AN ADVANCE ON MALABON

Americans Start North From Imus and Bacoor.

GEN. LAWTON IN COMMAND

Aguinaldo Quotes Edward Atkinson in His Latest Proclamation—Tennessee Volunteers Return.

MANILA, Oct. 8, 10 a. m.—The advance from Imus and Bacoor toward Malabon and Old Cavite began early this morning. General Lawton was in command.

The Tennessee regiment, the last of the volunteers will sail for the United States today on the transport Indiana, after a week passed in the harbor.

Aguinaldo Quotes Atkinson.

Aguinaldo, in a proclamation announc- ing the release of American prisoners and authorizing Filipino soldiers in the northern province to return to their homes, says:

"In America there is a great party that insists that the government recog- nize Filipino independence. That party will compel the United States to fulfill the promises made to us in all solemnity and good faith, though not put into writing.

"Therefore we must show our gratitude and maintain our position more resolute- ly than ever. We should pray to God that the great Democratic party may win the next presidential election and imperialism fail in its mad attempt to subjugate us by force of arms. There are some Americans in the Philippines who have joined us because they dis- approve a war of what Mr. Atkinson calls criminal aggression. When offered a chance to return to their own camp, they declined."

Throughout the proclamation Agu-inaldo denounces the "imperialists" in- stead of the "Americans," as in former documents. He calls the world to wit- ness that the Filipinos have not broken "the alliance made through Admiral Dewey with the Americans and with the American consuls at Hong Kong and Singapore." The people, on seeing the American prisoners, cried out: "We do not want war against the United States; we only defend our independence against the imperialists. The sons of that mighty nation are our friends."

Complaints From Sheepmen.

PENDLETON, Oct. 6.—Some rather hard feelings have been engendered among the Umatilla county sheepmen by what they term the injustice of having sheep- men from another state come into their territory and range their bands during the summer season, and thus depriving local owners of plenty of feed. So closely have the ranges been hunted out all through the livestock regions of Oregon and Washington of late years that legis- latures in the two states have been im- portuned to pass restrictive measures calculated to prevent the bringing of sheep from one state into the other. Laws have been enacted by the legisla- tures of both states, in response to this popular demand, which have made it somewhat burdensome to move sheep from one state to another.

In this instance, the quarantine laws in force in Oregon, to regulate the hand- ling of sheep, have been invoked by local sheepmen, to hinder Washington men from the free and easy use of the range here.

On the other hand, Oregon men claim that like laws have been passed by the Washington legislature, the operation of which tends to hamper Oregon owners in moving there.

Gillnetters More Active.

ASTORIA, Oct. 7.—The run of fish last night showed no improvement over the past few days, but the rise in price to two and a half cents, which all the cold storage men are now paying, caused many more gillnetters to put their nets in the water. Word was received here today that there was a good run of silversides at Grav's harbor, and the price there is 20 to 25 cents per fish.

New Gold Vein Found.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Oct. 7.—The Riverside Gold Mining Company, of Bo- hemia, has found a new vein on its prop- erty, that shows free gold. The vein has been traced 1000 feet. This property has considerable development work done on the other vein, the ore assaying as high as $300 per ton.

Jack Morgan, an old miner and prospector, while doing the assessment work on his property, unearthed a large body of ore, that shows free gold. The gold is fine, and the quartz is of honey- comb character. On many other prop- erties large bodies of high-grade ore have been struck in the last two weeks in con- tinuous development and assessment work.

ELECTRIC SIGNALS.

Philadelphians Set Their Time- pieces by Flash Lights.

Unique System by Which the City of Brotherly Love Keeps Posi- tion on the Correct Time.

A useful plan that might be tried ad- vantageously in many smaller places has just been adopted in Philadelphia. In Washington, at the naval observa- tory, there is a clock which supplies exact time to most of the large cities east of the Mississippi once every day. Just before noon its pendulum is connected with an electric circuit in such a way that it ticks off seconds on all telegraph- ic instruments on the line. Then, about one minute before 12, the ticking is sus- pended, and every listener along the line watches for the resumption, which occurs exactly at noon. In some cases a bell is struck once precisely at 12. By noting how many seconds fast or slow one's watch is at the sound, a man can set his timepiece by the best standard in the United States.

The observatory clock is kept right to within a small fraction of a second, and varies from day to day only a few hun- dredths of a second. Many railroads, colleges, astronomical observatories and other institutions all over the coun- try get their time corrected in this manner daily. In New York city the West- ern union furnishes the public with a noonday signal, by means of which peo- ple who are on the street near the main office can get the correct time. On top of their building a ball is arranged on a pole so that it can be liberated auto- matically by electricity when the noon signal comes from Washington. Any- one who is watching can see the ball drop.

Now, in Philadelphia the plan has been modified a little, so as to operate in the evening instead of the daytime. And the signal is given by turning on a lot of electric lights that have been tem- porarily extinguished. A row of arc lights on the new city hall around the statue of Franklin are kept burning until about 8:57 o'clock. Then they are shut off. Exactly at nine o'clock they flash up into view once more. It is hoped that eventually the turning on may be effected by an automatic device. But at present it is done by hand, at the instant a telegraphic signal is heard.

There are many towns and villages in the country that might profitably imi- tate Philadelphia. If the local authori- ties do not undertake this time service, some enterprising merchant could ad- vantageously advertise himself by fur- nishing either a day signal like that in New York, or one at night like that which the City of Brotherly Love has adopted. It is astonishing how much inaccuracy there is in the clocks and watches that supply people with time. It is not at all uncommon to see clocks five, ten or even 15 minutes out of the way in the homes of persons who are usually accurate in other matters. They do not attempt to set their timepieces right for days or weeks at a time, and then guess at the time by the whistle of a passing railway train, which may be several minutes behind time. The moral effect of having one's timepiece correct, and of keeping one's engage- ments on the very minute, is too great to be overlooked. Anyone who fur- nishes a town with Washington time daily would be conferring a double blessing on the community. — N. Y. Tribune.

New Werner Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica

This is the only encyclopaedia on the market that mentions Admiral Dewey. It gives the date of his birth; how he spent his boyhood days; the part he took in the Civil War; how after the War he was employed on the European station; in the Naval Academy; his rise to the rank of Commander and President of the Board of Inspection and Survey; his command of the Asiatic Squadron; how on April 27th he left Hong Kong with his squadron, found and destroyed the Spanish Fleet, at Manila, on May 1st; his appointment as Acting Rear Ad- miral, the honors he received from Congress, and how on March 2nd, 1899, he was created full Ad- miral. It speaks of him as a strict disciplinarian, an all-around athlete, a daring horseman and huntsman, and socially a good club man and a general favorite. It tells of his marriage to Miss Susy Goodwin, a daughter of the "fighting gov- ernor" of New Hampshire, who died in 1872, leav- ing a son, George Goodwin Dewey.
