Oh, the Pain of Rheumatism!

Rheumatism often causes the most intense suffering. Many have for years vainly sought relief from this disabling disease, and are to-day worse off than ever. Rheumatism is a blood disease, and Swift's Specific is the only cure, because it is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated diseases.

A few years ago I was taken with inflammatory Rheumatism, which became so intense that I was for weeks unable to walk. I tried several prominent physicians and took their treatment faithfully, but was unable to get the slightest relief. In fact, my condition seemed to grow worse, the disease spread over my entire body, and from November to March I suffered agony. I tried many patent medicines, but none relieved me. Upon the advice of a friend I decided to try S. S. S. Before allowing me to take it, however, my guardian, who was a chemist, analyzed the remedy, and pronounced it free of poison or mercury. I felt so much better after taking two bottles, that I continued the remedy, and in two months I was cured completely. The cure was permanent, for I have never since had a touch of Rheumatism, though many times exposed to damp and cold weather.

711 Powell Avenue, Philadelphia.
Don't suffer longer with Rheumatism. Throw aside your oils and liniments, as they can not reach your trouble. Don't experiment with doctors—their potash and mercury will add to your disability and completely destroy your digestion.

S.S.S. For the Blood will cure perfectly and permanently. It is guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral. Books mailed free by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

A WISE COON THIS.

Deceived Two Dogs by Jumping Under a Fence a Coon and Coming Out a Rabbit.

For many years Manuel Martin has been champion coon hunter of the Pee Dee country. Scores of wily ringtails have fallen victim to his cunning, and stories of his exploits have been spread far and wide by sportsmen who accompanied him on his hunts. Duckers from the north and west regard a coon hunt with Martin as one of the features of their outing. He guarded corn patches and hen roosts against midnight depredations, and farmers are distressed now that he has forsaken coon hunting. A few nights ago he took several deep pulls at a dispensary bottle and straddled a sack of coffee in Ben Edge's grocery to give his reasons for swearing off, as something due the community.

"It happened this way," he began. "The fellows as I took hunting told coon stories in newspapers and sent me the papers all ink marked. I came almost to believe their yarns and thought I was smarter than any coon that ever shucked an ear of corn. To catch coons you got to remember they are wise and you are a fool; else you can't start low down to get around their tricks. Treeing, shaking down and a fight will do for she coons. He coons is different. Besides their strength and endurance, every one has his own way to dodge dogs.

"Not long ago Jim Dickson sent me word that a he coon was eating all his corn down in a bottom next the swamp. He knew it was he coon 'cause he couldn't catch him. I took General Lee and Stonewall Jackson over to help Jim out. General Lee is a cur with a little hound and a little pointer in him, and Stonewall Jackson is a half hound and a half bull. They've got sharp noses, pluck, endurance, strength and character enough not to run rabbits, foxes or possums under no circumstances. Best of all, they don't get jealous like real officers in the military.

"Me and the dogs ran that coon through water, bogs, rattan, grapevines, brambles, canebrakes and cypress knees, and would've run him through the Atlantic ocean if it had been in the swamp instead of somewhere else. Every time General Lee and Stonewall Jackson trailed out to high land and lost the scent at a rail fence. I tried all manner of circling and holding General Lee's nose along the top rail, but had to give it up for a bad job. One night I made a nigger stand at the fence to see what the coon did with himself. Sambo, that's his name, swore to gracious that a coon went under the fence, turned around and came out a rabbit. All the niggers got scared. They took it into their heads I was chasing my grandfather's ghost. The thing did look kinder curious, but I made up my mind to catch him anyhow, though Jim's corn was safe in the crib and mine wasn't.

"I wore out both dogs, and had to fall back on curs. Curlike, when the coon went under the fence and the rabbit came out, they lit off after him, yelping like they were trailing a box car full of coons. I went home powerful mad at our dogs. Next night I went again with curs, 'cause I was bound to keep things lively. It took half of me to catch that coon like a leech takes hold of a rotten log. And we caught him. That is, the curs got in a fight with him under the fence, and I busted his brains out with a club before he had time to lick them and get away.

"The thing seemed simple enough after I found out, but it showed how much sense a he coon can have. A rabbit had his bed under the fence, into which the coon ran when he got tired poking fun at me and my dogs. Naturally, the rabbit got out, and in doing so brushed his sides against the mouth of the bed. Rabbit scent among wild animals is like goat scent among tame ones. It's rank. At the first sniff both dogs were completely fooled. After the curs made a moonlight meal on the rabbit trailing was easy. What I want to know is how in thunder Mr. Coon found out he was safe in a rabbit bed and that General Lee and Stonewall Jackson wouldn't cross a rabbit trail.

"I took the coon home and let General Lee and Stonewall Jackson smell him. They stuck their tails between their legs and sneaked off with their bellies close to the ground. Both are ashamed to look anybody in the face. While I was hunting all night and sleeping all day November rains gave my corn the sprouts. One look at the meal made my wife so mad that I had to swear off coon hunting to pacify her."—N. Y. Sun.

Artificial Daylight.

Tesla has succeeded in making artificial daylight. In his laboratory he shows numerous balls of glass of different sizes which look like miniature suns. The balls are empty; there are no wires in them nor outside of them. They do not burn the fingers. The light does not hurt the eyes as sunlight and ordinary electric light do. A number of leading New York and Chicago photographers will have this artificial daylight supplied to their studios. Tesla says: "The reason I have chosen to introduce the new daylight to the photographers first is that I believe them to be the severest critics in the matter of light. If it succeeds with them a new light will succeed everywhere."—N. Y. World.

Admiral George Dewey

Will receive the most royal welcome on Oct. 1st next, that was ever accorded to an American citizen.
You will find a complete biography of this great hero, including his boyhood days; the part he took in the Civil War; how after the War he was employed on the European station; in the Naval Academy; his rise to the rank of Commander and President of the Board of Inspection and Survey; his command of the Asiatic Squadron; how on April 27th he left Hong Kong with his squadron, and destroyed the Spanish Fleet, at Manila, on May 1st; his appointment as Acting Rear Admiral, the honors he received from Congress, and how on March 2nd, 1899, he was created full Admiral. It speaks of him as a strict disciplinarian, an all-around athlete, a daring horseman and huntsman, and socially a good club man and a general favorite. It tells of his marriage to Miss Susy Goodwin, a daughter of the "fighting governor" of New Hampshire, who died in 1872, leaving a son, George Goodwin Dewey.

New Werner Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica
