PREPOSTEROUS.

In the florescent language of the special Bryan press agent, who is trailing the great orator over the Nebraska prairies, the stage at Grand Island "was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting and the likenesses of those greatest of modern Democrats, Abraham Lincoln and W. J. Bryan." We have not been surprised to have Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson held up as Bryan Democrats, or even to have the shade of George Washington brought out to conjure up a resemblance to the Nebraska colonel. In the campaign of 1896 Lincoln was freely quoted and imitated by the silver champion, but the Republicanism of Lincoln was never questioned. To label a portrait of Abraham Lincoln with the signboard of Democracy is an imputation of the honesty and sincerity of the martyred president. If Lincoln was a Democrat what were Douglas, Breckinridge and all the others who ranged themselves against him in the political contests of his day?—Omaha Bee.

This is simply outlandish. We expect to hear next of some local committee decorating the stage where the "Boy orator of the Platt" (a thousand miles long and six inches deep) holds forth with a likeness of the Lowly Nazarene and of Bryan—the greatest of ancient and modern Democrats!

A TROUBLESOME DUTY.

Officers must expect to encounter considerable difficulty in enforcing the curfew ordinance. Not many mothers, it is to be hoped, will be found as depraved as the one who abused the officers for taking a girl under sixteen home from a low dance-hall, saying the girl was old enough to take care of herself; yet there are a good many parents in this city who don't care where their children are or what they do. In such cases the enforcement of the ordinance becomes difficult, yet all practicable efforts to enforce it, in the spirit of its organization and enactment, must be persisted in. A good many children only need a little warning; many parents only need an occasional reminder, to obey the law; and much is thus easily accomplished. As for hardened wretches like the girl and unnatural mother alluded to, a severer law may be found or made to fit their case, and so make examples for the restraint of the incorrigibly vicious and depraved. In one way or another the opportunities for children and youth to indulge in vice and crime must be decreased. The police power of a state or city has no higher duty to perform.—Telegram.

Next to Dewey, Schley was the favorite of the New York crowds; and it was significant that the sailors and marines concurred in that verdict. After Dewey, Schley got their loudest cheers. When the affection of the American people and the enthusiasm of the "men behind the guns" center on an officer of the navy, it's time for the department to take a quiet tip.

A man was adjudged insane recently because of his habit of throwing money out of his window. It seems fair to presume that the complaint against him was not made by those who happened to be below during the shower.

Aguinaldo, weary of being recognized with the rifle, wants recognition in a diplomatic way. He won't get it.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store.

Hunting Accident.

JEFFERSON, Or., Oct. 2—The first accident of the "open season" occurred yesterday. While hunting Mongolian pheasants in a field just north of this city, the gun of Ben Blackwell was accidentally discharged, the entire load striking his brother, James Blackwell, in the right foot. The young man was conveyed to his home and an examination found the bones so badly shattered that amputation of the greater part of the foot was necessary.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Abner McKinley at Tacoma.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 2—Abner McKinley, brother of the president, arrived in this city this morning. It is believed that his visit is directly connected with the growing commercial enterprises which will follow the development of trade with the Philippines. He was cloistered an hour with Senator Foster shortly after his arrival.
