Asthma's Clutch

The sufferer from Asthma is constantly wheezing, gasping, hacking and clearing the throat. When a storm approaches, when there is a cloud of dust, when a room is being swept, or when there is a bad odor, breathing becomes most difficult. Often it seems as though someone was clutching the sufferer by the throat with a terrible grasp. The choking sensation is almost unbearable. The trouble sometimes lasts only a few minutes and again hangs on for many days. There is only one safe thing to do, and that is take Acker's English Remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles. Just what this medicine accomplishes is shown by the following letter from Mr. N. H. Andrews, a prominent resident of Springfield, Ohio, who writes:—

"W. H. Hooker & Co., New York: Gentlemen.—It affords me a great pleasure to assure you that I have received both immediate and permanent relief from throat, bronchial and asthmatic troubles by using Acker's English Remedy, taken strictly according to directions. It is a blessing to humanity."
 Sold at 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 6d., 2s. 6d., 3s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist and get your money back.
 We authorize the above guarantee.

WIDOW SAVES HER HOME.

A Brave Chicago Woman Secures 1,000 Subscriptions and Lifts a $500 Mortgage.

South side women are just now talking about the feat of a plucky woman in saving her home. She is a widow, and her husband left her a house and lot incumbered with a $500 mortgage. She had no way to lift the incumbrance, and when it came due she could do nothing but throw herself upon the mercy of the holders of the paper. They were decent people, however, and agreed to give her three months' extension of time. Two months of this respite was wasted in attempts to secure assistance from acquaintances.

Just about the time the widow had given up hope she saw the offer of a woman's periodical agreeing to give $500 to anyone who should secure 1,000 annual subscriptions within a specified time. The time expired in just a month, and the task seemed hopeless. But the woman seized the chance and went to work that very day.

She had fair success from the first day. When she thought it would do any good she told her story, and many people who cared little or nothing for the magazine subscribed to help her along. She visited residence districts only, and appealed to the woman of the house almost entirely. As the days went by many women grew interested in her brave effort, and little clubs and societies did what they could to help her. Many women would say this: "Now, if you find at the last minute that you are a few dollars short, come to see me and I'll subscribe again. I can send the paper to a country cousin."

The woman had many ups and downs. Some days subscriptions were secured easily and rapidly; other days she made little or no headway. As the end of the month drew near things grew less encouraging. Her acquaintances had long ago been exhausted. The available territory in the vicinity of her home had been thoroughly gone over, and people living at a distance, she found, were much less apt to lend a sympathetic ear. Still, the list grew steadily, and there was always a fighting chance. The last day found her just a dozen subscriptions short, tired out and nearly hopeless. She was casting about in her mind for some way to raise the money necessary for the 12 subscriptions, when the door bell rang. It was a note from a woman who had already subscribed, but contained a dollar and warm words of encouragement. This note was the first of many such messages. And before evening the list of 1,000 names was complete.

Out of the woman's brave effort has grown a double result. She was not strong physically when she began her campaign, but the exercise unavoidably connected with her work has made her a healthy woman. She got the $500 and she saved her home.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Admiral George Dewey

Will receive the most royal welcome on Oct. 1st next, that was ever accorded to an American citizen.
 You will find a complete biography of this great hero, including his brilliant victory over the Spanish fleet in the great, authoritative and up-to-date work of reference, the

New Werner Edition of the

Encyclopædia

Britannica

This is the only encyclopædia on the market that mentions Admiral Dewey. It gives the date of his birth; how he spent his boyhood days; the part he took in the Civil War; how after the War he was employed on the European station; in the Naval Academy; his rise to the rank of Commander and President of the Board of Inspection and Survey; his command of the Asiatic Squadron; how on April 21st he left Hong Kong with his squadron, and destroyed the Spanish fleet, at Manila, on May 1st; his appointment as Acting Rear Admiral, the honors he received from Congress, and how on March 2nd, 1899, he was created full Admiral. It speaks of him as a strict disciplinarian, an all-around athlete, a daring horseman and hunter, and socially a good club man and a general favorite. It tells of his marriage to Miss Susy Goodwin, a daughter of the "fighting governor" of New Hampshire, who died in 1872, leaving a son, George Goodwin Dewey.

Governor Theodore Roosevelt

Admiral Schley

Admiral Sampson

Capt. Clark of the Oregon and scores of other noted personages not even mentioned in any other Encyclopædia receive the same attention in this edition of the
