require many years to complete, and as a portage railway will be essential for use in the construction of such works, and could in the meantime be used by the public for the transfer of freight from steamboat to steamboat around said obstructions, and could easily and cheaply be built and in operation within one year; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the senators and representatives in the congress of the United States, be, and are hereby respectfully petitioned to enact a law at the coming session of congress which shall appropriate the sum of $450,000 (including the sum of approximately $200,000 still remaining in the funds appropriated for the boat-railway) for the immediate construction of said portage railway as a preliminary to the ultimate construction of the boat-railway or ship-canal, and for use meantime by the public to make possible the navigation of the rivers for the cheaper transportation of the products of the interior country, thus developing to a state of maturity the commerce of the rivers in readiness for the full use of the larger work when that shall be completed; and, further, be it

Resolved, That all commercial associations and all municipal and county bodies and commissions in the states interested, be, and are hereby earnestly invited to join in this effort, which if successful would greatly benefit the entire Pacific coast and all the commercial and industrial interests thereof, and that all parties addressed be and are hereby requested to vigorously, earnestly and constantly urge upon their senators and representatives in congress to pass such an act at the next session of congress.

WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA

A Prominent Virginia Editor Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Read His Editorial.

From the Times, Hillsville, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O.
