IN MEMORY OF CALEB BROOKS Incidents of His Life Contributed by a Friend.

Caleb Brooks, who died at his home on Three-Mile creek Sept. 22nd, was born in Ohio Sept. 20, 1824, afterwards moving to Iows. From there at the age started across the plains in the year 1849. After journeying as far as the Platt river, his father was taken down with the cholera and die i. Laying him to rest on the tanks of the Platt and turning away from the rad scene, they jou neved on to Oregon, passing through The Dalles when it was only a small supply station for Eastern Oregon. Afterwards estiling in Linn county, Oregon, they rook a homestead twelve Land all good, and easily cleared. In early life Mr. Brooks was given power to become one of the "sons of teeth. God," and it was his earnest ende vor to know and to do the will of his Heaven- house. ly Father. As he was di igent in business, to was be fervent in spirit. He was a devout student of the bible and his life was an illustration of its precepts. Because of his gifts as an ex positor of scripture his friends often urged him to enter the ministry, but the best. Ask your grocer for them. his underestimate of his ability and his ir at reverence for the office of a minister of Jesus the Christ caused him to refuse their suggestions. He did, however, accept the opportunities at the prayer and covenant meetings to tell of the love of God as manifested in Christ,

In the neighborhood Sunday school services he was very much interested, and for many seasons was the superintendent of the school.

Mr. Brooks was a charter member of the First Baptist church of this city and a faithful and efficient deacon thereof to the day of his triumphant death.

His long illness gave opportunity to the remaining sons, Sylvester R. and killed. Roland G. Brooks, and their families to show their filial love by their tender care; and the neighbors were not lacking in their friendly services.

By his own arrangement, the funeral service was held in the meeting house of the First Baptist church on Sunday, Sept. 24th, at 2 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. O. D. Taylor, whom he had loved so well for eighteen years, preached the sermon from First John, iii :2. Pastor Clifton of the Calvary church assisted at the services in the church.

The large concourse of pioneer neighbors and friends that attended his funeral betokened the influence of his life, and gave strong emphasis to the saying, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Hungarian jokes are dangerous. A law professor in the Pressburg university made a jesting remark to a landed proprietor, who did not understand it, and at once thrashed the professor. They, in consequence, fought a duel with pistols, when the professor put a bullet through the squire's head.

LOUBET'S GUARD.

Twenty Private Detectives Attend the French President Day and Night.

The secret force charged to protect the French president is far from scant, and, if he had been willing to keep it to its functions, it might have spared M. Loubet the attack of the other Sunday. It is a force quite apart from that which everybody sees, from the army contingent, the police and the reserve post of the city guard, purposely displayed and serving above all for decoration. This service that nobody sees is composed of 20 persons in permanent service, and of 50 persons when the president travels, to say nothing of a currently reported third service, whose mysterious role is denied by the police All this machinery, which M. Loubet's predecessor kept in constant occupation, seems formidable and complicated in the midst of a republic.

This escort, with consign never to lose sight of him, makes M. Loubet, they say, positively miserable. He escaped from them the other day, and it gave rize to an amusing incident. There was consternation. All the bicycles of the palace were set in motion; there was riding hither and yon, and nearly rousing the city, when M. Loubet was discovered promenading the avenue of the Champs Elysees in quiet conversation with his son. - Cincinnati Enquirer.

Birth Rate in Europe.

Sig. Bodis, a well-known Italian statistician, has published tables showing the order in which the countries of Europe are classed in decreasing series according to their mean birth rate: 1, Russia, in Europe; 2, Hungary; 3, Servia; 4, Roumania; 5, Austria; 6, German empire; 7, Italy; 8, Spain; 9, Finland and Wales; 13, Scotland; 14, Denmark; 15, Norway; 16, Belgium; 17, Sweden; 18, Switzerland; 19, Greece; 20, France; 21, Ireland. It will thus be observed that Russia has the largest percentage of births and France and Ireland have the smallest .- Medical Record.
