

The elegantly appressed man has much the better chance of success in this world over his poorly clad brother. We are still living in an age so thoroughly impressionist that people do take their impressions from the men they meet largely.

You should dress well, no matter what your position in life may be.

The tailors from whom we buy our fine clothing have solved the problem for those who have slender purses. Fine clothes here do not mean high prices. You can get a suit or overcoat here, equal to any which you can get made to measure at double the price, we ask $15. Finer grades, but not more serviceable, all the way up to $25, and your money back if you are dissatisfied with your purchase. That alone is more than any tailor will do.

A. M. WILLIAMS & COMPANY, THE DALLES, OREGON.

Our Fall Assortment of

Suits, Overcoats and Ulsters

for Men and Boys is complete

The advent of the Fall Season finds us unusually well prepared with a magnificent stock of clothing. The new styles are—many of them—radically different from those of last fall and winter, while we have endeavored in the selection of this season's stock to meet the popular price demand. No single garment in our stock, no matter how low its price, has been permitted to have a place on our counters, unless it embodies proper style and satisfactory serviceability. Furthermore, Every Garment that leaves our store Must Fit.

Only Price talks to some men

Many of them do not talk enough of the reputation of the firm offering price bargains. They do not realize that quality is more important than price, for if a garment wears out too quickly the cost will be forgotten when the memory of its unsatisfactory service will remain.

Therefore we say, buy as cheaply as you can, certainly, but consider quality in making purchases as well as price. We built our business by stating facts.
