TROOPS IN THE COEUR D'ALENES

Ed. Boyce, his lieutenants and their sympathizers, want the troops taken out of the Coeur d'Alenes. Boyce has promised his followers that he will have every blue-coat removed, and to bear out that promise is exerting all the influences suggested to his scheming brain.

The Spokesman-Review says: Boyce wants the troops removed because they are a guarantee of law, order and the sacred rights of American citizenship. Their presence interferes with his regime. So long as they stand guard with the flag and uniform and arms of the United States, his followers can not terrorize law-abiding people. They can not move up and down Canyon creek with rifles and dynamite. They must not blow up mills, murder their opponents, run inoffending people out of the country and terrorize women and children.

The tactics employed now by the dynamiters are the tactics they employed with success after the disastrous riots of 1892. Far-seeing people saw then that a permanent military post ought to be established in the Coeur d'Alenes, and General Carlin, who then commanded the military in that section, recommended a site for such post. If that plan had been adopted the Coeur d'Alene troubles would have been over. The district would have been saved years of terrorism. Murdered men would be alive today—notably Kneebone and Whitney. Kneebone was slain in cold blood by masked "avengers," for no other reason than his appearance on the witness stand. After the riots of 1892 Webb Leasure and others were tried at Rathdrum as ringleaders in the frightful crimes on Canyon creek. Kneebone gave indiscriminating testimony. "I saw Breen, Leasure and Dallas in the hall," he said on the stand. "Leasure was armed. Breen held a flag of truce out of the window. The Gem guards not responding, Breen remarked, 'Guess we will have to give them a little giant, the same as we did at the Frisco.'" Kneebone testified further that he saw the rioters put boxes of dynamite into the penstock of the Frisco mill.

Kneebone was a brave man, but courage is a poor defense against murderers who hide behind masks and shoot honest men in the back.

Boyce and his followers want their murderous reign restored in the Coeur d'Alenes. To that end they desire the removal of the troops. And to that end they make false statements to law-abiding labor organizations and smooth threats to trucking politicians who are imagined to have "influence" with the war department.

SHOULD ASSERT ITS RIGHTS.

Eastern Oregon has played second-fiddle to Western Oregon politically long enough, and the time has arrived for the Republicans of this part of the state to assert their rights and see to it that Eastern Oregon is given the next United States senator. The required ability is here and the Republicans of Eastern Oregon should get in line harmoniously and make a fight for recognition. The East Oregonian sensibly observes:

"The next United States senator from Oregon should come from Eastern Oregon. Western Oregon is not 'the whole thing' in Oregon and should not be allowed to monopolize all the representative offices as well as most of the others. An Eastern Oregon senator is a need that should be supplied. Eastern Oregon is entitled to be represented in congress, and by a senator, too. There is plenty of good Republican timber in Eastern Oregon with which to fill the office, and there should be no hesitancy on the part of Eastern Oregon Republicans to proclaim this fact from the housetops and the hill-tops of the Inland Empire."—Democrat.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Clarke & Falk have a full and complete line of house, carriage, wagon and barn paints manufactured by James E. Patton, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
