PEOPLE YOU ALL KNOW.

J. M. Franklin is a visitor from Dayville.

A. R. Wilcox is a visitor from Grass Valley.

H. Lane came up from Hood River yesterday and is spending today in the city.

N. R. Baird, one of Antelope's most prominent men, came in from that berg yesterday.

L. E. Crowe and Grant Mays, in other words Mays & Crowe, went to Portland yesterday.

Rev. J. Moyle, pastor of the Methodist church at Bickleton, spent yesterday in The Dalles.

Freas Sanders, who has been employed at Lyle, came up on the boat Saturday night.

Max Luedeman, of the Antelope Herald, came in from Antelope today on a business trip.

T. H. McGreer and daughter came up from Portland yesterday, and left this morning for their home at Antelope.

Dr. H. A. Sturdevant has returned from his trip to Salem, where he attended the state fair, and is again at his post in his dental office.

Mrs. Wm. Laylock, who has been visiting friends in The Dalles on her return from an eastern trip, left yesterday afternoon for her home at Cascade.

J. C. Mayo, general freight and passenger agent of the Astoria and Columbia, river railroad came up Saturday and is spending a few days here on business.

Mrs. A. S. MacAllister left on yesterday's afternoon train for Portland. She will take the Northern Pacific for Minnesota, where she will spend some time with relatives.

Mrs. Quinn Doane and little daughter came up from Portland Saturday night on the way to their home at Spokane. They are spending a few days with Dr. and Mrs. Doane in this city.

Grand Sachem John Michell returned yesterday afternoon from attending the grand pow wow of Red Men at Washington, D. C. He has been absent about a month and visited Philadelphia, Chicago, Omaha and other cities.

Judge John Fulton and wife, W. A. and Mrs. Murchie, W. H. and Mrs. Biggs and Miss Alice Gilmore, form a party who have been camping at the Wind river hot springs, and are in the city on their way to their homes at Wasco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carlisle left on last night's train for their home in St. Louis. Mrs. Carlisle has been spending some months in this city with her sister, Mrs. H. Logan. They were accompanied home by Miss Minnie Lay, who will spend the winter with them.

Wm. Floyd, who almost a year ago removed from his farm five miles from The Dalles, to Seattle, returned last evening for a short business trip. Mr. Floyd and his family are delighted with their new home. When he left here Mr. Floyd was in poor health, but the change has benefited him wonderfully.

J. P. McInerney and W. H. Butts returned yesterday from their trip into the Antelope country. They found Antelope very busy preparing for next month's fair. The roads are not in such a condition as they were before the wheat teams started to travel them; they are also pretty dusty at present. Mr. Butts says the effect of the rains is very noticeable in the fine fields of summer fallow which they passed along the road.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE of Oregon, for the County of Wasco.
Charles G. L. Benson, plaintiff, vs
Hettie A. Benson, defendant.
To Hettie A. Benson, the above named defendant:
In the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby notified to appear and answer the complaint in the above entitled court and cause on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this notice, to-wit: the 6th day of September, 1899, and if you fail to so appear and answer or otherwise plead, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his complaint herein, to-wit: that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved forever and that plaintiff have judgment against defendant for his costs and disbursements and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and equitable.
This summons is published by virtue of an order made and signed by Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, Judge of the above entitled court, on the 24 day of September, 1899, directing that said summons be published once a week for a period of not less than six consecutive weeks.
FRED. W. WILSON, Attorney for Plaintiff.

NOTICE.

U. S. LAND OFFICE, The Dalles, Ore., July 29, 1899.
Notice is hereby given that the order of December 8, 1894, temporarily withdrawing from disposal, for the purposes of a boat railway, the lands on the south side and within six miles of the Columbia river, between The Dalles and Collio, has been revoked by the president, except as to the following described parcels: one in the NW 1/4 of sec 31, T 2 N, R 15 E, containing about four and one-half acres, and the other in the NW 1/4, sec 21, T 2 N, R 15 E, containing about half an acre.
On and after September 1, 1899, we will receive applications for any vacant lands included therein.

Bled Quarts at a Time

"I am a knife maker and worked for a number of years in the New York Knife Co.'s factory at Walden, N. Y. First thing I knew I commenced to bleed from the mouth. Sometimes as much as a quart of blood would come up from my lungs at a time. Every time I coughed the blood spurted out. It was in this fall I got so bad, and the church people told me I had better make my peace with the Lord and prepare to die, for I would not live till spring. My home doctor couldn't do me any good, but advised me to get to New York City for examination. They finally took me to a medical college, and a whole lot of physicians made what they called a diagnosis. There were several students looking on. One professor had a little ivory hammer, and with this he pounded my chest and held his ear close to listen. After a while the professor looked at me solemnly and declared: 'One of your lungs is about gone and the other is affected. There may be a slim chance for life if you quit working in that knife factory.' I went back home, but didn't improve. One day I saw an advertisement of free samples of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption, being given away by our home druggists, Walker & Eaton. I got one of these bottles, and it relieved me. Then I bought more of the regular size, and my improvement was continuous, although slow. My doctors were astonished and so was I. After dark I hated to spit, because I was afraid it might be blood, and I wanted to know for sure. I have no fear now, for at last I am a solid man again. Although one lung is gone, the other is as sound as a dollar, and answers as well as two lungs, so far as I can see. I want everyone to know the facts and that is why I tell them here." (Signed) A. H. SIMPSON.

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure, 50c. and $1 a bottle in United States and Canada. In England, 1s. 6d., 2s. 6d., and 4s. 6d. We authorize the above guarantee. W. H. HOOKER & CO., Proprietors, New York.
