RUBBISH REGARDING RESERVE

Referring to Secretary Wilson's views as to the Northwest, published in the Oregonian of Oct. 13th, it is amazing what a grasp of the situation Mr. Wilson has taken during his short visit, or perhaps we ought to say it is amazing the amount of rubbish he has been stuffed with during his trip to the woolly West.

Mr. Wilson, after a few weeks of this stuffing process, knows more about sheep-raising, cattle-raising, lumbering and farming, than the thousands of men who have spent their lives at these various occupations. He first opens fire on the sheep raiser, with the question, "What is the first thing a sheepman does when he goes into a timber country? He sets fire to the trees, clears the land, and hopes thereby to secure a more extensive grazing land."

Can the worst enemy of the sheepmen deny that this is utter nonsense? If the sheepmen were to commit this folly, what would be left for their flocks to feed on during the summer? Does Mr. Wilson imagine the blackened earth would send forth another growth of grass, and the burnt trees again become clothed with foliage that summer? Has it ever dawned on him that sheep go to the timber just as much for shade as pasture? Probably this gentleman never saw a band of sheep hunt shade on one of our blazing August days. If he did he never would say the sheep-raiser would wilfully destroy the trees that give that shade.

Mr. Wilson then goes on to say that a hungry sheep will turn savagely and eat the young pine, a statement that every stockman knows to be without foundation. He predicts the utter ruin of the timber ranges if the sheep are allowed to remain, but as a panacea for this evil suggests that the sheep should be replaced by goats, which are to be annually skinned and fortunes made from the sale of the hides. Ye gods! Has Mr. Wilson never seen a bunch of goats at their favorite occupation of barking trees and clearing out brush? Further comment is superfluous.—More Leader.

PUTTING IT LIGHT.

The good ladies of the W. C. T. U. are engaged in a most worthy work, however hopeless the accomplishment of all their objects may be, though they cannot fully succeed, and though the forces of good and evil will continue to battle for supremacy long after the youngest of these devoted women has passed from earth, yet their work is not wholly in vain. No good, unselfish, earnest work ever is altogether in vain. Their proper sphere of influence lies chiefly with children and youth, and no one can measure the influence for good that they may exert within that sphere. If the children can be trained right, the men and women of the future will be better than those of today.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

The "Plow Boy Preacher," Rev. J. Kirkman, Belle River, Ill., says: "After suffering from Bronchial or lung trouble for ten years, I was cured by One Minute Cough Cure. It is all that is claimed for it and more." It cures coughs, colds, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Butler Drug Co.
