A GREAT INDUSTRY.

A Houston, Texas, mill man has been almost paralyzed by the receipt of an enquiry from the city of Mexico for the billion feet of lumber, more stuff than is to be found today in all the yards of Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas, equivalent to the output of three hundred mills for seven months. But the Texas man is not to be bluffed. He is making arrangements to negotiate for the whole order. That shows two things: The magnitude of the lumber interests of the South and the nerve of the Southern lumberman.—Mobile Register.

The Texas man can fill the order, and plenty more like it, in Oregon, if he will put up the mills, says the Statesman. Here, in the Cascades and in the Coast range of mountains, are virgin forests that will make lumber by the billion feet—and good lumber; better for most purposes than can be found in the South.

There is bound to be great activity in the Oregon lumber business, and that in the near future. Its development has only just begun. The big railroads of the East, and other Eastern consumers of lumber, have scarcely yet learned of the excellence of quality and the abundance of the supply. They are taking all of it they can get, and they will take more as fast as the mills are put up to saw it.

Descendants of the Dutch who settled in what is now New York held a meeting there the other night and adopted resolutions of sympathy with the descendants of Dutch settlers in South Africa, calling on President McKinley to protect them against the aggressions of the English. The Philadelphia Times, commenting on this incident, says: "The members of the Holland society are all right in theory, but the logic of history is against them. They are themselves living examples of the general proposition that when English and Dutch get in one territory, the English will get on top. The Dutch in New Amsterdam were there by right, and very good people they were. But the English were too many for them and New York became an English colony. And the Dutch that remained there were better off for the change. Though the situation is not in all respects parallel, there is an obvious analogy in the case of the Boers, except that the latter are by no means the equals of the energetic ancestors of the Holland society, and much less able to stand in the way of the expansion of English influence."

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Double Train Service to San Francisco.

On October 15th the Southern Pacific Co. will inaugurate a "Daylight Express," leaving Portland at 8:30 a. m., and reaching San Francisco at 7:45 next evening—only one night out. Both standard Pullman and tourist sleepers will be attached. This new train is in addition to the present 7 p. m. Shasta Overland, and will give many passengers the desired opportunity to see enroute the Great Willamette, Umpqua and Sacramento Valleys without loss of time, and still arrive in Oakland and San Francisco at a reasonable hour.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Your Face

Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, Pimples and Skin Eruptions. If you are feeling weak and worn out and do not have a healthy appearance you should try Acker's Blood Elixir. It cures all blood diseases where cheap Sarsaparillas and so called purifiers fail; knowing this we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 7c.

The "Plow Boy Preacher," Rev. J. Kirkman, Belle River, Ill., says: "After suffering from Bronchial or lung trouble for ten years, I was cured by One Minute Cough Cure. It is all that is claimed for it and more." It cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Butler Drug Co.
